Mr Stewart's wine is packed up, & will be sent him by the first ship th[a]t sails; there is just 19 doz[n] & a half of it. I have herewith inclosd his Lre, & also a copy of the petition to parliament for a bill to divide Hexham comon & under another cover have sent the Bill.

I communicated that part of your Lre relating to Mr Fawcet to both Mr Peareth & Mr Simpson, & they are both, especially Mr Peareth, in y[ou]r sentim[en]ts & as the Magistrates are to meet this afternoon upon the Corporation Affairs Mr Peareth will offer it as his own Thoughts, That it will be more politic & adviseable for matters to appear in the Recorder's name.

Hon Sir

The hhd [hogshead] of Claret, wch you ordered to be returned to Mr Stewart, cannot be sent back to London without a deal of difficulty at the Custom house here & every Hazard of having it stopd by the Officers in London, for by some Mistake when it was first down here in March 1753 a Sufference was taken out for it at the Custom house in London as a hhd [hogshead] of Port Wine & the proper officer here passed it as such, as it was directed to you without any Examination w[hi]ch if known to the Comissioners might lose him his place. Mr Stewart must therefore dispose of the Wine here, for it cannot safely be removed to any other place; & Mr Greenwood tells me th[a]t Mr Rudd at the Kings head is willing to take it & has wrote Mr Stewart to that purpose by this post. If Mr Stewart is determined to have it sent up, he must make an affidavit that the hhd [hogshead] of French Wine w[hi]ch he sold you is part of what he paid all dutie for in London at such time, w[hi]ch affidavit must be sent down hither, & then Mr Greenwood must make Oath th[a]t this is the same hhd [hogshead] w[hi]ch by Mistake was sent down hither under the denomination of port wine; But even then the Officer here will lay under the lash for letting it pass & it will probably occasion all y[ou]r Goods being strictly examined for the future.

Thos.Allan's term for Blakelaw farm will expire at Mayd[a]y next, I desire you will acquaint the parties therewith, & let me know whether I am to get him to sign a new Article, or let him continue without one. It is also necessary to lay out £5 or 6 now in repairing some of the houses, otherwise it may require thrice that sum to repair them in a very little time. I think it my duty to mention these things, for as I hear nothing how Mr Wilson goes on with the purchase, nor when he is to enter upon the Estate I am at a loss how to act herein. I recd yo[u]r Lre of the 12 & yesterday I made a demand on Mr Beaumont at his house at W.Denton for the arrears of the Wayleave Rent thro W.Kenton amounting to £900 due at Mayday last, wch he refused to pay, on wch my son who went with me servd him with a Copy of the Notice of Motion & inclo.d you have his & my affid[avi]ts thereof. Mr Beaumont seemd greatly affected w[i]th this unexpected demand & s[ai]d if he was pushd he must run the Country, but wo[ul]d go & advise with Mr Richardson his Attorney what was to be done. He is still possitive he made an assignm[en]t of the Lease to Sr W.Hazlerig, wch he was refusd a Couterp[ar]t of, but you know Mr Lowes made an Affid[avi]t wch you've a Copy of, th[a]t no such assignm[en]t was ever made. I also inclose you a Copy of the last rec[eip]t I gave Mr Lowes for the Wayleave rent, wch I hope is no way amiss for it was at the time understood th[a]t Mr Beaumont had assigned both the Coll[ier]y and wayleave lease to S[i]r Arth[u]r. I askd Mr Rutter what was done between Mr Shafto & Mr Beaumont & he told me, nothing at all; for the matter was referd to Mr Ridley & Mr Collingwood who did not make any award. I find when Sr Arthr.Hazlerig pulled up the Waggonway Mr Shafto imediately entred upon the Steath houses th[a]t were let to Mr Beaumont with the wayleave & has let them ever since wch is lookd upon as a wrong step & much in his disfavour & this leads me to mention th[a]t when the Waggon Way was laid thro W.Kenton Mr Lowes built a hut for a Gatekeeper in Chicken & Mavins farm & I believe those tenants have since the way was pulled up sometimes let that hut to poor people for 6 or 8s a Y[ea]r but without any Concurrence of mine, for I never let it or rec[eive]d a farthing for it, but I hope the step can be taken no advantage of. Mr Beaum[on]t is now winning a Coll[ier]y th[a]t he has taken of the E[ar]l of Northumberland wch will be a chargeable affair to him, but who are his P[ar]tners, or whether he has any I do not know: if he has none he must have a deal of money to go thro. with such an Undertaking. I have some Apprehension, tho I dont know it to be so th[a]t he wo[ul]d be willing to compound Matters w[i]th the owners of W.Kenton, for when I told him I wondered he sho[ul]d never make any offers, he expressed himself as if he did not know w[ha]t offer from him would be acceptable but when I askd him why he had never tho[ugh]t it proper to give Notice to determine the Lease, he s[ai]d he was advisd by a Gent[lema]n of the Law not to do it, for as he had never enjoyd the Wayleave he co[ul]d come to no damage, & it is true enough that he never enjoyd the wayleave; for Sir Ar.Hazlerig or Mr Lowes seized upon him for Money advanced him to carry on the Coll[ier]y before the way was laid, & Mr Lowes p[ai]d me the 6 Yr rent I rec[eiv]ed , for I never rec[eiv]ed any money of Mr Beaumont except 6s8d for 73 fo[ther]s & 1/2 of coals led by Carts before the waggonway was laid.

As there is now only between 3 & 4 years to go in the Dean & Chapters Lease of Jarrow Colliery, I am pretty well assured they will let it into other hands if no Agreement is made with them in 8 or 9 months time, for after 18 years of the 21 are expired, they look upon themselves discharged from any Obligation of further Treaty with their old Tenants. You know all the Circumstances that attend this Affair, & I mentioned them again to Mr Denton when last here & it was his Opinion that it was not worth your while to think any more about it, however I think it my Duty to mention this Business again as the term is so near expiring.

Mr Beaumont was with me yesterday, & says Mr John Richardson wrote to his Agent last post, to appear to the motion, in order to get Proceedings stopd till next Term, within wch time he hopes matters may be compromised. I askd him if he would make any Proposal towards a Accomodation, & I would acquaint the Parties therewith, he seemd afraid to mention any sum, & said when I was authorisd to treat with him he would then tell me what he would do, he talkd of paying the money that should be agreed on at annual Payments, but I told him I did not think that would be acceptable, & from the whole Conversation that passed between us, I have Reason to think that he would be willing to pay half the £900 down, provided he could have a Release, & the wayleave Leases given up. So you may communicate this to the Parties, if you think it proper, for their Consideration.

Hon[oure]d Sir

When the Hhd [hogshead] of Claret you had of Mr Stewart was sent down hither there was no affid[avit] made ab[ou]t it neither did you pay anything on that occasion. All the Mistake is it came here by a Custom house dispatch as Port Wine & now when we want to return it to London, it is necessary to have refference to the time & ship it came down in & to make affid[avit], that it is the same wine; but the Collec[tor] & Comptroller finding by the dispatch that the wine w[hi]ch then came here was called port wine, cannot allow a hhd [hogshead] of french wine to be returned in lieu thereof without the affid[avi]ts mentiond in my Lre of 8th inst being first made & after the the officer that passd it without examination having a severe reprimand. Therefore I do not see how it can be well returned, But Mr Greenwood says that Mr Rudd at the Kings head is willing to take it either of you or Mr Stewart at 36s a doz[e]n. I have not wrote to Mt Stewart about it, but I imagined th[a]t Mr Rudd had wrote him as Mr Greenwood told me he s[ai]d he would do.

Mr Jno.Reed has been w[i]th me & says if you please to let him have £40 it will pay his debts & put him into some way of providing for his family & less than that he thinks will not do. I p[ai]d him £60 in Nov 1752 by y[ou]r ord[er] to compound his debts & put a little money in his pocket, & desire your directions what sum I am now to let him have.

I expect to see Mr Collingwood tomorrow & will then tell him what you are pleased to say about Mr Thos.Brown of Shields

As to the D[ean] & Chapters Coll[ie]ry I am still of opinion th[a]t it would be a very troublesome affair for you to engage in unless you were disengaged f[ro]m your present partners & even then nobody can answer for the success of it.

You herewith receive Rennisons tickett for the Lead recd at Blaydon by w[hi]ch you will find that there are 4 P[iece]s short of Dukesfield Lead, 20 P[iece]s short of Allenheads Lead & 1 P[iece] short of Lintzgarth Lead. Jno.Harrison has not been at Blaydon this y[ea]r to compare accts as usual; but I believe we shall fix the P[iece]s wanting f[ro]m Lintgarth upon Jno. Maughan . As for the Allenh[ea]ds & Dukesf[iel]d Carriers I shall insist upon their making Oath before a Justice of Peace of the No. of P[iece]s they have respectively laid down at Apperly Stob before they have any money paid them. If that is not done before the pay I will stop 25s apiece f[ro]m the whole Carriage & let them adjust it among themselves as they can, & therefore you will take care to have this done unless you can clearly discover where the fault lays. for the E.hand carriers are all ready to make Oath th[at] they have brought in all they have taken up at the Stob. And as to its being any Mistake of y[ou]r Clarks I do not believe it, for that point is easily cleared up when the Smeltings & remaining stock is compared together, but I cannot comp[are] them together till I have all the accts bro[ugh]t me in. This Loss of Lead every y[ea]r is so provoking th[at] some measures must be taken to prevent it if the Carriers can all acquit themselves I must desire Sir Wm. to publish a handsome reward to any person who will discover the theives or any of them if we may banish them the Country, for as Lead is now of a greater value than formerly, it is a greater temptation to ill disposd people to steal it & makes it almost necessary to have a person fixed at the Stob, to keep an acct of it as it comes & goes, w[hi]ch w[oul]d have been done before this if the Quakers Co. wo[ul]d have agreed to bear part of the expence.

Hon.Sir

I am sorry to find you have any Reason to be uneasie about the sale of Esholt & am surprised that Mr Strother behaviour in that affair has not been agreeable to what you expected from him. As to the £2000 which you have lost in [the] Sale it is a deal of Money, but I hope the Lead mines this year will make you full Compensation, for Allanheads goes on extremely well, & Weardale I hope is on the mending hand, so that if the price of Lead do but keep up, I doubt not but this year will be better than the last. I will send Mr Wilson the State of Teller Colliery in a Post or two. I send you inclosed a acct of your several purchases proper to be annexed to the Trust Estate with the Value I think they are deserving of * [as marginal note: the same as sent Mr Denton in my letter 26 April last]. I cannot think Kenton a dear Purchase at £9000 for the net Rental of it now is £596.3.8 & as to the Royalties I cannot take upon me to say what the just value of them is, but I do think they ought not to be estimated at less than £2000, the intrest of £9000 at 31/2 P[er]Cent esceeds the present Rental of the Estate, about £70 but I am of opinion that some of the farms may be considerably advanced when you determine to let leases of them for 9 or 11 years. It is not unlikely that Mr Wilson has bought West Kenton for Sir Wm.Wentworth & if so he ought to give you 20000guineas for the Eastside, if you retain your inclination of parting with it. Mr Munton is dead which is a great loss to the Parish a greater to the School & the greatest to his family, his sermons are to be printed for the Benefit of the Widdow under the Care of Mr Ellison Mr Dockwray & Mr Moises & its expected will raise about £100 for Mr Ellison says he knows one Gentleman, I imagine Dr Tew, that will subscribe 10 guineas. I hope this will find you well. I am etc JR

PS. I think the Bear is as fatt as it can well be, but wee will be adding to it all wee can, till you give further Directions.

17 Jan 1755 Joseph Richmond to William Wentworth

[Note: No addressee or date given - it appears to be a report for Sir William Wentworth; see letter of same date to Joshua Wilson, Pontefract]

The present State of Jarrow Coll[ie]ry first taken by old Sir Wm.Blackett & P[ar]tners in 1691, of which

Sr Wr.Blackett has	4/8
Mess Ledger	2/8
Mr J Wilkinsons Ex[ecuto]rs	1/8
Mr Nathl.Clayton	1/8
	8 Eighths

This coll[ie]ry is held under the D[ea]n & Chap[te]r of Durham by lease for 21 Yrs formerly renewed every 7th Yr without any fine, the present Lease has 3 yrs to go from March next. It was taken by & in the name of Mr Jno. Wilkinson (in trust for Sr Wr.Blackett & P[ar]tners) who refusd to renew at the end of the first 7 yrs as usual, unless the Chap[te]r wo[ul]d grant the same terms, w[hi]ch they then refused to do & so Mr Wilkinson made no further application. The pres[en]t Lease includes the whole Parish of Jarrow th[a]t belongs to the Chap[te]r and takes in the Towns[hi]ps of Harton Westoe Hedworth Mountain Heworth & the rent is £40 a y[ea]r certain & £5 a ten for 315 coal bolls.

As this colliery is quite wro[ugh]t out till there is a new winning made of her, w[hi]ch none of the other P[ar]tners were willing & one not able to engage in, Sir Wr.Blackett caused a view to be made by the most skillful viewers, whose Opinion is th[a]t the winning will require above 2 y[ea]rs to compleat it & will cost w[i]th the Steath & waggonway about £7000, but that the same might be compleated & earned on to advantage as the price of Coals now is at Newcastle, if no troubles happen w[hi]ch they co[ul]d not foresee. Upon this report Sr W.Blackett took all the other P[ar]tners shares at £160 p[er] year conditionally, if he could obtain a renewal of the Lease, & in Nov 1750 he applyd to the Chap[te]r & offerd them a certain rent of £150 a Y[ea]r for 600 tens & £5 a ten for what he sho[ul]d lead above the Q[uan]tity, w[hi]ch were the highest Terms he was advised to offer, but they rejected his proposals & wo[ul]d not renew any p[ar]t of the pres[en]t limits, except the township of Heworth only: They also objected to a Clause granted in every Coll[ie]ry Lease "That the Lessee be at Liberty to fetch up his deficiencies in working his Q[uan]tity, for the certain rent in any succeeding y[ea]r" & made other unreasonable Objections w[hi]ch w[oul]d not be submitted to by any Lessee, & so the treaty dropt.

The same P[ar]tners have also another Coll[ie]ry in Gatesh[ea]d Fell adjoining to Heworth towns[hi]p w[hi]ch they lease of Hen.Thos.Carr & Hen.Ellison Esq (who are Lessees under the B[isho]p of Durham) at £150 a yr for 300 Tens, & £40 a ten for all above the Q[uan]tity. This is a concurrent Lease renewable without any variation but this coll[ie]ry is also wro[ugh]t out in the upper seams & as it lies to the Rise of the D[ea]n & Chap[te]r Coll[ie]ry can only be won anew thro them, There is nothing going on in this Coll[ie]ry for the certain rent but a Land sale pit by w[hi]ch Sr Wr. is every y[ea]r a considerable loser, for this Lease being granted in his name, he is obliged to pay all the Rent & some of the p[ar]tners are not able to pay up their proportions notwithstanding w[hi]ch this Lease , w[hi]ch is determinable at any time for bearing to work six months, is still kept on foot as a Check upon the D[ea]n & Chap[te]r because its believed there is nobody will undertake the winning of their Colliery at the worth, without having the B[isho]ps Coll[ie]ry also, as one must lay the other dry.

If Sr Wm Wentworth has any thoughts of engaging in this affair I think the best way will be to treat with the Chap[te]r imediately for Heworth towns[hi]p only, if he can obtain no larger bounds, for a Lease of 21 yrs to comence from the expiration of the present Lease, w[hi]ch Mr Wilkinsons Ex[ecu]tors say they will not sujrrrender but are determind shall run out as young Ma.Wilkinson wants 3 or 4 y[ea]rs of being of age Unless the Chap[te]r wo[ul]d renew upon the old terms, wch they will never do.

You see by all this that Sir Wr.Blackett has done everything with regard to these Collieries th[a]t can be expected f[ro]m him, & I have set the whole affair to you in as clear a light as I am able to do.

Sir

I have rec[eiv]ed a Letter f[ro]m Sr W[alte]r Blackett ordering me to send you the state of Jarrow & Gateshead Fell Coll[ie]rys, wch I have herewith done, for Sr Wm Wentworths consideration, whether he will endeavour to obtain a new lease of the D[ea]n & Chap[ter] of Durham for Jarrow, to comence at the expiration of the present Lease, or suffer the same to fall into other hands for Sr W[alte]r, you will see by the inclosed, has done all th[a]t lay in his power to obtain a renewal, but f[ro]m the unreasonable stifness of the Chap[te]r, & the situation of Affairs with his P[ar]tners, he has not been able to get it done tho for the last seven y[ea]rs he has had a great deal of trouble about it. Hon[ou]red Sir Herewth inclosed is a Copy of the state of Jarrow & Gateshead Coll[ie]rys wch I have sent Mr Wilson & is a true state of the case w[i]thout laying more to the charge of the late Mr Wilkinson, wch I might justly have done; for the Lease might have been got renewd at the end of the first 7 yrs at the old rents, if he wo[ul]d have agreed to the exception of the 3 towns[hi]ps of Hartyon, Westoe & Heworth, wch all the p[ar]tners thought it prudent to submit to. But he wo[ul]d never agree to any reduction f[ro]m the pres[en]t boundaries, in hopes th[a]t you wo[ul]d take his share upon his own terms.

Richd.Liddells petition to parliament has rousd the Corporation, & a petition is now handing abo[u]t to be signed by the Justices of No[rthumber]land & Durham. setting forth the bad consequences wch will attend the use he makes of his Vessels in the River Tyne, wch will be sent you in a post or two.

Mr Ellis writes that Mr Shafto Downs has begun to work Coals at Stublock in yo[u]r Liberty by the order of Messrs Walton & Boag the hospitals Agents, & desires to know w[ha]t steps are proper to be taken to pu a stop to their working there. For if he is allowed to go on for any time, the whole ground in dispute, being above 336 acres will be lost. On the other side (see above) you have a particular state of the case for your consideration. To present & amerce Mr Downs at Hexham Court Mr Ellis says will be to no purpose. Perhaps the Com[missione]rs of the hospital will agree to refer this Dispute, & give orders to stop Mr Downs' working till it is determind. If they will not something else should be done to stop him as soon as may be.

I hear today that John Gibson is dying, so that Mr Peart will want an able assistant in Weardale. Sedling Grove gets Oar pretty well; but there is little got anywhere else in that Country. but we are in hopes that Elmford & Great Slitt will turn out well in a little time, & repay the great expence you have been at.

Mr Robson is still here under Dr Coopers care, who cannot yet get his disorder removed. but he seems rather better. his constitution seems to be impaired, so that he cannot go through business as he has done. I sho[ul]d therefore think it proper for you to have some body bringing up at Wallington under him.

Mr Ralph Headlam has done with the Merchants business; & I find you are to have sev[era]l applications by this post to recomend him as Secretary to Mr Littleton, who is going Governor to Carolina.

I have rec[eiv]ed 28 boxes with Goods f[ro]m Esholt, wch will remain unopened, till you come into the Country. I am etc JR

Case for S[i]r W[alte]r Blackett's Consideration

In 1730 you let High Stulock Coll[ie]ry to one Jno.Brown for £6 a y[ea]r, who wro[ugh]t her for 5 yrs without any interruption & then have her up; in 1737 she was let again to Abm.Teasdale & Thos.Westgarth for 14 yrs at £7 a yr for the first 6 yrs & £12 a yr afterwards. In 1739 the Agents for Greenwich hop[ita]l alledged that nthe Gro[un]d where Teasdale & Westgarth were working was in the Barony of Langley, & at a Court for that Barony they presented Teasdale & Westgarth for sinking pitts on Stublock Edge, & amerced them in £30 wch their Bailif came to Levy, but was prevented by the workmen; in a few days after, he returnd with more force, & carried away the Ropes & Tools to Haydon bridge & sold them in an hours time, but y[ou]r tenants were orderd to bring new materials to the pitts & carry on the work. In June 1740 you were served with a subpoena out of the Exchequer & a copy of an Injunction to stop the working. The Subpoena was deliverd to Mr Ord, but never anything more was done since wch time the Coll[ie]ry has lain unwro[ugh]t till now, that Mr Shafto Downs the Hospitals

Tenant for Gregs shield Coll[ie]ry, wch adjoins Stublock, has begun to work Coals in the liberty (or at least what has always been lookd upon to be within the Manor of Hexham) & says he has orders f[ro]m the hospitals Agents to do so. I find by some copies of Lres in my Office, & other papers that there was a dispute about this matter in 1690, between the Earl of Darwentwater & Sr Wm.Blackett, & it was referd to arbitrators to settle the boundary; but those chosen by the Earl, when they came upon the spot & viewed the gro[un]d, declined to enter into any Discussion of the matter; on which Sr Wm.Blackett proposd a friendly tryal at the next assizes, & in one of his letters he says he was determined never to give up an inch of the Gro[un]d till it was determind one way or other. But Gregshield belonging to the Dilston family, as above, being let to one Willey, & Stublock belonging to Sr Wm.Blackett let by him to one Bittlestone, those two p[er]sons entred into p[ar]tners[hi]p in both Coll[ie]rys & wro[ugh]t them for many y[ea]rs so that the dispute dropt between the two families. The Question is whether an Injunction can be obtained to stop Mr Downs working, or what other Method must be taken to support y[ou]r right in 336 acres of gro[un]d wch the hospitals tenants or Agents lay a Claim to. I desire you will be pleased to let us have y[ou]r directions herein as soon as convenient. I have herewith inclosed Copy of the Injunction they servd you with in 1740.

Mr Roberts tells me he writes you this Post to desire a Tack of a Vein a friend of his has lately discovered near to Allenheads, & that his terms are 40s a bing for the first 100 Bings & 25s afterwards, wch are the same proposal he made you about 12 months agoe. He mentioned this to me about a month agoe & I referd him to Mr Caleb Hunter, from whom I have heard nothing since about it. I do not know any Reason why he should not be granted a tack provided the place is not within 2 miles of Allenheads (for I think no tack ought to be granted within that Compass) nor is near to, or part of any discovered wein, Only the 40s a bing is a new thing & what is not practisd either in y[ou]r own Liberty or the Bishops, & I believe you wrote him on his former Application that it was what you did not chuse to agree to, as it was a bad precedent which all other tackers would expect.

Mr Peareth will sett forward tomorrow & propose to be in London on Tuesday Evening. You must have a great Deal of Trouble about this Affair, but I hope it will end in favour of the Corporation.

Mr Jno.Gibson id dead & yesterday Mr Peart was here & shewd me a recommendatory Lre signd by sev[era]l p[er]sons in behalf of one Jno.Peart a Relation of his & Son in Law to Jno.Gibson, to whom he has been assistant during his Illness; wch Lre you will receive by this post. Mr Peart says the young man is a good Grover, & the properest p[er]son you can fix on to put in Thos.Maughans place, who he wo[ul]d have preferd to Jno.Gibsons. I do think it wo[ul]d be very right to advance Maughan, & as to the young man recommended to his place, I believe he may do as well as any other. I know nothing of him myself but he appears to be very modest & sober, writes a good hand, is about 28 y[ea]rs of age, & Mr Peart says has an Estate in Weardale of abo[ut] £40 a y[ea]r, wch I do not think any bad Qualification. As I saw Mr Hunter of Allanheads had joind in the recomendacon I askd Mr Peart why Mr Rd.Allgood had not also sign it, he said he declined it: In wch he apprehends he designs to apply for his son; who Mr Peart says wo[ul]d be of no service as he is a Stranger to both the Groves & people in Weardale. He also says th[a]t the Person he recomends to Maughans place, expects no more than £20 a y[ea]r wxh is £5 less than you now pay. As the time for sending the Oar to the Mills is coming on an assistant sho[ul]d be appointed before Ladyday in Weardale; but as to Allanheads, they may dispence longer without one; if your Agents there keep their health, but if either of them sho[ul]d be taken ill, your Affairs wo[ul]d probably suffer. I think it wo[ul]d therefore be right to determine, who you will also please to place there. You will remember the p[er]sons who applied to you for the vacancy are Chris. Vickers recomended by Mr Aynsley, who Mr Hunter & Mr Allgood said was of a hasty temper; Joshua Dodds, who I believe is some way allied to Mr Hunter & Rd. Allgood for his son; any of the 3 you shall please appoint will in my opinion do very well while Mr Hunter lives.

The Apprehensions of a Rupture with France puts a full stop to the Lead Trade; & if matters are not made up, that Comodity must drop very considerably; you have abo[ut] 8000 p[ieces] at Bladon, mostly come in since the middle of Octo[ber], since wch time we have had no demand.

Mr Robson is pretty well recoverd & intends to go to Wallington in 2 or 3 days, he says Thos. Hepple & sons have taken the farm & signed an Article for one y[ea]r at £100. The younger son who is one of the Lives in the B[isho]ps Lease on some Difference has left his Father & its said intends to go to sea.

I had some talk today with Mr Walton about Stublock & he says as you did not proceed & bring the Matter to a Tryal when servd with the Injunction they have Orders to work the Coll[ie]ry; & if you bring an Injunction to stop them, the hospital will try the Right with you.

I think the Boundaries of Hexham ought to rode this Year.

Liddle's Affair is the chief subject in all Companies; & most people apprehend th[a]t tho the Hoppers may be laid aside, yet something or other will fall heavy on the Corporation. But I hope it will prove otherwise.

You have, in the Case I sent you, the best acct I am able to give of the Enjoyment of the Royalty of the Gro[un]d in dispute between Hexham & Langley, & as to the Herbage Mr Ellis informs me, that the Tenants within the manor of Hexham, have during the Memory of Man enjoyed it without any Interruption that he ever heard of but on the other hand, when any Goods belonging to the tenants of the Barony of Langley came on to that Ground they never met with any disturbance f[ro]m your Copyhold Tenants, not had your Tenants Goods ever any disturbance, when they went beyond yo[u]r boundary: for it is a large tract of Gro[un]d & a good distance from any houses, so no Notice has been taken of the Goods trespassing on one Another. But whether he has a right to make the trench you mention to win the s[ai]d Coalmines & whether his view in doing it, at this time of his especially, may not more likely be to drain his own Colliery of Oakwood, you will as you know the situation of the s[ai]d Places & other Circumstances, be best able to judge. On fryday I attended at Cambo, but the weather was so very bad th[a]t Mr Allgood co[ul]d not come, & a sufficient No. of the Com[missione]rs did not meet to do any business, so that another meeting will I believe by appointed in about three weeks. I have inquired as far as I co[ul]d into all the Circumstances th[a]t can attend the fixing a Bar at cambo, & am satisfied th[a]t it will be attended with very little hards[hi]p or inconvenience to your Tenants, for if the Trustees sho[ul]d not allow a very easy Composition, they may have their Lime etc to any p[ar]t of the Estate without ever passing the Bar, as Mr Robson will particularly inform you, so th[a]t I think it is much the best way to let the Trustees take their own way & fix a gate where they please, wch I beleive they will soon find reason to remove; for Mr Robson is very confident the toll will never pay the gatekeeper. The Road as now laid is certainly most advantageous for the public, I generally allowed so, & to consent to alter it to humour two or three of the Subscribers, wo[ul]d probably in the end be bringing greater Inconveniencies upon yourself & Tenants. I have reason to apprehend f[ro]m Mr Browne that the Trustees have no intention of laying your tenants under any hards[hi]ps, if they co[ul]d do it; but th[a]t they will very likely allow them to pass toll free, for your agreeing to keep in repair the road from Wansbec to Gallowshill, wch I think wo[ul]d not be unreasonable; for th[a]t will be laying no expence upon you, as the tenants 6 days work will more than sufficiently do it. But if they sho[ul]d not make you this proposal, it is not at all material for the reason above. As to the people coming f[ro]m Elsdon & th[a]t Quarter, they may very well afford to pay at Cambo; for as there is no Bar at Elsdon they will have no other bar to pay at till they come to Kenton. Mr Allgood sent the substance of your Lre to him, to be cominicated by Mr Brown to the Gents if there had been a Meeting.

The Town is in high spirits for the victory gained over Mr Liddle; but act with a proper decency, without making any public rejoicing. they have great reason gratefully to acknowledge the trouble you have had in the Affair. I am etc. JR

Inclosed are three bills for £990.0.0 (as above) wch I desire you will please to advise the receipt of. Ald[er]man Robt. Sorsbie is broke up by Geo. Blenkinsop who has seized on his Goods by an Execution for £180. I believe his debts amount to upwards of £2000, but what Effects he has to answer that sum I do not yet certainly know; but I doubt matters are very bad with him. I see he has given you in a cred[ito]r for £100 lent him. Whether his Cred[ito]rs will come into a Composition, or some of them will sue out a Comission of Bankruptcy is not yet known, but it is likely the latter will be the case, rather than Mr Blenkinsop shall get all his money.

Mr Liddle & Mr Bird have sent down a No. of printed papers, engaging themselves to keep indemnified all Masters of Ships, who shall make use of their Machine, one of wch Mr Mayor sends you by this post. this encourages the Ma[ste]rs to be as obstinate as ever, but its reason[a]ble to think they will alter their measures, when they find in what manner the Corporation intends to proceed with them.

I hope Mr Collingwoods Lre abo[u]t the roads etc at Wallington is quite satisfactory, another meeting was advertised to be this day at Cambo but as it is Good Friday Mr Robson writes me he does not expect a sufficient No. of the Comiss[i]one]rs will attend, so th[a]t nothing will probably be done before you come home. Mr Davison of Ferryhill is still living, but Dr Askew thinks he cannot continue long. I will send you the earliest advice I receive of any alteration.

The Hoppers go on as briskly as ever, & wee are told two addit[iona]l ones are expected named the Defiance & Revenge which is extreemly insolent, but I hope the Corporation will very speedily take measures to induce the Ma[ste]rs of These to consider better of it.

The Subscription going on for the Relief of the Families of Volunteer Seamen is lookd upon by some Gentlemen as very imprudent as it may hereafter lay the Government under some inconveniencies, by obligeing to give addit[iona]l Bounties, but our Zeal at present is so great that there is no restraining it, about £180 is already subscribed, Mr Ridley has subscribed five guineas, & tomorrow I shall agreeable to your Directions subscribe your £50 wch will make the whole subscription to that time £230. Mr Bell, Mr Reay, Mr Carr & Mr Jos.Ord are appointed to be a Comittee for the disposal of the money, & the Bounty is to extend to the families of all Volunteers that have entred or shall enter with Capt[ai]n Wheeler regulating Capt[ain]s here, but no more than one single paym[en]t is intended to be collected.

The horses are here ready for a journey & on fryday next Jno.Ogle will set forw[ar]d with 11 saddle horses & 3 coach horses & will be in London about the 19th.

I am not able yet to draw an exact State of y[ou]r Affairs to Xmas for I cannot have all the Stew[ar]ds accts till about Mayd[a]y, but I will do it as soon as I possibly can. I will take care to observe all the other directions of y[ou]r Lre.

PS Mr Sorsbie's C[reditor]s have mostly agreed to take what effects there are among them, how they will turn out I cannot yet tell. As he has done with Trade, I think yo[ur] orders for Corn to the Mines had better be divided, Viz Messrs Clark & Scurfield to have Weardale & Mr Harbottle to have Allanheads. The other Corn Merch[an]ts are Mr Surtees Mr Harry Peareth & Mr Bt.Greenwell. I desire you will please to let me have yo[u]r directions herein. I am etc JR

I am very sorry for Mr Stevens's bad Conduct, but hope you will be no great loser by him. I find by Mr Harveys Lre to his wife th[a]t he is alive.

Mr Geo.Simpson who was Mas[te]r of a Collier last year, & was at Ipswich in Sep[tembe]r, is now Mate to Mr Jno.Wall Ma[ste]r of the Swallow of Sunderland, wch ship is now in the River Thames; if you please to order Mr Denton to enquire after him on rec[ei]pt of hereof, he will probably meet with him in London, before the ship be discharged; if not, I will endeavour to get his information when he returns to Sunderland. I desire Mr Denton will let me kn ow if he meets with him.

As to Messrs Pearce, Price & Co's proposal to furnish you with Gunpowder, you will please to consider by what follows, whether it is worth your while to engage with them. You use for y[ou]r Lead Mines about 40 barrels a y[ea]r of the sort marked C & F wch they offer at 70s a barrel. The price you last paid Mr James Wilkinson was 72s a barrel, but I am informed it is lately advanced 5s a barrel, so we shall now pay 77s a barrel till there is some alteration.

40 barrels at 77s a barrel will come to	154.0.0
40 barrels at 70s as offerd by Messrs Pearce & Co	140.0.0
Freight & Charges will be abt 2s6d a barrel	5.0.0
a Wareho[use] must be rented at 4 <or>	5.0.0
	150.0.0
Remains to answer all hazard of fire etc	£ 4.0.0

So that in my opinion it is the better way to buy it here in town as you have always done, for the saving will not counterballance the hazard & insurance but if you chuse to oblige Messrs Pearce & Co. I do not see you are under any obligation to Mr Wilkinson or anybody else here, to deal with them contrary to your inclination; & I do not think they can have any reason to take it amiss. The Quakers Co. buy their Gunpowder in London, but their Agents charge the workmen 2d a fod[der] more than your workmen have ever paid, who have never been charged more than the first Cost & carriage.

The hoppers go on as usual, but the Corporation is determind to begin with the Ma[ste]rs this week, & w[ha]t effect their proceedingd a[gain]st them will have, a little time will shew. Mr Collingw[oo]d is doubtful as to the Consequences, but he says he will write you on this subject by the next post.

L[or]d Darlington & the other Lead Owners at Stockton continue to drop the price of their lead, so th[a]t I must either conform to the market or sell none. The Stock you have now at the Mils has cost you £11.16.0 a fo[dde]r so th[a]t I fear you will have but a poor acct. of yo[u]r mines this year.

Dr Askew tells me this morning th[a]t Mr Davison is much better.

Mr Ogle set forwards on Saturday with only 9 saddle horses & 3 coach horses. I am etc JR

The 2 P[er]sons undermentond are Wherry men at Bladon & sometimes employd in yr Service, but dare not follow their business for fear of the press; if you think it proper to apply for protection for them, it wo[ul]d be a particular favour to them & of some advantage to yourself. The Agent to the Quakers Co. here has represented to their Gov[erno]rs the necessity of procuring protections for their Wherry men, who bring down all their Lead to Newcastle Key, where it is d[elivere]d to you[r] Merch[an]ts, but as y[ou]r Lead is d[elivere]d at Bladon, the undermentioned p[er]sons are only made use of on particular occasions, & you are not under the same Necessity of getting them protections. We have no manner of trade, so that I fear shall not be able to get the Lead Mines paid this year. The Wallington Tenants pay their rents very indifferently, & there was above £500 to pay there last week for one thing and another.

I wish you may get Calverley Estate sold to your satisfaction; for if we sho[ul]d have a War, it will probably lower the value of Lead in a little time. The prices of Corn & Butter here are greatly fallen & the tenants begin to make heavy Complaints.

But I fancy Sr W[alte]r will be content to take the principal at lamas, provided Mr Lowes will now pay the intrest due to the 1st of March last, wch I think will be as below. As I have not wrote to Mr Lowes, I desire you will make my Complim[en]ts to him, & settle this matter with him according to your own discretion; & as the money will most conveniently be paid to you at the same time that Sr Walter surrenders that estate, I desire you will prepare a Letter of Attorney & send me for Sr W[alte]r to sign, that you may be ready to receive the money, when ever Mr Lowes is disposed to pay it. By Sr W[alte]rs order I send you inclosed a rental & valuation of his purchased estates, & an abstract of the titles, in order th[at] those estates may be annexd to the trust Estate as it will be most convenient to those in remainder that it sho[ul]d be so. Mr Edws.Ords £400 I presume must be p[ai]d out of the sale of W.kenton, & I think the rem[ainde]r of the money ought to be applied towards the refunding Sr W[alte]r the expence he has been at on acct of Hexham & Shildon divisions, wch comes to upw[ar]ds of £300, besides the fencing wch comes to £140 more.

You know th[at] Mr Wm.Watson makes a claim of £200 intr[es]t under old Mr Midfords will, wch £200 was p[ai]d Mr G.Allgood by Sr Wm.Blackett in 1723 as appears by the stated acct between them, & he has been so troublesome to Sr W[alte]r about it, that he seems inclinable to give him £150 on his executing a release to discharge the trust estate f[ro]m any further demand on th[at] head, but I cannot understand how Sir W[alte]r will ever get the money replaced, pray what is y[ou]r opinion? Old Ald[er]man Clayton is dead & his son William was chosen Alderman in his room on thursday last.

I will be obliged to you for your thoughts whether it is better to sell out my £500 <SS> ann[ui]tys at this time, tho I shall lose £30 by doing it, or to let the same continue till we see a little further.

PS Mr Daling writes me th[at] the new mortgage deeds executed by Sir W[alte]r require th[at] the int[ere]st shall be p[ai]d to the 13 or 14 February instead of the 26th to wch day I understood all the int[ere]st to be settled, & it is p[ai]d for the £118000 to the 26 February last, so this must be rectified in the next payment. Sr W[alte]r is in the North & I do not know that I shall see him here before our races, therefore whatever you think necessary to be done at the Abbey in the meantime I dare say he will have no objection to it. As to the tithes I cannot tell what to say about them, farther than that I think you must let them for a short time on the best terms you can; for the keeping them in hand I doubt wo[ul]d be a very troublesome thing. As to the ground converted to Gardening Sr W[alte]r when he considers it will certainly never suffer it to go any longer tithe-free, as by the opinions he has taken it is undoubtedly liable to pay. I have had some talk with Sr W[alte]r about it & if you find I am right he desires you will proceed no further in regard to his purchases, but get all other matters setled as fast as you can, & as he has thoughts of selling Kenton again, he thinks it wo[ul]d be the best way to charge Wallington with Lady Blackett's £5000 & the £1000 Legacy to St And[re]ws so tha[t] he may sell Kenton when he pleases clear of all incumbrances. I have spoke to Mr Walton since I rec[eiv]ed yo[u]r Lre of the 19th & he tells me he does not think there will be any objection to the paym[en]t of the quitrent since the y[ea]r 1748 when the Darwentwater estate was vested in Trustees, but advises to make out the whole demand f[ro]m the y[ea]r 1736, wch he will send up to the Com[missione]rs for their directions. I desire therefore you will make out & send me a particular acct sometime next week. As to the suit and service to Hexham Court I tho[ugh]t it was better not to mention it now, but you may take notice of it if you think proper. I see by the Act the Darwentw[ate]r estate is held of the King as part of the Manor of E[as]t Greenwich. Sr W[alte]r spoke to the Com[missione]rs of the Hosp[ita]l about Stublock & they promisd to consider the matter & give an ans[wer], but Mr Walton says he has heard nothing f[ro]m them. As Sr.W[alte]r will be here all next week I desire you will send me what is necessary for him to sign for the resurrender of Dalton that you may be ready, when Mr Lowes is ready. I am etc JR

I always understood that it was insisted on by Mr North &c that the Trust Estate sho[ul]d be disengaged of all incumbrances; wch occasiond my Lre of the 17th; But if the £5000 & the £1000 can be left a Charge thereon, it will be better for Sir Walter to get his purchasd Estates disposd of for part thereof & to get what other allowances he can out of the remainder agreeable to yours of the 14th; so then you will proceed according to that Plan for it can, I think, require no further consideration. Sir

I rec[eiv]ed yo[u]r Lre of the 26 ult. & have deliverd Mr Walton Sr W.Blackett's Claim for the Feefarm rents due out of the derwentwater estate.

The farmers of the corn & hay tithes you say are willing to take a new Lease for 3 y[ea]rs at £70 a yr if they may have an allow[an]ce for the Gardens, if not recovered, & have the advantage of w[ha]t can be recovered at Sr W's expence for the time past : I sho[ul]d be glad to know w[ha]t allow[an]ce they expect, if nothing shall be recovered; & for how long a time past they expect the advantage of w[ha]t may be recoverd, wch I shall lay before Sr W[alte]r for his consideracon & answer. Mr Scott is to be employd in carrying on this affair ag[ain]st the Gardeners & as I apprehend they are all foreigners I imagine it may be full as well to let the suit be carried on in Sr W[alte]r's own name; therefore desire you will send me all their names & whatever else you think necessary on this occasion, that proper notice may be given them before a siuit is actually comenced. And as to the corn & hay tithes I desire to know if yo[u]r Serj[ean]t Oliphant or some other friend cannot be got to draw them for one y[ea]r, but if that cannot be done the best way is to let them for 2 or 3 y[ea]rs as well as you can, free f[ro]m allow[an]ces on acco[unt] of the Gardeners &c If you think otherwise of the matter I desire you will give me yo[ur] thoughts thereon I am etc JR

I rec[eiv]ed your Lre of the 17th & doubt not but you will manage the Rookhope carriage so as to get the Lead bro[ugh]t down at the old price; but if that cannot be got done the Lead must be sent away imediately on the best terms you can; for as we are on the Eve of a French war the sooner it is at Bladon the better; therefore the Carriage must be be set on imediately, that the Lead may not remain at the Mil or in the ways over the year. You do not tell me what I desired you to inquire into, whether Thos.Parker or the Edmondbiers Men have ever rec[eiv]ed any acknowledgem[en]t f[ro]m any of the Carriers for coming thro their gro[un]d; if they have never rec[eiv]ed any such thing, they cannot make any stop now; for it must be become a highway by uninterupted enjoym[en]t, but if the Case is otherwise you must either comply with their demand, or get the Lead sent some other way, for as I said above, we must have it to Bladon without delay. I have wrote to S[i]r.W[alte]r about the Mils & Mr Soulsby's tithes; & as he will be at Hexham in two or 3 days, you will have directions about them. Mr Scott thinks it will be right to let the farmers of the tithes a Lease for a short time & that both Sr.Wr. & they be made parties to the intended bill ag[ain]st the Gardeners. When you see Sr.Wr. mention this matter to him and follow his orders.

Inclosed is the Copy of the Surrender & Mr Grahams Note for charges in howing & stubbing his share of the comon. I am glad you have got yhe Money of Mr Lowes, if you meet with a proper Opportunity you may send it me to Newcastle; if not let it remain in y[ou]r hand till the pay when I shall want it ^ as much more as you can raise out of the rents, I sho[ul]d be glad to kn ow how much you think that may be, whether you can get £100 of it in silver & whether you can conveniently send the money to Allanh[ea]ds the Evening before the pay, or you had rather I sho[ul]d order Mr Caleb Hunter to call for the money as he comes down to Newcastle, wch he may do if you chuse it.

I understood Sr.Wr. had ordered no more than 25s a bing to be given upon tacks, so that 27,28,30 & 35 a bing p[ai]d severall for bargain oar, where Sr.Wr. pays all the dead Charges is unreasonable, & brings all the Oar rais'd in Weardale this y[ea]r exclusive of kelhope & Wolfcleugh to 55s a bing. I do not imagine you w[oul]d get it wro[ugh]t cheaper But as the price of Lead is greatly fallen, & like still to fall much lower, we must take Sr.Wr.s directions in this point, for I think he had as well want the oar as pay full as much as its worth. On receiving the Wallington Rents, there was £850 to pay, so th[a]t very little money comes in f[ro]m th[a]t quarter, tho the tenants have p[ai]d up pretty well, except the Thompson's.

They are selling their Lead at Stockton & Hull at any rate, but our M[erchan]ts here have no Com[missio]ns to offer anything; so th[a]t some Method sh[ul]d be taken to get part of the great Stock disposed of that you have at market - Messrs P. & Sorsbie have wrote to Mr Stainbank to know the best price he will offer for 4 or 5000 P[ie]ce[s] but I find he is very shy ab[ou]t it, as a War seems now unavoidable. I wish you could get 5000 P[ie]ce[s] sold at 15.5.0 or even £15 a fo[the]r, to enable you to pay Mr Lascelles Lady Mansel & the L[ea]d Mils. - To apply directly to Mr Stainbank I apprehend wo[ul]d be taken amiss bu our M[erchan]ts but that ought not to be much regarded at this time. I have desired Mr Denton to advise with you & take yo[u]r Directions in this matter - They sell their fo[the]r of 22 cwt at Stockton for 15.15.0 wch is equal to £15 at our Market & the price seems to be still declining. so they will yield you very little profit this year.

Mr Harvey sent me two Lres last post d[i]recte]d you by Tim Puncheon son of Jno Puncheon Uphold[e]r in this Town, the father never voted for you, says he knows nothing of the Lre his son has d[i]recte]d ; but as to the affair abo[u]t Elmes the paper stainer, it is true enough. I have spoke to Mr Brewster the Coll[ecto]r of Excise ab[ou]t it, who says he believes it was a malicious contrivance by Elmes ag[ain]st the young man & he will take care to prevent any damage being done him, on th[a]t score (as far as lays in his power). - Mr Brewster desires me to return you his thankful acknowledgem[en]t for the favour you have confere]d on his son, wch he wo[ul]d have done in person if he had not been f[ro]m home . I waited on Mr Ord yesterday agreeable to your Directions & desired to know his Resolution about Kenton estate, but cannot find he is resolv'd one way or other. he desired me to send him a Rental which I shall do tho I gave him one 12 months agoe, & says he will examine into the Estate & give you a definitive Answer when he comes to London which will be the latter End of Jan[ua]ry. He talks as if he still has some Expectation of getting West Kenton, which he says will be an inducement to his concluding with you, for as the Colliery is undivided he thinks it would be best that the Estate should all be in one hand, I do not think he will buy Kenton tho it would be a very cheap Purchase at £20000. I am very glad to find the Disaster at Lisbon is not so bad as was at first represented, & that there are some Reasons to hope for an accomodation with France, as the same would revive the Lead trade in which nothing att all is done here, for I cannot get a Pig sold at any price. It is a hard matter to know who to trust at this time, & I do not know what End it might answer to apply directly to Mr Stainbank as he has declined giveing any Answer to Messrs Peareth & Sorsbies repeated Letters. I therefore now think it would be better to forbear takeing this step till wee see a little further, if it were not for your wanting money, & Messrs Lascelles their intrest, which I doubt will lay you under some difficulties, I am endeavouring to raise money to pay the Lead mills, which should now be done, for the People are pressing for their money, & I hope to be able to pay them before Candlemas, but then I do not see when it can be in my Power to make you any Remittance, I therefore desire your Directions whether I am to make this Pay as soon as I can, or postpone it, I have sold a h[ogs]h[ea]d of Clarkes wine to Mr James Atkinson for £28. The dispute between Wray & the Ropers is at present suspended for he has got one Stephenson a free Roper & carries on the Business in his name; but how long this Expedient will keep Matters quiet among them is very uncertain. Cramlington's men have been very riotous, & the Mayor has granted Warrants ag[ain]st them; wch he co[ul]d not refuse to do & this is w[ha]t they complain of, & want the Magistrates to countenance them in a Matter not to be justified. Wray married Wm.Sissons the Roper's wid[o]w & on that pretence took upon him to carry on the Business in his own Name to the prejudice of the Co[mpanie]s in general and of Sisson's son in particular. Wray is but an idle sort of a body, & not able to dispute this point with the Co[mpanie]s. They applyd to Mr Ridley & he sent for Wray & Lecturd him upon the case, wch pleased the Co[mpanie]s tho it had no Effect upon Wray. And with submission I think yo[u]r best answer wo[ul]d be that the Ropers & other free Co[mpanie]s in Newcastle may always rely on yo[u]r assistance tow[ar]ds the support of their respective priviledges.

Lady Blackett is now here. she has not said anything to me about the time when she intends to move So[uth]wards. But I find f[ro]m Mrs Elmes that Monday or Tuesday senight is the time talked of; if her Ladys[hi]p finds you are not for coming down before that time. I do not know of any call you have to take th[at] trouble, either on the Corporation's or y[ou]r own business, unless it suit yo[u]r own inclinations.

PS : Mr Robson writes you this post in relation to Luckier, & w[ha]t ans[we]r he has for f[ro]m L[or]d North[umber]l[an]ds Agents on th[at] head - this matter seems to require some imediate step being taken in it, for it is two y[ea]rs since the moor was inclosed - I think Mr Forster has not considered yo[u]r intr[est] in this affair. I am extreamly sorry to find there sho[ul]d be any intention of laying a further duty on Lead exported; wch wo[ul]d be a heavy Load & discouragement to all Lead mine adventurers in general, & not ans[we]r the ends th[a]t may be proposed by the Government, for sev[era]l reasons th[a]t may be set forth if occasion require. I have mentioned to the Agents for Greenwich hosp[ita]l & the Quakers Co. that I had rec[eiv]ed intimation f[ro]m a Friend of such a thing being talkd on, & they write by this post to their respective principals, for their directions how to proceed, if its apprehended there will be occasion. & if so, we intend to meet the Lead owners at Stockton next week to consider of the most effectual measures to oppose such a bill. If any further duty sho[ul]d be imposd it ought certainly to extend to Scotland, otherwise it wo[ul]d be throwing the whole trade into th[a]t part of the kingdom, wch has already to much advantage, by being free of the pres[en]t duty of £20 a ton by the Act of Union, but what reason can be alledged for their being exempt f[ro]m any additional duty I cannot apprehend. the laying on any further duty on Lead exported must be impolitic in the Governm[en]t, as it wo[ul]d be turning the ballance of trade more ag[ain]st us both with France & other Kingdoms & put them upon searching for that Comodity in their own Territories as we did for Iron in the Plantations, when the Swedes laid a higher duty on the Exportation of th[a]t Article; wch they have reason to repeat. To say th[a]t the price of Lead has been so high of late, that the proprietors may well bear an Add[itiona]l duty, because the duty of £20 was p[ai]d 50 y[ea]rs ago when Lead was at half the prices is saying nothing; for most of the Lead mines in England are now wro[ugh]t at treble the Expence they were then, occasiond by chargeable Levels, Engines &c, wch there was little occasion for when the Oar was got nearer the surface, & therefore the laying on any add[itiona]l Duty will necessarily occasion most of the Lead Mines in the No[rth] of England to be laid in & turn many thousands of poor people adrift, who know not in w[ha]t other way to get their bread. I know of no Species of Goods th[a]t pay more than 12d in the po[un]d value on Exportation & why it sho[ul]d ever enter into the heads of the Ministry to think of loading this Article w[i]th a higher duty is inconceivable they may imagine it will raise the Government £40000 a y[ea]r, but by the reduction it will occasion in the demand from abroad, I dare venture to say they will find themselves greatly mistaken. Lastly, If this duty sho[ul]d be carried it ought not to comence in a short time or not be laid on stocks now in hand. The above is w[ha]t occurs to me at pres[en]t, but no doubt many more & stronger reasons may be tho[ugh]t of when the matter comes to be thoroughly considered.

As to Stubbleck Coll[ie]ry there can nothing be proposed but a reference; wch I imagine they will never agree to. thewrefore if you cannot procure an Injunction to stop their working I do not see w[ha]t can be done. I sent you the whole state of the affair in my Lre of 24 Jan last. I heartily wish you many happy y[ea]rs & am etc.

PS Lady B[lackett] is here & not yet determined when she will set forwards, I will send yo[u]r suit of cloths by the waggon next week. Mr Airy says Hyde & Lawson will certainly pay the bill when due, & desires it may not be returned nor protested, for care shall be taken of its being p[ai]d very soon if they sho[ul]d not do it; but if they do not, please to give Mr Denton to do as he thinks is right. The paragraph in the Newspapers, that a party of Soldiers were ordered to patrol the Streets in the night time was occasioned by some new recruits having insulted several of the inhabitants & killed a Pitman, on the Side about 10 O Clock at night, but the Guilty persons could never be discovered.

As to the Lucker Affair, I do not know when the Auditors will rectify their Mistake, unless you will be pleasd to sp[ea]k to L[or]d North[umber]land ab[ou]t it. Mr Thynn, one of the Auditors is come up to Town, & Mr Isaac Thompson, who divided the Moor, will be in London in a few days; they both know the case, wch is, That they have not set off any proportion of the moor to you, for Lucker free Lands, & ten Stints in the Innpasture, wch we say is one farm, & intituled to a proportional share of the moor, wch contains upwards of 1300 Acres. the Tenants of that Farm having always enjoyd a right to put what Goods upon the moor they thought proper without any interruption, & its surprising Mr Forster did not take care of this at the time when the division was made.

I find Mr Reed is not lookd upon as a fit person for the Serjeants place. I doubt it cannot be easily carried for him, & as you do not chuse th[at] any struggle sho[ul]d be made for him I believe he must drop his pretentions. the P[er]son who is now most thought of, is one Jno. Surtees a Butcher, & I think a relation of Mr Rowels, but at the Election in 1741 he voted for Mr Carr & Mr Ridley, wch I cannot help looking upon as a just objection ag[ain]st him, unless he or some of his friends make application to you, & you think proper to grant him yo[u]r intrest; for if he is to have the place he ought to know to whom he owes the obligation. I find by some of the Lead Owners at Stockton, who Mr Pere Tyzack, the Quaker's Agent, & I had a Conference with last week at Durham, That L[or]d Darlington was apprised before he left London of the Ministry's Intention of moving this Session for an add[itiona]l Duty on Lead exported. We drew up at the Meeting the heads of such Argum[en]ts as occur'd to us ag[ain]st laying on such a Duty, wch are here inclosed; & those Gent[leme]n design immediately to apply to all the members they think they have any influence with to oppose it. The Agents for Greenwich hosp[ita]l I find do not think they ought to concern themselves in the Affair, tho if any Duty sho[ul]d be laid on, the hosp[ita]l must suffer in the value of their Duty Oar in proportion.

Mt James Scott tells me he has sent for Mr Forster about the Lucker Business & finds th[a]t Mr Robsons representation of the Affair is not well grounded. For Mr Forster tells him he has farmed Lucker tithes & free Lands of yours before for about 40 years, & never enjoy'd any Eatage upon the Moor in right of the Farm. For the Liberty he had of pasturage in the moor was always in right of his own three Farms. He says the 10 stints you have in the Inpasture you still enjoy, but cannot be intitled to any share of the Moor in right thereof & that all the claim you can possibly have, in his opinion, is for the free Lands, wch contain ab[ou]t 4 or 5 Acres, for wch yo[u]r allotm[en]t cannot be 1/5 part of w[ha]t Mr Robson claims, for he thinks th[a]t in right of y[ou]r free Lands & the Stints wch he calls a farm, you ought to have ab[ou]t 50 Acres of the Moor set of. But Mr Scott says this Matter shall be more strictly inquired & that Justice shall be done you. I have not seen Mr Robson since.

I have apply'd to some of our Monied Gent[leme]n here; but they will not own with any Money that they have to lend at present.

Mr Hunter was here yesterday & says people are very uneasy for the Lead Mills Pay, wch I have been obliged to fix for the 5 Feb (29 January instant), in hopes of raising Money to comp[leat] it ag[ain]st that time. I am etc JR

I send you the post under 3 covers Mr Rudds Dra[ft] of a Bill to be filed ag[ain]st the Hexham Gardners & Mr Ellis thinks it ought to be done in hillary term wch begins the 23rd inst; for these people are not to be bro[ugh]t to reason by any other means. The tithe in dispute is computed at between £30 and £40 a y[ea]r, if you order the Bill to be filed you will please to order Mr Denton to correspond w[i]th Mr Scott in carrying on the Suit.

Mr Thos. You will no doubt have many Lres this post, w[i]th an acct. of Mr Cuthbertson the Town Clerks death, who died at Scorton of a Fever last Wednesday night; this place is in the disposal of the Comon Council, & I find many of them are inclined to shew all the favour to the family th[at] can be done consistent with the late regulation, by wch the Corpora[tio]n is only obliged to pay 1000 Guineas being 1/2 of the money Mr Cuthberston p[ai]d for the place. Some seem inclineable to let Old Mr Cuthbertson enjoy the place for his Life for the benefit of his Sons family, if it can be done, he finding a P[er]son to act in the Office, th[at] will be agreeable; others think it will be better to make a Complim[en]t of some P[ar]t of the other 1000 Guineas & to dispose of the place imediately to the proprest p[er]son th[a]t offers; but nothing will be concluded without your approbation.

Mr Wm Gibson is solliciting the Comon Council today to become the purchaser, if they do not think proper to transfer the Office to Old Mr Cuthberston; wch I imagine will not be done; & tho nobody else yet stirs about it, Mr Jno. Richardson, Mr Hen. Wilkinson, Mr Jos. French & Mr Wm. Lowes, its beleived will all be Candidates for the place; it is reckoned to be worth better than £300 a Year to any P[er]son that's well qualified & will give constant attendance.

The petition herew[i]th inclosd was sent by Mr Ellis; who says w[ha]t is therein desired is a very reasonable request.

The Subpoenas are servd on the 3 Hexham Gardners, & Mr Ellis apprehends they will not appear, but send you a petition, desiring you will excuse w[ha]t is past, & not charge them with any costs, & th[a]t they will propose to pay ab[ou]t 18d in the Po[un]d for the future, on the rent they pay for their Gro[un]d wch is ab[ou]t £3 an Acre. But to accept of [th]a[y] he says will be doing nothing for it is only 4.6 an acre & the Corn tithe of the Gro[un]d they have in Gardens is well worth £10 an acre & the tithe of w[ha]t they produce in thier gardens is worth double that sum. But if you please to grant them any favour he thinks 15s or 12s6d an acre is as little as you ought to agree to take. & as to the Costs if you do not oblige them to pay at least some part thereof you will have a bill to file every y[ea]r ag[ain]st one or other of them. As to Garland he has p[ai]d no tithe for near 20 y[ea]rs & is reckond to be worth £1000 & the two Rennicks mentiond in the bill are in very good Circumstances. there are several more Gardiners at Hexham who are poor, & therefore are not put into the Bill; but they will submit to pay as the above persons are obliged to do.

I have made Dukesfield pay; wch has reduced the cash to a very low Ebb, & as here is very little owing in town, the reflux is likely to be very slow; for the Lead trade seems still to decline, nobody chusing to buy any quantities, the public affairs having at present so indifferent an Aspect.

I find th[a]t no resolution will be come to ab[ou]t the Town Clerk's place till you come into the Country.

I have rec[eiv]ed 20 Guin[ea]s of Mr Jno. Ord & plac[e]d it to yo[u]r acct.

Yesterday I proved Sr.Wr's Debt on Carricks Commiss[i]on, when the same assignees were continued; & tho they are all sensible th[at] the continuance of Mr Davidson as Soll[icito]r & Mr Latteny as Comis[sione]r is not right, none of them chuse as yet to make a motion for an Alteration. I hinted the Expediency thereof also to Mr Geo. Lisle & some others of the C[redito]rs, but find none of them inclined to move in it, or even second it; so they must go on in their own way. Mr Fawcett drew up a Case both with regard to the Extents & Mr Lowes's Assignment, wch Davidson sent to Aubone Wallis to take Mr Perrots opinion on, but he being retained for the King, Mr Evans's opinion was taken, wch seems to be in favour of the Extents ag[ain]st the Assignment, & of the Assignm[en]t ag[ain]st the Comis[sio]n of Bankruptcy; so th[at] as the assignm[en]t will not now likely be given up, there is little to be expected for the rest of the Cr[edito]rs. the Case and Opinion are so long that I can't possibly send you a copy of it now, w[ha]tever I may do afterwards. The Kings Debt is £3200; the Amo[un]t of the sums mencond [mentioned] in the Assignm[en]t abo[u]t £10000 & there are other debts already proved to ab[ou]t £8000, & nobody can yet guess how much more is to come in: & as to Carricks effects we are altogether in the dark what they may amo[un]t to: for he has kept such books th[at] no mortal can tell what to make of them, for there are no regular entries, or ballances struck with anybody for several y[ea]rs. He is in a very bad state of health & co[ul]d not attend the Com[issione]rs either at the first or 2nd meeting; but they went yesterday afternoon to his lodgings to take his surrender; they askd him some questions to wch they got unsatisfactory Answers. Only he told them he hoped in a few days to give them a just & particular acct. of his affairs if they would send an able hand or two to help him to put his books to right. I am etc JR

PS. I cannot get any money of Mr Beaumont, nor can he tell me when I shall; w[i]th wch pray acquaint Mr Thomas. His Colliery does not go on so well as co[ul]d be wishd, & I find he is indebted to Mr Carrick ab[ou]t £400. unless he has something to set ag[ain]st it wch I do not yet know of. Hon Sir

Inclosed is Peareth & Sorsbie' bill on Stainbank & Freeman for £500.0.0 wch I desire you will be pleased to advise the rec[eip]t of. I co[ul]d not get a bill at a shorter date. The 26 last month was a rent day at Wall[ingto]n, when I never knew so poor a rec[eip]t, for there was not money enough got to pay the workmen & w[ha]t Mr Robson wanted; wch I am surprised at as the Tenants get good prices for everything they have to sell.

Here are some Lres by the last post wch say the Governm[en]t intend to prohibit the exportation of Lead for the pres[en]t, there never was any such prohibition during the two last wars & I hope will not be now, but if there sho[ul]d I doubt not but all the Lead Owners will join in their Endeavours to get it taken off or they had better lay in their mines till it is done; for as the summer is the time of exportation & the new stocks will soon be down at all markets any stop in the trade now must inevitably bring down the price to nothing.

We expect to get the workmen out of the <...> in 3 weeks. I am etc JR

I cannot find that anybody here has an inclination to buy Kenton Estate you will therefore please to consider whether you will advertise it to be sold; if not, some End should be made with the tenants whose Articles expire at Mayday next, As a war with France seems now unavoidable I wish you could get this Estate sold; for as the intrest of Money will most likely advance, the value of Lands must consequently fall. If you order Mr Denton to put an advertisement into the London papers I shall put the same into our papers here. The profit of your leadmines last y[ea]r was only £4500 but the savings last y[ea]r was £3100; now mostly in the stock of lead in hand: wch saving was occasioned by yo[u]r paying Messrs Lascelles's intr[es]t out of the sale of Calverley. I have sold today 2000 p[ie]ce[s] of comon lead at £14.12.6 & 800 p[ie]ce[s] of the ref[ine]d sort at £14.17.6 a fod[de]r wch is something better than £15.10.0 at Stockton, at wch price L[or]d Darlington's Agent tells me he has lately sold 6000 p[ie]ce[s]. But I am told the real price he sold at was only 15.7.6, there being to be an abatem[en]t of 2s6d a Fod[de]r. I find the stop th[at] the Com[missione]rs of the Customs had put to the Exportation of Lead is taken off. but still I doubt the price will fall considerably lower. & all the stock you have in hand has cost you £12 a Fod[de]r. I rec[eiv]ed a Lre last post f[ro]m Mr Lockman he says by yo[u]r directions, desiring me to give all the despatch & assistance I can to any of the Masters of the Societies bushes that may touch at this port; wch I will take care to do. But I desire you directions, whether I am to pay the Officers of the Customs their fees; or enter into any security for the Ma[ste]rs performance agreeable to the Act, if the same shall happen to be required. If any of the Bushes put in here, it will probably be in ten days time. I have pleasure to acquaint you that the Slitt Grove in Weardale, wch has cost you a great deal of money is likely to prove very good; for Mr Peart writes he has let ten oar bargains at her, the highest at 25s & the lowest at 12s a bing. PS. I have inclosed an advertisem[en]t for Kenton, wch you will please to alter as you think proper. I am etc JR

Frank set forwards this morning with 4 horses & I p[ai]d him four Guineas tow[ar]ds bearing his Expences.

The Affidavit of yo[u]r Debt due f[ro]m Mr Carrick was very right, but tho the Assignm[en]t he made of his Effects to Mr Lowes is given up it looks as if there will be but a very small Dividend.

I have desired Mr Fenwick & Mr Robson to acquaint the Comiss[i]one[r]s w[i]th your inclinations that Mr Charltons unkle may be appointed Gatekeeper at Kenton & I hope he will be chosen, as I do not find any objection can be made to his Character; but here are two other candidates, who have the promises of most of the Com[missione]rs in the side of the Country.

I sold 2000 p[ie]ce[s] of lead last Thursday to Messrs Peareth & Sorsbie at £14.15.0, a Fod[de]r wch was done just in time; for fryday's post brought them Orders, not to buy any if they had not done it before. You have still 10000 p[ie]ce[s] at Market wch I doubt will lay heavy on hand as War is declared, & if it cannot be got sold soon no pays can be made th[i]s y[ea]r. Some of the L[ea]d Owners here & at Stockton as the demand at home is not likely to take off their stocks send lead to the Holland market on their own acct to be sold by Com[issio]n wch at pres[en]t wo[ul]d answer to about 14.15.0 a fod[de]r all Charges & insurance deducted. I desire to know whether you chuse to venture 1000 p[ie]ce[s] to that Market for a Tryal, & if so, th[a]t you will please to enquire & let me know some safe hand at Rotterdam to consign it to. This is a way of Trade I cannot recomend, tho old Sr.W.Blacket sent great q[ua]nti[tys] of his lead to the Holland market in Queen Anns war, because he co[ul]d not get it disposed of otherwise.

We have now very dry weather, wch will get all the barley into the Gro[un]d, but the wind continues in the Easterly Qua[rte]r almost as cold as at Xmas. People here are very anxious for the fate of Minorca, as the loss of it must have very bad Consequences, but we hope it may hold out till Adm[ira]l Bing gets there, & that he is strong enough to relieve it. PS. The Icehouse is quite empty, for we never had an opportunity of getting any snow into it. A Scotch Gent[lema]n is just gone thro this town, who says he left London Saturday afternoon, when there were great rejoicings for some good News rec[eiv]ed f[ro]m Adm[ira]l Bing, wch we hope to have confirmed by this post. Dr Sr

On the 2nd inst I rec[eiv]ed of Mr Wm. Robson £41.18.111/2 & placed the same to yo[u]r acct.

I am gathering materials for S[i]r. W[alte]rs. answer ab[ou]t Stublock to give Mr Scott but as Mr Downs the hospital's tenant has desisted f[ro]m working in the disputed Gro[un]d & the thing is al little if any value to Sr.Wr., you will consider with him & take his directions, whether to proceed herein at this time or not. For if the Injunction the hospital obtaind ag[ain]st Sr.Wr. & Down's working afterw[ar]ds within his liberties does not endanger the right, it may be as prudent to forbear entring into a Law Suit, wch I apprehend will be the case. But if the Injunction could be dissolv'd or rather an injunction be obtained to prevent the hospital f[ro]m working as well as Sr.Wr. & things remain undetermined as they were it wo[ul]d in my opinion be much better. Or perhaps if an offer was made to the hospital to refer the Matter in dispute they might agree to it as the power is now solely vested in them. But these are only my own thoughts, in wch I am mostly likely to be mistaken. When I heare f[ro]m you I shall be ready to furnish Mr Scott with suff[icien]t instructions for Sir Walters ans[we]r. As to Ab[raha]m Teasdale & Thos. Westgarth they are both dead & have left each a Wid[do]w who know nothing of the matter: so I presume no ans[we]r will be required f[ro]m them. wch I desire you will let me know.

PS : When Mr Scott has drawn the Ans[we]r will it be right to send it to Mr Rudd, or you will lay it before Mr Perrot for his perusal - We had several old Witnesses to prove Sr.Wrs. right to the gro[un]d in dispute when the injunction was obtained ; but they are all now dead.

I am desired by Mr Lisle to acquaint you that Unthank is in the Chapelry of Tweedmouth in the parish of holy Island in the County of Durham.

I had some talk today with the Agents for Greenwich hospital about Stublock, who I find think it much better to refer th[a]t dispute than to go to Law for a Trifle & if the hospital write them about it they say they will give their Opinion accordingly. You will therefore ask S[i]r.W[alte]r. whether he pleases to mention the matter & offer a Reference to Sr James Creed or any other of the Com[missione]rs or desire you to attend the board to know their resolution before he proceed any further.

PS If a reference sho[ul]d be agreed to, they must name an indifferent p[er]son, & not one of their own agents or dependants. If they wo[ul]d name Sr.Thos.Clavering & Sr.Wr. name Mr Fenwick of Bywel of [sic] Mr Carr of Etal & have Mr Collingwood for the third p[er]son if the two sho[ul]d not agree I should think the matter might be justly determined. Hon Sir

Inclosed are 3 bills for £1050 as above, being all I can now find; wch I desire you will please to advise the receipt of. The Lead trade continues here much the same tho they have rather advacd the price at Stockton by the great demand there for the holland market, wch I apprehend will soon be overstockd; but if I can find out a safe hand at Rotterdam, will send a small p[ar]cell thither for a tryal. Something must be done to get all your Lead sold imediately, as I expect there will be £10000 or upw[ar]ds due to the Mines at Mids[umme]r wch sho[ul]d be p[ai]d as usual sometime in Sept; but if rents come so badly in & there is such a Call for Money at Wallington &c that I much fear matters cannot be kept in their regular course.

R[o]ber[t Curry offers £95 a y[ea]r for his farm wch is £13 a yr adv[an]ce, Mr Robson & I ask £1090 but I beleive he will not give it. & he will not take at what he offers unless he may have a Lease for 21 yrs by reason the farm having been in grass for 27 yrs wants all to be plowd in as fast as it conveniently can. Mr Robson now thinks he offers as much as the farm is worth; but we desire to know whether you agree to grant so long a term, or if we can bring him to 17 yrs whether you approve thereof.

I have acquainted Mr Todd with yo[u]r directions ab[ou]t his farm & he is under great anxiety at losing it, but declares he will not give a shill[in]g more rent: tho he will certainly repent it afterw[ar]ds. So Mr Robson & I will try what adv[an]ce can be got f[ro]m a good tenant, but apprehend nobody will take it & do justice to the Gro[un]d if they are to be removed on 12 months warning, even tho some consideration sho[ul]d be stipulated on that acct. We therefore desire yo[u]r directions whether we may let it for 9 or 7 yrs certain if we cannot do otherwise.

People here are uneasy at the disagreeable Acco[un]ts we have of our public affairs but we have such various reports th[at] nobody knows what to beleive. Its to be feared Minorca is lost, & last post here were private Lres th[at] the French had landed a great No. [number] of Men on the Islands of Jersey & Guernsey. Old R[ober]t Armstrong I find has no desire to return to Coalcleugh; but he writes me th[a]t he intends to sollicit yo[u]r favour for a son of his whose name is John, who I do not know, & will propose to give £200 security for his performance, & to pay up whatever his son Thos. shall appear to be in Arrear, wch I am affraid will be no less than it was last year. I have enquired of Mr Peart ab[ou]t this younf man, & he gives him a pretty good Character & says he is the soberest of the family.

Mr Wastal tells me he has recomended to you young Rt. Armstrong who he says is much reformed; but I presume you remember him pretty well; he is a Miner good enough; but used to be very irregular when in Mr Bacons service.

Mr Rich. Harrison, who by mistake I called John Harrison in my last Lre, is now here & I find offers you his service ; I never saw him before, not know anything of him but by report; but Mr Peart says he looks upon him as the fittest p[er]son for your purpose. When you come into the Country you will have an opportunity of inform[in]g yourself as to the Characters of the sev[era]l Candidates: & in the meantime Coalcleugh will be carried on by old Rt. I doubt it will be very difficult to get £1000 here at this time for either Bills or Bank Notes, for here has been a great want of money for some time. Your Leeds Gents. take away all the Excise, & as our Collector is now upon the Round, I apprehend they have engaged all his money. As it's the last acct I shall have to make up, & Mr <Makers> proportion of the rents remains doubtfull, to whom it can be safely paid, & desire therefore you'll move for an order that the Ball[an]ce of my acct be paid into the Bank that I may have a full Discharge of it. I am extremely sorry for the unhappy End of young Mr Airey of Crowhall, who on Wednesday morning last was found dead in his Chamber, he had hang'd himself as tis said through some Discontent of Mind occasioned by a Lre found in his pockett from the Father of a young woman for whom he had a Regard, that as Mr Aireys Estate did not turn out equal to Expectation, he could not agree to his Dau[ghte]rs marrying him. Sir

Your not sending the lead away from the mils this year at the proper season was certainly a very great neglect, fo wch Sir Wr. orders me to require your reason as the sale of it is lost for 7 or 8 Months. At Allanheads Mil there were only 45 pieces sent away in Aug. tho there were 1000 p[iece]s at the Mil & in Sept. only 126 p[iece]s sent away tho above 1500 p[iece]s at the Mil, & when I sent to John Lee to know his reason his answer was he had your orders to deliver no lead to any that did not bring your tickett. At Dukesfield Mil there was 3735 p[iece]s remaining 30 Sept. & when you were abroad & I wrote to Fra. Salkeld to know why it was not sent away his answer was he had your orders to deliver to none but the tenants, which certainly cannot be right; for if the tenants will not lead it, some others should be employed & not let the Lead bekept at the Mils over the year, when we want it to be ready for the market. What you have sent away in Oct, if it can be got into Blaydon we must pay the Winter price for; so pray send away no more till the Spring, & send to see that all the lead is got to the Stob that's sent away, that Rennison may make up his tickett, for Sir. I rec[eive]d yo[u]r Lres of the 1st & 4th inst & have p[ai]d Mr Ord the £92.17.6 & taken his receipt for it as being the remainder & in full of his proportion of the purchase money for Kenton.

As to this Estate, it is certainly capable of very great improvem[en]t & in my opinion may with the prudent laying out of about £1500 be in time advanced £200 a y[ea]r. But what method is most proper to be taken, must be well considered, & depends upon your own determination, whether you will take any part into your own hands & fix a skilfull person upon the spot, or you will let leases for 21 y[ea]rs & build the Tenants such conveniencies as can be agreed on: Some of the tenants now upon the estate are in Low Circumstances & very indifferent managers, & not fit to be trusted with for a long term & I doubt able & substantial ones are mostly provided, & it will not be easy to meet with any such ag[ain]st mayday next. Upon the whole I think it is quite right that you come over as soon as possible, if you intend to make any alteration this y[ea]r that some Method of proceeding may be resolved on.

As to the purchase Deeds they must be sent to Alnwick to be executed by Mr & Mrs Stoddart, the representatives of the late Mr Major Allgood, & then may be sent forward if you please to the Chief Baron at Edenbro:, who is not expected here before Candlemas if then. I am etc JR

As to Sir Walter's divid[en]d of W.Kenton rents. I only charge to your account £2.0.4 But I can't see how I can avoid charging the whole 24.12.8 on my acct with Sr.Wr., for it may otherwise sometime or other admit of some dispute & then I shall want a discharge for the £22.12.4 wch I wish you wo[ul]d send me a proper rec[eip]t for as the Lre of 24th last month will not pass muster as a regular voucher with my Examiner.

To Mr Richd. harrison at Coalcleugh 18 Jan 1757

Sir

The dispute about the boundary between the Manor of Hexham & the Manor of Whitfield is to be refered this summer to the determination of two Gent[leme]n here. So that we shall want all the best Evidence can be got to prove our bounder. The most material thing that we want to prove is, that the three Manors of Alston, Whitfield & Hexham all join at the long Cross, wch all the old Evidence were very clear in; But Mr Ord I take it will endeavour to prove th[a]t the 3 Manors join at the Currock on the Hardrig. This I apprehend will be a material point in settling the affair, & therefore as Mr R.Armstrong & Mr Rd. Allgood know something relating to the matter Sr.Wr. desires you will make his Complim[en]ts to Mr Armstrong & tell him he requests his assistance in examining some of the oldest inhabitants within the Manor of Alston, what has always been the reputed place where the 3 Manors actually join, & send me down as soon as you conveniently can what Information they give you; for if we find it will be to our purpose, a proper person will be sent up to Allanh[ea]ds or Dukesfield to take their Examinations. Mr Allgood has a plan of the Gro[un]d in dispute & knows the boundary of Hexham as it has been always rode, but if any thing is wanting on that head it may be got of Mr Ellis.

I have not heard from you since my last about Mrs Armstrong, But I have got a long Lre f[ro]m her son Fairlas, wch I have communicated to Sr.Wr. who does not understand what is meant by it, unless to prevail on him to forgive the money, wch he says he will not do. But if she will draw you a Bill for £18.14.6 payable out of her next 1/2 years annuity, & the person who pays the ann[ui]ty will accept the s[ai]d Bil, it is well. If not, my absolute directions are to put the affair into the hands of Mr James Scott. I am etc JR year, not yet settled) as p[er] Receipt 96. 2. 5 of wch Articles I desire you will particularly advise the rec[eip]t, & when you have considered the dra[ugh]t of the Affid[avi]t sent you in my last Lre pray return it me, for as I wrote you I have kept no Copy of it.

Mr C. Blackett tells me today he has hired a man here for his son the Dr., who he designs shall come up in the waggon, but I have wrote th[i]s post t Mr Hill, that if the horse is still at Manfield, & he chuses to send him to Currys at Dar[li]n[g]ton on Saturday Even[in]g the man will ride him up in Co[mpany] with Mr Blackett, who has one of Sir Walters horses.

As our Justices make such an opposition to the Butter bill, without any true reason that I can hear of, I imagine it must be dropt, as the contesting it will be the occasion of a considerable expence. But you will know Sr.Wrs. sentiments on th[a]t

The Cart with broad wheels wch you ordered to be made by Mr Chas. Steward, he says cannot be finished in less than ten days; when it is done shall make the experim[en]t you direct & acquaint you with our observations upon it. But f[ro]m all the informations I can gather f[ro]m the most judicious persons in the matter, broad wheels 4 inches or 4 1/2 inches will be no further hards[hi]p on persons leading Coals in Carts with one horse, than the difference in the price of the wheels, & if they are allowed a reasonable time to wear out their narrow ones, they will have no reason to complain; for as the Friction of broad & narrow surfaces are the same where the weight & pressure is equal, & as broad wheels of 4 inches & 4 1/2 may be made very near as light as narrow ones, as they will be shod very thin & with rather a less weight of Iron the inconvenience in th[a]t respect will be next to nothing to the owners, unless it may be in very soft roads where the wheels go very deepd. But the advantage to the Streets & roads about this Town wo[ul]d be very great; wch are broke & tore up w[i]th narrow wheels as to be scarce passable. As to Carts with two horses, the wheels sho[ul]d be six inch[e]s at least. Mr Stewart says he has made sev[era]l of them, which answer extreamly well on hard roads or soft, without any manner of inconvenience ever yet complained of.

I will take care to remit Mr Denton £1000 to be ready in April & hope to be able if you have occasion to spare £500 more; but as the Grove Pays are to be made at Mids[umme]r, I cannot guess to £2000 w[ha]t the amo[un]t will be till the accts come in. The new Cart with 6 inch wheels was finishd on fryday last, & we have made sev[era]l tryals wth it & find th[a]t it is as easily drawn with two horses when full laden, on all sorts of ground, hard & soft, uphill & downhill, as any Carts with narrow wheels carrying the same burden; & as to one horse carts it is generally allowed th[a]t wheels 4 inch & /2 broad will be as easy for a single horse as those now in use. The difference in the weight of Stewarts Cart & one of our comon two horse Carts is near a hund[re]d po[un]ds & the diff[eren]ce in the price ab[ou]t 40s & the single horse Carts must be in proportion, but this Cart of Stewarts is bound with iron much thicker than necessary; notwithstanding wch we find the same horses graw it w[i]th full as much ease as the comon Carts, for it goes more steadily.

Dr Sir

I herewith inclose you my 2nd affid[avi]t & the plan of Lamberts house, wch I wish may be of any service to Sir Wr. As to the rec[eip]ts taken by Mr Ellis for Gunnerton & Hexham divisions I hope you will be able to prevail with the Master to admit them, for it will not be possible I doubt to get them in any other form. Sir Wr. has allowed all the sums mencond [mentioned] in those rec[eip]ts to Mr Ellis as paid on acct of those divisions & I am satisfied they have been p[ai]d & have so set it forth in my Affid[avi]t. You will observe th[a]t the sums now laid out for Hexham & Shilden divisions exceed the sums computed to finish them in my Affid[avi]t of 22 Nov; wch difference arises from Mr Robsons short Calculation of the expence.

I have rec[eiv]ed yo[u]r Lre of the 10th with the Ma[ste]rs apportionment of the purchase money for W.Jenton. Sir Wr's share of wch I see comes to £1018.5.3 I am sorry there is likely to be so much difficulty in making out the title to this money, but I hope you will get Mr Wilsons objection removed. if not you must take Sir Wr's directions whether he wo[ul]d have you move the Court for an order to have the money laid out in the funds at 3 p[er]c[en]t, wch is better than to let it lay dead in the Bank. Tho you cannot find Ann Lilburns Assignm[en]t of her Legacy to Old Sir W[illia]m Blackett you have Old Mr Wilkinsons & Mr Davisons Assignm[en]t thereof to the trustees of the late Sir Wm. wch I sent you 27 April 1733 & as the Claim has been so long in the family undisputed & the dividends always p[ai]d I sho[ul]d think Mr Wilson will never object to the money being p[ai]d Sir Wr., as Mr & Mrs Stoddart have executed the deeds. Its surprising w[ha]t end Mrs Ann Lilburns Assignm[en]t has made; for if old Mr Wilkinson never had it, as I think he told me I cannot imagine where it can be, unless in Sir Wr's study, & whether enquiry has been made after it there I cannot remember.

I have this post sent Sir Wr. 5 bills for £1450 if he sho[ul]d not be in town, I desire you will take up my Lre, for there is nothing else in it very material.

The Hoppers are at work again, so there will be more business for the Law. I am etc JR

Mr Peareth says th[a]t as the Guild & Sessions will not be till the 18th & 20th April yo[u]r being here on the 15 or 16th will be in time sufficient; for the Comon Council may be properly held on fryday the 22nd. I presume you do not incline to have many Country Gents at this Guild so th[a]t the two long tables & the drawing room may take in all the C[ompan]y necessary to invite. I wrote sometime ago to Mr Street to send down some sweetmeats, but have rec[eiv]ed no answer.

I was wth Mr Collingwood yesterday ab[ou]t Kirkheaton; & we find that Estate was formerly within the Manor of Hexham. That the first Sr.Jno.Fenwick sold it to one

Heron f[ro]m whom it descended to Sr. Richd. Stote but as it does not appear Sr.Wm. Blackett ever had the Counterp[ar]t of that deed, we cannot discover how the estate was conveyd, any further than that the Coll[ie]ry was reservd. I have an Abstract of some papers in yo[u]r study, that there is a brief in a Cause tryed between Sr.Jno.Fenwick & Sr.Rd.Stote ab[ou]t the Royalties of Kirkheaton, wch may probably give some farther insight into the matter. I have wrote to Mr Ellis to make w[ha]t inquiry he can, & hope it will appear that this Estate escheats to you. I have been with Mr Ellison on Mrs Gunter's Acco[un]t & he will let me know some day this week, w[ha]t he can discover wth regard to her claim But Mr Collingwood who has made some inquiry in to it says it is without any foundation, For Sr.Fra.Liddel marryd a daughter of the Tong's family, he will write to you by this or the next post on the subject &c and to his Lre I refer. As to an additional duty on all Coals exported to foreign parts. I do not think it will at all Lessen the demand & therefore be no hardsh[i]p on the Coal trade. The french pretend they have Coal. But if they had any fit for use, wo[ul]d never send here for them in foreign bottoms. When the duty shall be laid on, the export duty will only be 10s on a Newcastle Chald[ro]n in british bottoms; wch is greatly below the duties paid in London, & as low as what is p[ai]d in the Outports. Mr Ellison cannot find anything at Ravensworth th[a]t gives any manner of Light with regard to Mrs Gunter's claim further than th[a]t old Mr Fenwick of Stannerton, Mrs Gunter's Grandfather married a Daughter of Sir Fra. Liddel; but how Sir Francis was any way related to Sr. Richd. Stole does not appear.

Mr Ellis says the Kirkheaton tenants answer to Anickgrange court & do suit & service there; but no rent has ever been paid, nor does any such thing appear in the old fee farm rent book. The conveyance from Sir John Fenwick to Cuthbert Heron I presume is now in L[or]d Windsors hand & the counterpart may probably be in L[or]d Carlisle's possession but its strange Sr. W[illia]m Blackett should never have it.

The Cart made by Mr Stewart is too large & heavy for a single horse, we made a tryal but it was not satisfactory; the loading was that of a single horse cart, & the horse drew it well enough on plain ground, but it co[ul]d not be expected to do so uphill as it is abo[u]t 2 hund[re]dw[eigh]t heavier than a single horse Cart. A Cart properly made for one horse with 6 inch wheels may probably answer very well, but for want of such a thing we cannot make any certain experim[en]t.

I return you herewith inclosed & under another cover by this post, the notes you sent me in your Lres of the 15th relating to Hexham Division, w[hi]ch I hope will now pass muster, & you receive inclosed a certificate of w[ha]t the improvements are by the division of Gunnerton Hexham & Shildon (viz. £340 a year) so th[a]t I hope no objection will be made to the allowing Sir Wr. the money he has laid out.

I rec[eiv]ed the Abstract of the deed f[ro]m Halsay & Morgan to Sr Jno. Fenwick of the Coal in Kirkheaton under a rent of 6s8d w[hi]ch I cannot find was ever p[ai]d. The Tenants of the Estate answer to Anickgrange Court & do suit & service there: & therefore its clear th[a]t the royalties & suit of court were reservd w[he]n Sr. J. Fenwick sold the estate to Heron, f[ro]m whom it came to Sr. Rd. Stote. In the Copy of an Inquisition taken in 1299 of the lands belonging to the Priory of Hexham this Estate is mentioned & in the Black Book in 1479 Kirkheaton is mentioned to belong to Hexham with all Royalties Services fines wards Escheats &c whatsoever. In 1575 it was granted by Q[uee]n Eliz[abeth] as appendant of Hexham & Anickgrange to Sir J. Forster in as full and ample a manner as the same was enjoyed by the Priory of Hexham: From Sr. J. Forster it came to Sir J. Fenwick, who married his daughter: But then I cannot reconcile how Halsay & Morgan should have the colliery to sell to Sr. Jno. Fenwick in 1605. However this matter is worth looking into.

As to the Charges in your bills about the £40,000 & transferring the whole mortgage from the hospital to Mr Lascelles I can give very little acc[oun]t of them. for there are sev[era]l of your bills, w[hi]ch were never delivered to me by Sr.Wr. When Mr Daewin was here he examined all the bills that I have & took out w[ha]t he thought proper, & was to collect wjat was wanting from y[ou]r own books in London. You say Mr Salkeld, when you sent him to inspect the Mils, br[ough]t you a bad acc[oun]t of Mr Lee. but you do not say whether he was very sick or very drunk. I presume it to be the latter & therefore another Clerk must be looked out for, & as to his brother being employed in the wastes: why is he so if you think it contrary to Sir Wrs intrest. It is your province to regulate these matters as to letting all bargains & not to leave it to Mill Clerks. You mention if Thos.Teasdale had his Dues he wo[ul]d not stand in Arrear in the rental. I do not know what dues they are he wants, nor can I tell what to write him about. As to Jack Lee I see no hopes of amendment & therefore must acquaint Sir Walter that he is incorrigible & not fit to be continued. the first visitation you make at Allanheads let me hear what observations you make about him.

I must desire you will set on all the Lead Carriage as soon as possible for I have not a pig to sell, occasioned by the trifling work last year at Allanheads & Dukesfield Mills, & you must not depend upon the tenants, but sett on any that will lead it, I am told the Fairlams insist on an advance price, & they only; if others will lead it at the old price, employ them & let the Fairlams mind their Farm, But if nobody will lead without an advance we must be forced to comply. for the Lead must be got to markett with all expedition & that is left entirley to your management to get it as low as you can. Perhaps 2d advance on 10 pieces will please them, the East hand tenants expect 3d advance on 10 pieces But you know their Carriage is a mile longer as it has been measured & they have Apperley bank to climb. So pray act herein according to the best of your judgement but I desire again, that there may be no delay in the Carriage.

I am sorry for Mr Marshalls death but hope his estate & effects will descend to his Sisters, wch I shall be very glad to hear. I am etc JR.

I have rec[eiv]ed your Lre of the 14th, but Sir Walter can't find here any of the three Receipts you mention for money paid Mr Stowel, Mr Martin & Mr North, but whether he has them in London he does not know. When Mr Darwin was here he took all the Receipts that Sr. Walter ever delivered to me for money paid by him on the Trust account, but whether any of the receipts you want were among them I can't tell for I kept no acct. of what I delivered to him. I do not find in the [Martinmas] Report any notice taken of the £150 paid Mr Wm. Watson, which ought to be allowed as much as any other article. Sir Walter has got all the Papers we can find here relating to Kirkheaton & will bring them up to Town with him. I rec[eiv]ed your letter of the 18th about Scraithhead & Pikestone, & have communicated it to Sir Wr. who is willing to let them on such terms as you & Mr Bacons think proper. But there is about 3 years to go in the old tack, & you cannot let a new Tack till the old one is expired or given up. The people who were with me offer to take Scraithhead at 30s a Bing wch Sir Walter will agree to if approved of by Mr Bacon & the bargain cannot be made for any less. But perhaps 27s 6d will be accepted. As for Pikestone I could wish it were let on the same terms, tho it is a great way from Rookhope Mil; but the people who were with me declare they will not take it but on the old terms of 1/5 duty & 5s a bing. So Mr Bacons Agents & you are to consider & do as you judge for the best. PS. I desire you will send somebody to set a value on Mr

Since my last I have rec[eiv]ed Mr Ellis's acct. for the y[ea]r 1756, in wch I observe an Article charged for some woody gro[un]d bought for the use of Hexham Tine Mills, wch he had omitted to charge in his accts for the y[ea]r 1755. this P[iec]e of Gro[un]d lays near Dilston park, is not let, but is reserved for a spring of wood for the use of the Mills solely & therefore ought to be charged to the trust Estate, as those in remainder will be most benefitted by it, so th[a]t I send you inclosed a certificate for that purpose; But if it sho[ul]d be too late or there sho[ul]d be any objection to it; it will pay Sir Walter in time sufficiently for principal and int[ere]st. Capt[ai]n Lambert left this place on thursday senight & Wm. Fenwick, with the other recruits, marched the day before for Norwich. I learn from Dr Lambert that the Captn had said, upon some Application made to him for Fenwick's discharge, that it was not at all in his power; & that Tho. Fenwick was but a weak soldier, yet, as on acct. of his profession he wo[ul]d be useful in the regim[en]t, he beleived they wo[ul]d not chuse to part with him.

Ra. Featherston was employd under Mr Humble the fitter, as a Runner who has had no work for him of late. he has a Wife & 2 Child[re]n & is in want. My Fa[the]r has therefore given him a Guinea as you ordered; for wch he was very thankful - he is not a freeman.

There are 22 desart frames at the Mayors house, 16 of wch are plain & 6 scollop'd. Mrs Betty says Mr Street has sent down as many Sweetmeats as will in her opinion serve all occasions till Mich[aelmas].

The Waggon Men on this side of the water continue idle and have endeavoured to get Mr Crowleys people to join them, without effect, so I hope they will find it necessary to go to work again on Monday: as the Gents have told them their case will be considerd if they will go to work. But to prevent any disturbance in the town a Guard is still kept at every gate & a Capt[ai]n guard will be placed tonight on the Sandhill, as tomorrow is market day.

But we think that you design the £1500 to be laid out in making substantial & convenient houses & outhouses, good fences, & in stubbing & levelling the gro[un]d where it is wanting as this must be an advantage to you, very considerable, if you sho[ul]d ever think of selling the estate, & the money we look upon to be suff[icien]t for all these things, But I cannot think they have any right by the agreem[en]t to have any part of this money apply'd to the buying of manure as they have £200 besides allows for that purpose. It is not unlikely but you may have some sly insinuations that we are not husbanding your money to the best advantage, if so I shall be obliged to you to let me know it. I shall take just the same care as if it was my own, & Mr Robson who I recommended to you for assistance I beleive to be a very honest man, that knows very well the prices of all sorts of work & will not give more than it well deserves. tho the Kings are hinting they co[ul]d have got the masons & carpenters work done something cheaper But it is by one of their own Fraternity, who is not qualified for it, for when he gave me in his proposal, it appeared he did not understand what he was about. I desire therefore, if you have any old Suit Rolls in Sir Jno. Fenwicks time or before, or any other antient evidence of their doing suit & service at Anickgrange, or any instances of the tenants of that estate being amerced on any occasion, or any Waifs or Strays taken on the estate for the Lord of the s[ai]d Manor, or any other proofs of seigniority, you will send them to my Father or Me, as soon as you can conveniently can - I think you wrote my Fa[the]r that they have never paid any feefarm or other rent to Sr.Wrs. manor.

L[or]d North[umber]lands agents say That the Kirkheaton tenants have done suit & service at Ovingham (or Prudhoe) Court, for time immemorial, & that they pay a rent of 12d a year wch is a feefarm rent & therefore they look upon it that his L[or]ds[hi]p has the right to the s[ai]d escheat - The Steward & tenants of the s[ai]d estate acknowledge the serving on juries at Ovingham court & the payment of the s[ai]d 12d a yr, but they do not know what is for, neither have they ever had any receipts given them for the same.

This suit & service to the Two Courts is a thing we cannot understand for we do not find in any of the writings or records we have, that these two courts have ever been connected with or dependant on one another, & how or when this suit to Ovingham court has commenced we have not yet learned. I have sent you £320 by Josh. Forster, but whether you are to buy 6 or 800 sheep I cannot take upon me to advise; you will be able to judge better than I can, when you see Jno. Harrison & hear what has passed between him & Hump. Hopper. I always understood that Sr. Wr. had 160 stints on Redburn Fell & Hump. Hopper (for the farm he bought of Mr Wilkinson) only 80 Stints, but I can't pretend to tell you how the same has been enjoyed. - Sr. Wr. has also a right to keep 300 sheep on Reamy Law, f[ro]m Mich[aelm]as to Ladyday, to wean all the lambs bred at Redburn . so that your own discretion & Harrison's advice must direct you, unless Sr. Wr. will please to give you his directions.

PS Harrison has spent all his days upon the spot & cannot be a stranger to Sr. Wrs. right, & how Hopper stinted the Fell, when he had Sr. Wrs. farm, before he bought Mr Wilkinson's.

Burns have let them to some persons for the rent of £6 a year; who may probably have exceeded the Boundary; wch sho[ul]d be now settled by reference, if the Gents are willing; or Actions brought ag[ain]st their tenants for seizing your nets, if they have a mind to dispute the case; that yo[u]r right may be established. & whatever the charge there may be, I think the Burns ought to pay at least one half, if not the whole; as they have occasioned this dispute. Dr Sir

On Wednesday the Tryal with Jeffreys &c came on when the Def[endan]ts made themselves sure they wo[ul]d nonsuit us on the misrecital of the date of the bond in the Award For the bond is dated the 2d Feby & it is said in the Award to be the 6th. But after arguing the point for some time, it was agreed to make it a case & the Judge Mr Bathurst ordered the jury to find for the Plts [plaintiffs] for the sum awarded, with 1s 0d damage, to be left to the determination of the court of Kings Bench. As to the other points I think Mr Norton gave them up. The Bond & award were both produced in court, but nobody was called to prove the execution of either; Mr Brown shewed Sir Wr. & Mr Lisles a Lre yesterday f[ro]m Neale dated 26th July, in wch he says you had subpoenaed him to come down to prove the submission bond, But on his seeing it he reflected he never saw Mr Lauder execute it, wch he had not taken any notice of to any body but Messrs Burnet & Reaveley. Mr Brown also declared Neal never saw him execute it & that if they had been pinched they intended to take advantage of this, wch shews us the Men in their proper colours, if we had not known them too well before. When Neale was told of this, he owned he did not see Lauder execute the Bond, So that I think he is not intitled to any more money than he has already got for his Journey & I doubt not but you will write to Mr Darwin accordingly.

We have got the case drawn & signed by Serjeant Poole, who is very zealous in the cause & almost confident of its success in the Kings Bench; but Mr Norton, who I think will be no further concerned for the Def[endan]ts, could not sign it here; Because we could not get their attorney Brown to attend him for that purpose.

I hope this will find you perfectly well. PS. I have rec[eiv]ed of L[or]d Ravensworth £40 for Jane Hunts rent charge & placed it to your acct. I am etc JR

I herewith return you the draft of West kenton Lease, as it is agreed to by Messrs Kings after some debate. But as to their laying all the Gro[un]d down to grass 3 years before the end of their term, they insist upon its being contrary to their Agrem[en]t & the custom of the country; unless they were to enter to the whole Estate in grass. I told them I apprehended you meant the £200 to be allowed them for manure, as a compensation for the land now in tillage; But that they do not admit of, but say it was agreed on that they sho[ul]d have a way going crop, tho' it is not expressed in the Article I own it is the custom in this country for all tenants to have a way going crop where the tenants have it, whom they succeed. For as to the draft of the Lease you had f[ro]m me, wch as I remember was for Rc. Curry at east Kenton, he entred to all Grass gro[un]d, wch is the reason he is obliged to lay all down to grass again before his term expires. In the Memorial you sent Sir Walter in June last, I do not recollect any proposal you made that looked like bringing this Affair to a friendly End, but I do remember that you desired it might not be comunicated to Mr Lisle, & therefore as Sir Walter did not think it fair or consistent to enter into any seperate treaty your memorial was return'd you agreeable to your Desire, wth that Answer. If you have anything to offer that is reasonable for the Plaintiffs to accept I should be glad to kn ow it, for I know Sir walter is much more inclined to Peace than War, & I have no doubt but Mr Lisle is so too; but you cannot expect they will give up, what in Justice & Equity they beleive their due, I do not know what Mr Browne might tell you Sir Walter said to him at the Assizes, both Mr Lisle & I were present & heard all that was said, & I am sure there was no mention made, or thought on, of sending any other Resolution so that Mr Browne has been mistaken some way or other, I wish you had been present & heard all that passed. Hon. Sir

Mr Scott & I got back from Hexham last night. A great many Witnesses have been examined on both sides, & if yo[u]r witnesses have proved before the Arbitrators what they s[ai]d to us on their Examination the Copyhold[ers] within the Manor of Hexham have had an uninterrupted enjoym[en]t of all the gro[un]d in dispute for time immemorial, But on the other side I find by Mr Collingwood that two or three of Mr Ord's Witnesses have sworn to sev[era]l interruptions given by the Whitfield tenants, wch were never known nor heard of by any other person living. Mr Ord has had one Lothian an Attorney all the last summer looking out for & preparing of Witnesses to say things to prove a property wch there is great reason to say cannot be true, for they have sworn to impounding of Goods, burning peats &c wch were never done according to the Evidence of all yo[u]r Witnesses. Mr Ord attended the whole time with his two Attorneys Mr Stewart & Mr Lothian & went himself to shew the refferees the ground in dispute where he has caused some Bounder Marks to be lately erected. Mr Scott seems much dissatisfied with the whole proceeding & says Mr Fawcet has acted as a Council more than an Arbitrator. But he will write you his sentiments by this post. he wo[ul]d have all the Examinations he has taken sent you up, wch are very bulky, but I do not see you can make any great judgem[en]t without the plan wch cannot be sent up free by the post. However I will send them by the return of the post if you please to have them. This affair is of great Consequence both to you with regard to the Royalty & the Copyhold[ers] with regard to the Eatage who will have little or no common right left, if the whole sho[ul]d be awarded to Mr Ord, wch I hope Mr Collingwood will never come into, but rather let the time elapse & the matter remain as it is. but if they co[ul]d agree to divide the Ground in a reasonable manner it may be better than going to Law ab[ou]t it. I wish it was convenient for you to come down at Xmas; for I own I am not a little affraid of the consequence of this reference, tho I am very certain that notwithstanding all that some of Mr Ord's Witnesses have sworn who are persons of very indifferent Characters, that he ought to have awarded Him a very small part of the gro[un]d in dispute, even allowing all they have sworn to be true. I do not say th[a]t Mr Ord was present when the referees examined the witnesses, only th[a]t he was at hexham all the time.

I do not find that Lady Blackett is yet certainly resolved when she will set forward.

PS The wine f[ro]m Curzon house is arrived & sent to Wallington.

If you sho[ul]d have no thoughts of coming down at Xmas you will please to consider whether it is right to desire Mr Collingw[oo]d to let Mr Scot & me have a little conversation with him before he agree to any Award. I doubt not but he will write you his thoughts in a few posts. I am etc JR

6 Dec 1757 Joseph Richmond to Walter Blackett

Newcastle 6 Dec 1757

Hon. Sir

Inclosed is Peareth & Sorsbie's bill on Freeman & Stainbanks for £300 wch I desire you will please to advise the receipt of.

Mr Silvertop says he took your 1/2 of Garesfield farm of me at £5 a y[ea]r advance. The truth is as follows. That when the other tenants at Winlaton were advanced f[ro]m Mayd[a]y 1755 he & I had some talk on the Exchange ab[ou]t his farm when I told him he ought to pay you £10 a y[ea]r adv[an]ce & th[a]t he then said he wo[ul]d agree to pay you £5 a yr adv[an]ce if he co[ul]d have a lease for the remaind[e]r of the term he had in Sr. E. Blacketts lease, to wch I objected as a thing not in my power, but I did say I wo[ul]d order Mw. Rennison to take the £5 during yo[u]r pleasure, if he wo[ul]d pay it, But last y[ea]r when Rennison called for the rent, the Ans[we]r he rec[eiv]ed f[ro]m Mr Hudson, Mr Silvertop's Steward, was th[a]t his Ma[ste]r said he wo[ul]d pay no adv[an]ce till he had a lease, so no more than the old rent of £20 was rec[eiv]ed, this Rennison will testify But now when Mr Robson has viewed the farm & finds yo[u]r moiety worth more money Mr Silvertop wo[ul]d take told [sic] of this handle. We have not got the farm yet surveyd but Mr Robson f[ro]m a transient view thinks yo[u]r moiety worth twenty po[und]s a yr adv[an]ce. I beleive it is true th[a]t Mr Silvertop has greatly improved the farm But he has had it ab[ou]t 25 yrs, time enough to get in all his money with intr[es]t. Sr.Edwds. lease has 10 yrs to go f[ro]m Mayday next at £20 a yr & if you tho[ugh]t proper to take £30 a yr for the time I think it ought to be taken as a favour; for all that has passed between Mr Silvertop & me is out of the question.

Sir Edwd. has sent Notices to Mrs Robinson & Mrs Cooke, who let out their farms at a considerable adv[an]ce to quit at Mayday next & Mr Robson sent Mr Silvertop the inclosd Notice at the same time wch I tho[ugh]t was right. But as he & I had some word abo[u]t the farm a few days before I did not chuse to beat with him any more about it.

Mr Scott desires me to send you up the Examinations at Hexham, wch you will receive under three covers by this post & I desire you will please to peruse them & let them be returned to your etc JR

Hon Sir

I herewith inclose Mr Perrotts Opinion & Letter. The Case is stated f[ro]m Mr Ellis's extract from the court rolls at Anickgrainge. He says he beleives Ovingham is a Court Leet as well as Anickgrainge, & as one Leet cannot be within another it is strange how Kirkheaton comes to answer to Ovingham. The Kirkheaton tenants say they have always served on the jury at Anickgrange & are toll free at Hexham as being within the manor; but that they were never summoned to serve at Ovingham till April last. when L[or]d North[umber]land's Bailif summoned Jno. Morraley, one of the Kirkheaton tenants, & told him he wo[ul]d be fined if he did not appear; to avoid wch he went & was put upon the jury. There are 8 Farms said to be in Kirkheaton, & each farm has always p[ai]d 2 pence a y[ea]r to L[or]d Northumber]land Bailif, but the tenants cannot tell what it is for - Jno. Dixon of Hawkwell says, he well remembers his father, who was tenant at Fenwick has often told him, that he was employ'd by Mr Lan. Allgood Bailif of Hexham to take up Waifs & Strays, & that he took up a whye in Kirkheaton liberty & th[a]t nobody having claimed the same in the time limitted by law Mr Allgood gave it him for his trouble & expence of keeping it - I also send herewith inclosed copy of what is in the Black book relating to Kirkheaton, & also an extract f[ro]m the copies of sev[era]l Inquisitions, Lres Patents & Grants, the Originals being in Mr Dentons Custody Bundle 8 f[ro]m which I apprehend may be discovered whether the manor of Anickgrange was not granted back to Sr. Jno. Forster by Qu[een] Eliz. in as ample manner as it was held by the Priory of Hexham before the dissolution of the Monastries, or whether there is any exception with regard to Kirkheaton I am etc JR

But Mr Robson has been with them & they all promise him as he writes me that if the Attornm[en]t they have signed to L[or]d Windsor is vacated, they will not be prevailed on by anybody to attorn to any but you - I presume the Crown claims the Escheat if no heir appears & th[a]t Ld. I have this moment been talking wth the Kirkheaton tenants, who seem to me to be an Artful set of People, tho' ignorant; but not so ignorant as not to have been apprized th[a]t they may continue in possession without attorning to anybody; till a proper owner can be found for the Estate. They say Minican has promised in a post or two to procure them an Indemnity & if so they seem inclined to continue tenants under the indemnity. Whether th[a]t will happen or no is quite uncertain but I do suppose Stote will imediately serve Ejectm[en]ts, if he be well advised & have a title, & whether the method will induce them to attorn to him or the contrary is not quite clear to me - I must therefore submit to you to be advised Whether it wo[ul]d be right to you to push the Crown to a Commission of Escheat, or what other steps, whether by Ejectm[en]t or otherwise it may be proper for you to take as I own I am at a loss how to advise you to proceed; & I realy fear there will be no certain dependance on the pres[en]t tenants attorning to you, unless they be drove to it by necessity. however there can be no harm in your sending down a proper authority to empower some person to receive their attornm[en]t in case they sho[ul]d alter their opinion. The Kirkheaton Tenants were all here today, but they have changed their Minds of making an attornm[en]t to you; for Mr Minican has refused to give them up L[or]d Windsor's original indemnity, he has charged them at their peril not to make an attornm[en]t to anybody till they hear further f[ro]m him, & has engaged in a few posts to procure them a suff[icien]t Indemnity wch I imagine must be f[ro]m the Crown or Lady Windsor. I find Mr Stote was wth them yesterday, but co[ul]d make no impression on them. Mr Collingw[oo]d heard all that passed, & to his Lre herewth inclosd I refer.

Mrs Manuel says you only told her you wo[ul]d use your endeavour in bekalf of her son, But her husband owns th[a]t he may have expressed himself in other terms in his Lre to his son, wch has led him to write to you in the manner he has done, for wch they beg yo[u]r pardon. What they desire is to have him made purser of a 20 Gun ship, or anything else that half pay will support him in time of peace. - I cannot find out the Mrs Jones that applied to you for her son. I am etc JR

PS. I have just now reced the inclosed fm Mr Collingwood who was with Mr Fawcet yesterday after he wrote his lre to you but it is certain Ld Windsor was made Receiver by an Appointment signed by 3 of the Lds of Trea[sur]y which Mr Minican in confidence just let me see. I have told him I think it wo[ul]d be well not to apply to you on this occasion, till we see how far the money granted will compleat what is much more necessary. But if you think proper to comply with his request & his p[ar]tners are agreeable to it, wch I do not yet know I think the whole expence ought to be limited to about £100 or £120. Mr Geo. Weatherby brought me the inclosed Lre today, & if what it sets forth therein be true he hopes you will be able to get the £11.1.0 repaid, that you paid to procure his son's discharge. This Lre is to another Geo. Weatherby a Mercer on the bridge, who is a relation of Mr Weatherby that applyed to you.

I will do all in my power to raise the £2100 for Mr Fenwick ag[ain]st Mayday but how I shall do it I do not yet know, unless I can speedily dispose of some Lead, for wch at present there is no demand at all. the Mils pay must be made next month, wch I expect will come to abo[ut] £3000.

I find by Mr Scott that L[or]d Northumberlands claim to Kirkheaton is referred to the Attorney GeneraL, wch he says is very clear, & that he is certain you cannot support any claim to that Estate, but I hope he will find himself mistaken. I am told Mr

Mr Fenwicks writings are now before Mr Rudd. I find Mr Sparrow of Netherton has a Mortgage of Green Leighton for £1600, wch he thinks unreasonable to take in without 6 months notice, unless he can meet with a hand for the money before that time, but he will join in the Conveyance & take your bond if he does not take the money at Mayday. However to be prepared to pay the money I have sold 2000 pices of lead at £14.10.0 a f[othe]r. For there being great stocks in hand at all Markets, the price is fallen 7s 6d or 10s a f[othe]r & I doubt will still fall unless some brisk demand happen f[ro]m abroad.

Mrs Robinson has ordered her tenants at Winlaton not to quit their farms at Mayday. for she tells them she has your & Sr.Edwds. consent to continue : I desire to know if you have promised any such indulgence for Sr. Edwd. says he neither has nor will do it.

Mr Aynsley has taken a deal of pains last week to get hands to a petition ag[ain]st the register bill & has made what use he co[ul]d of your letters to him to prevail on people to sign it.

I hope you have put in your Claim to Kirkheaton. The Stotes have been twice there since my last, but have not yet serv'd Ejectm[en]ts on the tenants, they offered them the Abatem[en]t of 1/2 a yrs rent if they wo[ul]d attorn, but it had no Effect. Hon. Sir

I have repaid Mr Wetherby the £11.1.0, who did not so much as return you thanks for your trouble & loss about his son.

From the acco[un]t I have about Mr Joseph Peart I am affraid he would be as bad as ever, if he was replaced & where to find a proper person I do not know. I doubt such a one will be difficult to meet with. But till you consider who shall succeed Mr Peart I do beleive Thos. Maughan will conduct matters prudently enough; for I am satisfied he has done all the Business for the last 3 or 4 y[ea]rs in wch time Mr Peart has been of little or no service to you. He has been here & says he has applyed for the place, But I do not know his abilities as a miner, to presume to say any more in his behalf. Mr Harrison Mr Caleb Hunter & Mr Allgood are better judges of his qualifications in that respect. He tells me that by the best calculation he can yet make Mr Peart will be indebted to you about £280 & that he owes besides about £430, but his estate wch is let for upw[ar]ds of £40 a yr will pay all his debts & leave £300 for his familyt & he has ordered it by his Will to be sold for that purpose & appointed `Thos. Maughan Jno. Peart & Ra. Gibson trustees. Somebody sho[ul]d be appointed to succeed Mr Peart before Mayday, otherwise shall not know what to do with the Farm at Newhouse. Mr Richd. Allgood has been above 30 yrs at Allanheads but whether it is for yo[u]r intrest to remove him I much question, for I doubt they wo[ul]d not get well forward there wth their acct. & reckonings without him, & besides I do not know his circumstances or qualifications as a miner.

When Math. Curry appeared before the last Comon Council he was asked if he did not think he had behaved ill & contrary to his Oath, at the Guild, to wch he reply'd he did not think he had & as to the Oath he did not regard it, on wch he was disfranchised by the unanimous voice of 24 then present. At the Guild he insulted the Mayor & Magistrates wth very bad language ab[ou]t the Town Moor & encouraging of Foreigners to work within the liberties of the Town & then addressing himself to the Mayor he said. And you Mat Bell who put the Staff into yo[u]r hand, was it not us Freemen, & then turning to the people in the hall s[ai]d now Gent[leme]n is the time to do yourselves Justice, for you are not to expect it otherwise, on wch Mr Peareth & Mr Smith told me they fully expected a Riot. Curry has been endeavouring among the Co[m]panie[s] & p[articularly] the S[hi]pwrights to raise money to sue out a Mandamus, but I do not find any regard is p[ai]d to his application.

As to the P[er]son th[at] Mr Lee recomends to be serjeant at Hexham Mr Ord & Mr Ellis both say he is a very idle p[er]son & not fit for it in any respect. If you are advised to serve Ejectm[en]ts on the Kirkheaton tenants please to let it be considered whether the homage jury sho[ul]d not first find the Escheat, wch cannot be done till the head court of the 18 April.

You know the Trust Estate is now the same as it was at Sir Wm. Dr Sr.

I guess by what Mr Scott has said th[at] w[ha]t L[or]d No[rthumb]land goes upon wth regard to Kirkheaton is th[at] Sr. Jno. Heydon who bought the manor of Hexham of the Crown in 1632 with sev[era]l other Estates sold some part of his purchase to the Piercy Family, & what Mr Wm. Rutter has s[ai]d to my son today amounts to the same thing. You see by the deeds what Sr. J. Heydon sold to Sr. J. Fenwick & the original patent f[ro]m the Crown to Sr. Jno Heydon I presume may be seen in the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue, but w[ha]t Sr. Jno. Heydon sold to the Piercy family cannot I doubt be discovered by any writings you can come at - I have rec[eiv]ed yo[u]r Lre of the 22d & when the Ejectm[en]ts come will take care they shall be served on the tenants as directed. But I have some reason to beleive they will be ejected by the Stotes in a day or two: for Mr Richardson & they seem'd to be in a Bustle today after the post came in. I am etc JR

PS. Pray why is not Mr Beaumont calld upon for he is very able to pay. May it not afterwards be a Charge upon me, or at least occasion some saying I am sure I have done all in my power to procure the payment of the £200.

Mr Peareth is very ready to join with you in the Bond to Mr Fenwick for £2000, so Mr Scott will go forwards with the Conveyances as fast as he can, which will take some time, for a Fine is to be pass'd by Mrs Fenwick & a Search to be made in all the Courts to be satisfied there are no Judgments enter'd.

The Ejectments are regularly served on all the Kirkheaton tenants, who do not come to any Resolution of attorning to you, but rather seem inclineable to attorn to Mr Stote, tho' I scarce think they will do it, I cannot get the Affidavit of Services ready to send to Mr Denton till next Post. When Mr Baker's Agents rode in the Field belonging to Middle Dukesfield they sho[ul]d have been stop'd. however pay no Acre Money for it, as you are certain none has ever been paid, it must most likely be part of the Freehold.

The Slaley Tenants have desired Sir Wr. to join them in defending ag[ain]st Mr baker. But before he engages with them in the suit, he desires they will get a Case stated that can certainly be supported by Evidence quite disinterested & an Opinion taken upon the Case, wch you will acquaint them with & let me know their answer. And I desire you will send me as particular an acct. as you can of all the Ground taken in of the common to any of Sir Walters farms, how long it has been taken in, & what Acre money is paid for it, & if any offer is made to pull down the Fence of the Field belonging to Middle Dukesfield, that you will take care to discharge them, & let them know that Sr. Wr. says its part of his Estate & therefore they sho[ul]d be careful what they do. Herewth inclosed are two Lres I rec[eiv]ed this morning f[ro]m Mr Robson. the tenants that have not signed he thinks will attorn with those that have; if you please to send them the indemnity they require; but he has put in yo[u]r indemnifying them ag[ain]st the money p[ai]d Mr Minican; wch I told him you did not think proper now to do. Mr Denton has the Names of all the tenants that have been ejected; & if you send them an indemnity please to send also a proper Attornments for them to sign, with all necessary directions; & return the inclosed.

Mr Robson complains of Jno. Ridley & Geo. Green for breach of Covenants. I do not know what can be done with them, unless you think proper to order a Writ to be sent down ag[ain]st them. As to what he says Cowel who has taken Ryal sho[ul]d say, there is no manner of foundation for it, he was wth me about a week ago & said he was determined not to enter, & all the answer I gave him was he must however expect to pay the rent.

Mr Scott desires you will please to write some Attorney at York that you can confide in to see the Fine passed by Mrs Fenwick & the deeds properly executed by Mr & Mrs Fenwick & Mr Ward & to Witness the Execution, & I desire you will please to let me know who you appoint for that purpose. Mr Scott knows no Attorney in York except one Mr Raper in Coney Street & knows but very little of him & if you have no Attorney there that you chuse to trust, somebody sho[ul]d be sent from this p[lace] for Mr Fenwick expects all to be done at York wch wo[ul]d more properly be done here. - Please to order Mr Denton to fill up a Bond from you & Mr Wm. Peareth to Mr John Fenwick of York for £2000 at 4 P[er]C[en]t dated the 12th inst. to be executed before two Witnesses & I will get Mr Peareth to execute it when it comes here.

Newcastle 19 May 1758

Sir

I have the favour of yours of the 4th inst. wherein you write that Mr Ward is ready to convey as soon as I pleased & that you would take upon you to satisfie him & you desire whatever you have to execute relating to the Estate Mr Douglas may first peruse & send them to you. On the 17th instant Mr Richmond & I waited upon Mr Douglas in order to have matters settled with regard to Mr Sparrows interests so as to have the writings (which are all finishd) sent to you for you & Mrs Fenwick & Mrs Ward to execute, but to our great Surprise Mr Douglas produced a Letter from Mr Ward wherein he writes he will not execute the Conveyance of Green Leighton Estate till Mr Douglas advises him that he is safe as to his annuity, by which it appears contrary to my Expectation that this affair is yet unsettled between you and Mr Ward, & untill that is done the Conveyances will not be executed. As to the settling this Affair Sir Walter is no way concerned in it, all he is to do is to pay Mr Sparrow his Principall & intrest out of the purchase money & to give you Security for £2000 & intrest from this 12th of May at 4 p[er]cent & to pay you the overplus so as to make up £4200 which is the whole purchase money. The security Mr Douglas seems to propose for Mr Wards security is that the money that is to be left in Sir Walters hand, shall by an Agreement by you & Mr Ward be declared to be security for the payment of Mr Wards annuity so long as he lives if you so long live & if you die before him that it shall be subject to the payment of £600 to him which is according to the Agreem[en]t made between you & Mr Ward with regard what he is to have in case the money shall so long continue in Sr. Walters hand, but if the money shall at any time after be called in then it shall be let out again for the same uses & subject to these uses the overplus money to be paid to you. How far this may be agreeable to you I cannot say, but is certainly in your Intrest to have this Affair settled as soon as you can, & for that purpose it will be necessary for you to go imediately to Mr Ward & settle matters with him & if you will send me a Lre signed by Mr Ward & you that you are both ready & willing to execute the Conveyances (which have been laid before Mr Douglas and approved of by him, the writings shall be imediately sent to you, & as soon as they are executed the money will be paid, which will be as soon as you can have the £200 which you desire Sir Walter to let you have. I hope to hear from you by the Return of the Post, & if I do, please to direct for me at Newcastle but after that, please to direct for me at Alwick. I desire you will let me know to what time Mr Sparrow's interest is paid. I am etc James Scott

19 May 1758

Sir

On Wednesday last Mr Scott & I were with Mr Douglas, who read us a Letter from Mr Ward, that he would not execute the Conveyance of Green Leighton till Mr Douglas was satisfied his Annuity was well secured; who proposed that the £2000 should be vested in some trustee for that purpose & deeds drawn accordingly; this is quite contrary to what you wrote to both Mr Scott & me; for we concluded Mr Ward & you had settled that affair between yourselves & therefore Sr. Wrs. & Mr Peareths Bond for the £2000 is drawn payable to you on six months notice, so that we are at a stand & it would be vain to send the writings & money into Yorkshire, which are all ready till we receive a Letter from Mr Ward, that you have adjusted the matter & that he will execute the writings when they are sent. - I have desired Mr Scott to write to you this post, who will give you a better account than I can of what passed between Mr Douglas & us. As to Mr Sparrow I cannot get any account from him of what interest is due, I therefore desire you will let me or Mr Scott know to what time the interest is paid; that I may know certainly what money you are to receive. As to bills I cannot possibly get any I chuse to take at the time, only Coal Notes at a long date which it is not safe for either you or me to meddle with, But you may have all your money together as soon as ever I know Mr Ward is ready to execute. To Sir Wr. Blackett Bt. MP. at his house in St James's Street London
Newcastle 23 May 1758

Hon. Sir

I wish you Joy of getting into possession of Kirkheaton estate & hope you will long retain it. All the tenants you sent bonds for have attorned and herewith inclosed is a Letter signed by five more that they will also attorn as soon as Bonds are sent down. there is one John Brown that is quite obstinate, & the reason I believe is that he is more in arrears than he will ever be able to pay but if a bond is also sent down for him, he may perhaps be prevailed on to attorn. Ann Atkinson is only a Cottager at £10 a y[ea]r so th[a]t a bond in £100 penalty will be suff[icien]t for her . - Math. Atkinson does not need a bond, for his sons have all the farm & their attornment is suff[icien]t, so that there need only six bonds be sent down; five for those th[a]t have signed the Lre & one for Jno. Brown & I desire you will please to ord[e]r the lre to be returned.

I have rec[eiv]ed yo[u]r bond to Mr Fenwick, but as I apprehended Mr Douglas has raised an Objection ab[ou]t securing Mr Wards Ann[ui]ty, wch you have nothing at all to do with. but I expect we shall get it removd in a few days.

Lead is fallen £20 a fod[de]r at all marketts & is likely to fall still lower, as there are large Q[uan]tities at all Marketts, wch are dayly increasing & no demand so th[a]t there is no probability of getting the lead mines p[ai]d th[i]s year.

Dr Lambert returns his acknowledgement of yo[u]r favour & desires me to assure you he will do everything in his power to merit the Obligation.

Cowel is entred to Ryal.

PS The tenants th[a]t have attorned have delivered up their receipts for the rent p[ai]d Ld. Windsor. The tenants say th[a]t when Mr Berwick was with them he told them they need not attorn to anybody, but if they did he had rather it sho[ul]d be to you than any other.

The Kirkheaton tenants th[a]t the bonds were sent down for have all attorned to S[i]r W[alte]r & by this post I have sent Sr. Wr. a Lre signed by five more, as below, th[a]t they will also attorn as soon as bonds are sent down for them; but there is one Jno. Brown a Ten[an]t th[a]t is so far quite obstinate & cannot be prevailed upon & I beleive the reason is th[a]t he is far more in Arr[ear]s than he will ever be able to pay. But however it will be right to send down a bond for him to try w[ha]t effect it will have. Ann Atkinson is only a Cottager at £10 a y[ea]r & expects a bond in £100 penalty to indemnify her. I desire the Lre sent by the tenants to Sr. Wr. may be returned wth the bonds. The tenants have delivered up their receipts.

I rec[eive]d a Writ of Execution ag[ain]st Mr Beaumont wch I find will be no easy matter to get served, for he is mostly at Simonburn or Coalpark except on Sundays I therefore desire to know if any other than psonl [personal] service will do.

I have not a bill at this time to send you to pay Lady Mansels ann[ui]ty but will endeavour to send you one in a few posts. I have rec[eive]d yo[ur]s of the 20th wth two Newc[astle] banknotes for £5 each & plac'd the same to your acct.

P.S. The ten[an]ts names are John Morreley jun. Edwd.Reay Thos.Reay Ann Atkinson John Robson John Brown each a penalty of £2000 except Ann Atkinson whose is to be £100. Mrs Allgoods ten[an]ts at Kirkheaton farmed their own tithe of Mrs Windsor, but have now taken them of Sr.Wr. for the y[ea]r. I fancy therefore nothing more is necessary as to them, their names are Jacob Lowry & [blank] Carr. As the ten[an]ts do not all attorn at the same time I desire to know whe[the]r there must be an[othe]r Mem[oran]dum of the Attornm[en]t at the bottom of it or that will do you have sent down for I presume you will make all the bonds bear the same date. the delivering possession by those th[a]t have attorned is certified to be the 22d inst. If Brown absolutely refuses to attorn w[ha]t will you do wth him? for I beleive he will be directed by Mr Fawcett from what I hear since the above. I am etc JR

Y[ou]r Lre by the last post to Mr Douglas, wch Mr Fenwick inclosed to me, I sealed & sent him; & yesterday I waited on him to desire, w[ha]t he intended Mr Fenwick sho[ul]d sign for the Security might be got ready, for I wanted to send away the writing to be executed as I knew Mr Fenwick had imediate occasion for the money; His ans[we]r to me was very short, That he wo[ul]d not meddle between Father & Son, but if I wo[ul]d give an Order to Mr Rudd to draw a proper deed he wo[ul]d consider it, so th[a]t matters are again at a stand, & likely to be so; unless you & Mr Fenwick can settle the affair between yourselves, wch I sho[ul]d think you may easily do without giving Mr Douglas any more trouble, As an Assignm[en]t of S[i]r W[alte]rs & Mr Peareth's bond seems to be all that is necessary. What instructions co[ul]d I give to Mr Rudd abo[u]t drawing a deed in wch Sr.Wr. is to be no parety nor can have any concern? as he gives his bond for the £2000 in the manner desired, wch. Dr Sir

I have rec[eiv]ed the turnpike Acts by Mr French & also your Lre of the 11th & will pay yo[u]r bill to Mr Harland when he calls on me. I have got copies of sev[era]l surrenders at Anickgrainge Couret in 1622, 1631, & 1633 in wch it appears by the stile of the court, that Sr. Jno. Fenwick was then Lord of the Manor, the Attornm[en]t is also rectified; & which may be sent Mr Darwin if any way necessary at present. I desire you will take care of the two Lres of the tenants sent to Sr. Walter. The Stotts still keep off the two Reays & Brown f[ro]m attorning. I shall be glad to know w[ha]t steps they are taking. I am told Mr Craister says that when Kirkheaton was sold the Seigniorie was reserved for the Crown; if so it must have been before the Grant of Hexham & Anick gr[ainge] : pray have you seen the deeds in Lady Windsors hand & how does that matter appear to you? What is Mr Craister doing for its talked th[at] the Stotts will get into possession of the Estate at Howden pans, where they have ejected the tenants. I wish you a good journey into the North. We have here very wet weather. I am etc JR the deads cuttings &c all lay in it; by wch Jno. Featherston & Miss Shield's tenants will have 40s damage this year, & that is the utmost it can be computed at, and will likewise please them very well. As to the rest of Miss Shield's land it receives no damage by Great Slitt, but it is a considerable advantage to her that the grove proves good, for her land before last year as I am informed was never let for more than 20 Guineas a yr. &

it's now let for 25.15.0. Suppose the whole pasture were to be laid waste by the grove it

My son saw Mr Johnson at Hexham, who told him the four young men were returned the Evening before, having got information as suppos'd th[at] their design to go abroad was discovered : there were sev[era]l more its beleived had the same design, all papists, but who perswaded them thereto is not yet known, its suspected one of their priests was to have gone wth them under pretence of carrying them to some seminary for their Education, tho' they are all the Children of persons of low degree & 20 yrs of Age or near it. As the thing is well known at Hexham & everybodys Eyes upon them, Mr Johnson thinks they will be content to stay at home & not make any more attempts to go abroad, but if they sho[ul]d notice will be imediately sent hither & a person privately dispatched that knows them all. Mr Peareth thinks the best way is not to stir any more in the matter at present, but in a fortnight or 3 weeks time to take up at once all the four that were here to keep them apart f[ro]m one another, to try if upon an Examination any discovery can be made. Mr Wade Mr Preston & Mr Cross lay

As to borrowing of money to make the pays, wch wo[ul]d require 7 or £8000 more than I have, it is not to be got here, nor do I beleive it co[ul]d be got in London on security of 10000 p[ie]ce[s] of Lead. I therefore see no other way than to let the people have what subsistence money I can raise till the spring, in hopes of getting a q[ua]nti]ty of lead sold ag[ai]n]st that time.

I find by the ships th[a]t came in yesterday there is a 40 gun ship off Flambro' head & some other ships of force on this coast agreeable to w[ha]t Mr Elliot wrote you, so th[a]t the trade f[ro]m this port is likely to be better protected.

The Corporation are invited to dine at Heaton on thursday. I do not know how Mr Mayor & Mr Ridley will behave on Mich[ael]mas Monday with regard to the Electors if you are not here; but Mr Ord & I will put them to the tryal.

Mr Baker desires to be excused f[ro]m the Sherif's Office this year & it is not yet determined who to pitch on. The Election yesterday was concluded in a very quiet manner. Mr Sowerbie chosen Mayor & Mr Mosley Sherif. & we have got a Set of Electors to our liking, without any Opposition. Mr Bell sent for me on Saturday & shew'd me yo[u]r Lre. Mr Ridley was present & what they seemed to desire was that all the lists might be delivered to Mr bell, for him to deliver them to the Ald[erme]n, wch they said wo[ul]d look better & it was done accordingly.

The Skinneers Co. tho[ugh]t proper to return Mw. Curry for one of their former Electors, in hopes I presume it might be the occasion of getting him restored to his freedom. but on the Magistrates sending for the Stewards & acquainting them what wo[ul]d be the consequence they summoned the Co. again and made choice of a proper person. otherwise the Election must have been put off till this day, & all th[a]t had voted for Curry were liable to be disfranchised.

Yesterday afternoon Mr kelley the Water Bailif, being under some discontent of mind, put an End to his Life by cutting his throat with a penknife. The Comoners Jury have brought in their verdict Lunacy. so that half the value of the office, being about £750 will go to his sisters, the other half to the Corporation. There are already three persons who have offered to purchase the place. ie Mr N. Fenwick & Mr Stephen Watson for his brother, & Mr Smith a Surgeon in this Town. From all wch persons I presume you will hear by this post. Mr Mayor was not in town this morning, so you will scarce hear f[ro]m him this post. I herewith inclose the rental of Kenton estate but have not yet got matters settled with John Donkin, because Mr Robson thinks it will be more agreeable to you to lay out £30 or £40 more than was at first intended, in taking in the Waste ground in the Street before the slate row of houses; for wch I believe Mr Donkin will be willing to pay 10 p[er] Cent, wch will be a further addition to the Rental & I desire to know if you approve thereof. – I have talked with Jno [John] Weatherburn about his farm & he is willing to take a Lease for 12 or 15 years f[ro]m next Mayday at £10 a yr advance, wch I think is the most Mr Robson & I shall be able to make of him, please to let me know if you chuse to agree thereto, or let his term run out – I do not see how the security can be divided between the two parties that are to raise the £14000, as the Estate is all under one title, unless they can settle the matter between themselves but if you agree to Donkin & Weatherburn's proposals the yearly value of the Estate may be equally divided according as the farms are marked A: & B:.

On Wednesday I reced of Dr Robinson £1000 on that bond sent me down the last post & I shall still want 2000S to make Weardale pay & 3000S more to make the Lead Mills pay, if you design to make it in March : Bank post bills for £300 & £400 will be the best way of returning the money hither, as I expect the Duke of Portland & L[or]d Tankerville's agents will furnish me with the money the latter end of March – I find Messrs Bewick & Craister intend to try their title to Mrs Windsors estate at our next Assizes & that the Stotts design to do the same. As you are to defend the Kirkheaton tenants that have attorned to you I think you sho[ul]d have at least one able Council, that comes the Circuit, engaged to support your Claim. for I believe Mr Craistor has been with Mr Wynn, but whether he has retained him, or not I do not know. Mr Collingw[oo]d Forster sho[ul]d also be wrote to in time least he be engaged ag[ain]st you as Attorney.

Robt Scott says you spoke to him, ab[out] getting the So[uth] Wall next the <Feyers> lined with brick 4 yds high above the border & a cape put on the top of the lining to project two inches. Our bricklayers say a Wall that hight will not stand under 15 inches thick unless its fastned to the stonework with iron Ss every two y[ar]ds square or less. I desire to know wch way you chuse to have it done the expense will be £50 or upwards

Mr Bell tells me to day, he has bought L[or]d Cranston's estate so desires his £1000 may be p[ai]d in as soon as possible – I sent imediately to Mr Edwd Coates, but have not yet heard f[ro]m him – Mr Mayor says he will acquaint you this post what was agreed in Comon Council this morning about the Lamps – That the Corporat[ion] will pay the expence of the bill & putting them up & also support the 4 lamps at the Mayor's door & that the Tax on the inhabitants shall not exceed 4d in the pound wch its calculated will be quite sufficient. The petition will be signed I believe by most of the principal people & sent up be express or by Tuesdays post. I do not imagine the Malecontents will agree in making any Opposition –

At Stockton there is now 30000 Pieces Lead at Market & they offer to sell at £12.15s 0d the Newcastle fodder. wch is near what all your Lead has cost you, besides the intr[es]t of your money & it will certainly be still lower unless we have a Peace this year wch I fear there are no hopes of I am &c JR

I find that the <Cas> whose Stew[ar]d applied to you & Mr Ridley persist in opposing the watch & Lamp bill I am told the Butchers Co[mpany] have advanced 5 Guin[eas] the Coopers 4 Guin & the other Co[mpanies] 2 guin[eas] each & the Managers are going ab[ou]t the town to collect w[ha]t money they can get & they boast they have already raisd between £80 & £100. The Managers are Mr Tho[mas] Davison Mr R[ichar]d Wilson & Mr Smales & they were at Durham yesterday to advise w[i]th Mr Rudd ab[ou]t drawing their petition & its matter of debate among them who they will desire to present it for Mr Ridleys & your joint Lre is not satisfactory to them all as they think you incline rather for the bill. This is an unlucky business wch will create a deal of ill humour in the town & I wish it c[oul]d be rectified by any reasonable expedient. I cannot think of any method to conciliate matters, but either to withdraw the petition or the corpora[tion] to pay w[her]e the expense may exceed 3d in the po[un]d. but as to the withdrawing the petition it may justly be said it is giving up too much & will disoblige the greater p[ar]t of the petitioners & whether the opponents wo[ul]d now be satisfied to pay 3d in the po[un]d is a question as the matter is now gone so far & the Managers have now got the money into their hands. Let the matter and as it will you have no Occasion to be any way uneasy abo[ut] it, for they all know you had no hand in projecting it-

The Money I shall want to pay Weardale Mines & the Lead Mills will be abo[u]t £5000 – As to Mr Bell he cannot expect his money at a days warning he will be satisfied if he can have it in 6 months & I hope to be able to pay off in that time. It will be equal to have Postbank bills sent me down for 3 or 400L [pounds] each or for me to have liberty to draw at 25 days date for what money I want, but bank bills will be more unexceptionable than bills of my drawing – I am sorry I sh[oul]d have misunderstood you ab[ou]t the 200 g for I tho[ugh]t you s[ai]d afterw[ar]ds I need not send it – Mr Gamble has not yet been able to get a good salmon was fit to pickle, for we have had but very little except w[ha]t comes f[ro]m Carlisle, wch he does not think proper to send you – We have had surprising fine weather for the last six weeks & the spring is almost as forw[ar]d as in May – Mr Ald[erman] Simpson sets forw[ar]d tomorrow & purposes to be in London on Tuesday I am &c JR

I have inquired into the character of Mr Jno Hare's son & find he has been guilty of sev[era]l indiscretions & put his father to a great deal of expence, who finds he cannot settle to any sort of business here & therefore desires to have him in the Army wch is the young Man's own inclination. I do not know him but find he is a goodlike person, about 18 yrs of age. I hear very little more of the proceedings of the people in the Oposition, only that they now talk as if they will not oppose the Lights, but intend to petition the house, that the Corpora[tion] may support the whole expence, as the Revenue is sufficient, The Managem[en]t of wch they pretend to impeach. I am sorry any objection sho[ul]d now be raised to the title of Kenton estate by Mr Filmer, who has had all the title deeds before him in 1746. When the mortgage was transfer'd to Mr Lascelles – I cannot give any light into the matter unless something may be overlook'd that is mentioned in the inclosed paper As to the Cotterells who were made tenants of the freehold, there is neither of them nor any of their posterity now living here, or that I can get any acco[un]t of. There can be no doubt but the title of Kenton estate is sufficient, & I hope when Mr Filmer reconsiders it the objection will be remov'd, but if not I know no other way than to try if Messrs Lascelles can advance you the Money upon Walling[ton] for as to raising any money upon the Lead at Bladon
I am sure it is impracticable here, & no Merch[an]t in London will do it, but upon most unreasonable terms, besides your being debarr'd the liberty of selling it when a Markett may offer – I have no bills but some of Messrs Peareth & Sorsbie's, that have two months to go, wch I have engaged to Mr Brown & Mr Hutchinson, who are to let me have money for them the latter end of March to enable me to pay Weardale Mines

I am very glad to find you think Mr Filmers Objection to Kenton title is like to be removed & that you will get forward in raising the £14000. I hope it will appear that the reason why Kenton & Welton are not one mentioned in the Recovery is those estates being charged with old Lady Blackett's Jointure & that they came to Sir Wm as heir at Law on his purchasing the Jointure of Sr W[illiam] Thompson for £8800. I will make out & send you the rental of Wallington as soon as Mr Robson has got all the farms let & sends me the Articles, wch I expect in a little time – I have wrote to Mr Hay to plant some of the Evergreen Acorns according to your directions. I hope it will not be too late, for he has had them some time. – I wonder Mr Tho[mas] Davison sho[ul]d keep any of Coll[onel] Schutz money in his hand. I know nothing of his Circumstances; but believe he has little business, besides w[ha]t he has under the Collonel, Only that he is an active man at present in opposition to the lampbill. I wish the Corporation business wo[ul]d allow you to come down into the Country. the people who oppose the bill say you are coming home to make up matters with them, but how that co[ul]d be done I cannot imagine.

Yesterday I had some more of the Weardale people & some f[ro]m the Lead Mills pressing for their respective pays, for want of wch they alledge their Landlds threaten to break them up. I put them off in the best manner I can for the present & hope to be able to satisfy them all before Mayday if you can help me with £5000, wch I expect will do, but cannot be certain yet to £500 as I still want Mr Isaac Hunters acco[un]t for Xmas Qua[rte]r. – There is now at Bladon near 30000 p[ieces] of Lead but I cannot get any of it sold for no body yet asks the price of it.

If you order any bank bills to be sent down please to let them be for 200s each, for if they are for larger sums I find it will be difficult to get money for them

Several of the Petitioners for the Lamp bill are sorry they were prevaild on to sign it, not apprehending matters would have been so blundered, & the Opposition carried to the heigth it is like to be, You will please to consider whether it will not be right for you to present the Companies petition against the bill. I think it would please them & can displease no body, for I imagine Mr Ridley & you cannot both present it –

If you did not speak or write to Mr Col[lingwo]d Forster yourself, he has not been applyed to, for you did not order me to do it, As to Mr Scot he would certainly be for L[or]d Northumberl[an]d unless his Ldsp [Lordship] has given up all his pretensions, which I think he will not do if no heir appear, Three Kits of Salmon are ship[pe]d in the K. of Prussia Capn Hedley I am &c JR

Honrd Sir,

As the Agents have prevailed on only about 400 to sign the Petition, the Opposition doe[s] not appear so material as was apprehended, & therefore what I mentioned in my last Lre about your presenting it may not require any Consideration, but I was doubtfull whether their Agent Mr Lock, who served Mr Douglass, might not have some view in carrying the Petition only to Mr Ridley. You find by this Post that the Magistrates have named Comissioners for the Parishes, but will not agree to the Corporation making good any Deficiency of the tax, so that if the bill pass into a Law, the Question is how it will be executed, Mr Peareth talks of being in London about this day Senight, about the Wear Water business. I have just now receiv'd some further Queeries f[ro]m Mr Darwin, wch this post will not allow me time to Answer, but I will endeavour to do it by the next, tho I have nothing but Abstracts of the writings that are in Mr Lascelles or Mr Darwins hand, it is very strange these Objections should be raised now after the title has been thro[ugh] so many hands. 1st I find Jos. Musgraves judgmt for £600 & three years intrest was to be paid by Guys Hospital as appears by the inclosed acco[un]t, wch I desire you will not fail to return me, I do not doubt but the money was paid accordingly

3rd As to Sir Jno (John] Withams statute staple, I find by the following Entry in old Sir Wm Blacketts books that it was discharg'd out of the Purchase money for Kenton in 1689, Vizt Febry 23. 1688/9 By Sr W[illiam] Blacketts bill on Millir & Willel payable at 3 days sight to John Douglass on order for £210 to pay off the Statutes & Judgments upon Martin Fenwicks Estate. £170 to Sir John Witham & £40 to Mr Blanche, & all those Judgments I doubt not but will appear to be satisfied on examining the Courts, wch I believe was done by Mr Denton in 1746 to remove the Objections then made by Mr Booth

4thly. . . As to the two annuities of £36 each to the two Brothers, I hope there can be no delay on that acco[un]t, whether any declaration of Trust has been executed by Eden & Atkinson or not wch I can give no manner of acco[un]t of, if there should, you must let me know f[ro]m the Deeds where they lived &c that I may endeavour to find out their Representatives, But I have been almost 32 years concern[e]d in the Family as Recorder & General Accomptant & I never knew any Payment on Demand made for these annuities or for any intrest of the aforesaid Judgm[en]ts or any of them, & I do not know of, or believe there is any incumbrance on Kenton Estate.

Mr Harrison says Jno [John] Rutlidge, whom the inhabitants of West Allan have recommended to succeed Edw[ar]d Coates, is not qualified to be a SchoolMaster for he cannot teach English or Writing, so does not chuse to appoint him without further directions. He says their Minister Mr Lancaster tells him he knows a young Man about Penrith that is a good Scholar, who wo[ul]d be glad to accept the School, wch with your allowance of 10 <g[uineas]> a y[ea]r is worth £16 or £17 a year. I find Mr Harrison's Son in Law takes care of the School for the present but he designs to send him abroad in a little time - I delivered yo[ur] message to Mr Jno Hare about his son, who said he was much obliged to you, but tho[ugh]t his son would not chuse a Comission in the Marines. - Robt Dover, whom Mr Ridley recommends for a place in your new hospital, was one of his single votes. You ordered me to put down Jno Richardson Upholder, for the first Vacancy that offers - The expectation of the ports being opened for the Exportation of Corn has already raised the price of Wheat 18d a boll, & other grain in proportion If it should not be under proper Limitations & the next Crop should not prove good the Country may be under as great difficulties as in the year 1757.

What you are pleased to mention this post of the inhabitants refusing to name Comissioners at the sev[eral] vestries is no doubt a material Objection against the Lamp bill, as the Magistrates naming them may seem too arbitrary, But whatever is done as to the bill it will be impossible to satisfy all parties - If the matter had been better considered & the tax would have answered the intended design the opposition does

I find that several on both sides the Question are dissatisfied – Those for the bill seem to blame you & Mr Ridley for not carrying it in, because they are not yet acquainted with the reasons you give for not doing it. & of those aga[in]st the bill some say 'tis dropt because the Corporation was affraid of having their managem[en]t of the Revenue appear before the house, but I think all their passions will subside by little & little – however I think the true reason for dropping the bill ought to be communicated to the people, whatever use they may make of it, as it wo[ul]d be fixing the misconduct of the Whole Affair, where it ought to be fixed & removing all Censure of you & Mr Ridley, but I question whether the Mayor & Magistrates will think proper to do it I am &c JR

As you have thoughts of leaving the Town ab[ou]t the 7th of next Month I cannot draw upon you for the £5000 for I can only draw as I can meet with the money wch may be a Work of sometime, I am therefore still of opinion that if you do not come directly to Newcastle & bring the bank post bills along with you for about £200 each, there is no better way than to send them by the post, in wch I think there can be little or no hazard if you please to keep an acco[un]t of the Numbers & acquaint me the post before you send them that I may advise you if they do not come safe to hand, Or if you think the hazard too great to send them all at once they may be sent by different posts, But if you do not approve thereof nor intend to be here by the middle of next month the money may be placed in some hand you can confide in for me to draw for it I am &c JR

I find by Mr James Atkinson Merch[an]t here that his elder Bro[the]rs Son John Atkinson, who is now in No[rth] America is heir at law to Ald[er]man Atkinson, so that nothing more can be done till he return to England, he went out a Midshipman on the Nightingale two years ago, since wch Mr Atkinson has not heard any thing of him; if he is dead Mr Atkinson is the next heir at Law.

I do not know that Matters will ever be settled with Mr Beaumont, but my Recognizance as I said before must not stand out for that reason. I will send you up the receipts for my last paym[en]ts to Mr Wilson the purchasor of Kenton Estate, to Mr Thomas and Mr Denton for their Costs as soon as you tell me the proper time, & I desire the Court may be moved for my Recognizance to be discharged, for I chuse to have it done before I die. I have rece[ive]d by this day's post the 25 bank postbills for Two hundred pounds each amounting to Five thousand pounds, wch I have made myself Deb[to]r for & shall now fix Weardale & Dukesfield pays to be made the beginning of next Month, wch will amount to about £13000, I have talked with the Grove Stewards ab[ou]t laying aside all the dead Charges, except at Coalcleugh (wch must go forwards) & working the Groves for the present on the easiest terms taking care that nothing go to ruin – I have sold 1800 p[ieces] Lead at £12 10s 0d Pr f[o]d[der] to be p[ai]d for at Mids[umme]r, wch is above the Stockton price, where they have such large q[uan]ties on hand that many of the dealers must sell at any price that offers. Their fother is a cwt more than Ours – At the Meeting on Thursday abo[u]t the Militia Mr Blackett offer'd to serve as Capt[ain] Mr Mosley as Lieut[enan]t & young Mr Stephenson on the Bridge as Ensign, but I do not find anything was done either for No[rthumber]land or Durham – Mr Bell of Swalwel bro[ugh]t his fate upon himself – for having had frequent quarrels with one Moffet a Barber, he prevaild on Mr Green a Midshipman belonging to the Tender to go & impress him, they found him at his Lodgings, & as they were carrying him away he wrested Mr Greens Sword out of his hand & killed Mr Bell upon the spot, wounded Mr Green in sev[era]l places & made his escape - - I will acquaint Mr Jno Hare with w[ha]t you write ab[ou]t his son, who will never settle to any business by the acco[un]t I have of him, therefore he is likely to be a continual trouble to his father, unless an Ensign's Comission co[ul]d be purchased for him in a Standing Regim[en]t. Sir, I have rec[eived] yours of the 26th past with copy of Sr Wms intended answer to Mr Stots bill w[hi]ch I never before heard he had filed & as you do not order a copy to be returned I send you enclosed a particular account. How I think the blanks are to be filled up, but if there is more than w[ha]t is necessary you can leave it out. The 3 last mentioned tenants vizt Jno Brown & the and two Reays you know have not attorned, but I have seen their leases and their farms & rents are right put down, so you'l find the rental of the estate is £377.3.0 But the cottage farmed by Ann Atkinson is fallen down Mr Allgoods tenants have signed an article for the tithe of her Estate wch I presume is equal to an attornmt. As to the rest of Kirkheaton it is tithe free. The Kirkheaton tenants pay no rent to Sir Walter as Lord of the manor of Anick grainge but they have always done suit & service to that court & served upon the Juries time out of mind, they have always been toll free of Hexham as being within the Regality & waifs and strays have been taken up at Kirkheaton by the Bailif of Hexham & Anick grainge manors, of wch Affid[avits] were sent to Mr Denton. I should have been glad to have seen a copy of Mt Stots bill for I cannot rightly make out by the ans[we]r how he makes his claim, but its not material therefore you need not send me one But if Sr Wr is to put in an Ans[we]r now to Mr Craisters bill I desire you will send me a copy before it is put in. I told you I have a copy of the bill ---- As to Mr Ords bill I have shewn it to Mr Scot and he has promised me to send Sr Wr his opinion upon it by this post--- I have wrote to Mr Beaumont to know if he will pay the £200 w[hi]ch I do not imagine he will so desire you'l men[t]ion it to Sr Wr and Mr Thomas I know if he & the other parties will excuse payment & if so you will see that they sign an order by wch I may stand acquitted, otherwise I shall send you up ano[ther] affid[avit] of serving the writ of Ejectment & that the money has not been paid to m. - PS I cannot inform you where Sir Rd Stote lived, whether at Kirkheaton or elsewhere I am yrs etc JR

Hon[ourab]le Sir

Mr Richmond has left with me a copie of a bill that is filed by Mr Ord against you, Lady Blackett, Tho Wentworth Esq, the reverend Mr Rastall and his wife, w[hi]ch I have carefully perused. I apprehend Mr Ord does not by it intend to compell the specified performance of the Award made by Mr Collingwood and Mr Fenwick or to establish the Boundary between the manor of Hexham and the Manor of Whitfield or to bring any of the matters in dispute formerly, at present <in Leaste on> But Mr Ord being sensible that as you are only tenant for life and the submission being only between you and him as far as related to you only that the award would be no further binding than against you, and that Lady Blackett in case she survived you, and Mr Wentworth and the other persons in remainder when the Estate come to them, might set up <the.. ..> & could not be barred or inquired with respct to their claim by the Award, & that the examinations of the witnesses upon the award cannot be allowed as evidence many court ag[ain]st them the whole design of the bill is only to have a comission to examine Mr Ords witnesses so as to perpetuate their testimony & he may have the benefit of yr testimony in case they sh[oul]d dye, whenever he shall meet with trouble with relation to the boundary between the two Manors I no doubt of it is very prudent step in him to secure for ever w[ha]t is awarded to him. And I think if it shall be worth the expense that may attend that it will be as necessary to have your witnesses examined to perpetuate their testimony as in his case it shall be thought proper at any time hereafter for the persons in remainder to contest this matter. For if they are not examined as it is probable all yr old witnesses that can prove yr bounder of your Manor & the Badges of owners[hi]p that have been used by lords of the manor will be dead the benefit of their testimony will lost before any dispute may happen in this affair & then Mr Ord will as effectivally secure the whole as if all the psons intrested had conveyed the same to him, for whenever there shall be a contest he will have the benefit of the testimony of their witnesses that are dead. But the consideration of it must be left to you. Mr Ord in his bill has set forth the boundary of hs manor as he claims it and also the boundary of yr manor & also the Award made by Mr Collingwood and Mr Fawcet. But I think notwithstanding what you have done and the award that you Lady Blackett and Mr Wentworth may deny the boundary to be as set forth by him and set forth the boundary of your manor as you claim it and you may deny what Mr Ord charges to have been done by the owners of manor as badges of owners[hi]p. It will be necessary to have appearances for you Lady Blackett and Mr Wentworth and Mr Rastall and his wife entered and you must all put in your ans[we]r to the bill. I make no doubt but you will lay this bill before some eminent council and take his opinion of what will be proper for you to do and draw your ans[we]r. And if you think fit you may let him see this letter. If there is anything further that I can serve you in this or any other affair I hope you will freely command.

I have rece[ive]d a copy of Mr Stot's bill on which I have no other observations to make than that I believe as most other's do, that he will be scarce able to prove his pedigree to be as he sets it forth. I do not see anything amiss in Sir Wrs ans[we]r. I do not remember w[ha]t instructions have been sent up but if the p[er]sons who have attorned to Sir. Wr and for whom you are to appear are right set forth in his ans[we]r. vizt John Moraley senr Wm Atkinson Rd Atkinson Isable. Henderson John Robson Edwd Robson Tho Robson Jn Moraley the younger and Ann Atkinson, who have all bonds of indemnity given them Jacob Lowry and John Carr have taken the tithes of Mr Allgoods estate and whether one or both of them are in your bill I think you sho[ul]d appear for them for they ought be indemnified. Mr W Atkinson is mentioned in the bill, but he s[ai]d he has no interest in the farm having turned it over to his sons Wm and Rbt. I have no opportunity of seeing the tenants, but have sent my son to them to know if they have any objection to the answer. I will let you know what they say. I have no money to remit to London at this time but about a month after shall want £379.15.0 to be paid to Mr Lascell & £225 to be paid to Mr Vernon for Lady Mansels half yr Ann[ui]ty due 5th April last and perhaps Lady Blackett will want £100 but these I doubt wont suit with your time to pay the £2000. I have tried some of our Chief money dealers here and cannot find any of them that want to make a return for that sum. Only our Bankers say if you will pay the money to Messrs Vere Glyn & Halifax they hope they shall be able to pay it here in a month or 5 weeks time, but that I do not recommend.

As to Mr Beaumont he has sent me word, as he has done many time before that he hopes to pay you £200 in a little time, but I do not believe it, he must have some friend that tells him he may be easy as he wo[ul]d have pd it before this, I have made my affi[davi]t of serving the writ of Execution, wch is in Mr. Thomas's hand and done all that is incumbent upon me and therefore if you think I have acquitted myself I shall not make myself so busy as to make another affi[davi]t forgive myself any further trouble unless I am called upon to do it I am yrs etc JR

I have made Weardale pay for your own mines, but Mr Bacon c[oul]d not be ready to make the partnership mines pay I intend to pay the leadmills on thursday next. Mr Scott sent you his opinion on Mr Ords bill sometime ago. If you think proper to stir any further into that matter Mr Wentworth & the other parties to the bill sho[ul]d in their answers desire that not only the testimony of the witnesses examined on y[ou]r part at the reference but also of such other old witnesses as can be obtained, may be perpetuated, for Mr Harrison says he has two material witnesses that have not been examined who can speak possitively to their taking up waifs on the disputed Ground in right of the Manor of Hexham wch may invalidate what has been said on that head by Mr Ords witnesses, but if you were to proceed in the affair I doubt it will be all at your expence. PS The Wallington tenants have p[ai]d but badly and half of the money was to pay for work going on there. Tweddle and Pickering have paid nothing and as to the Berwick tenants they are all greatly in arrears. Hon Sir

Nothing material has happened here since my last Lre all the pays are made to Xmas last except the partnership wch Mr Bacon cannot yet get ready to make I cannot get a pig of lead sold tho the price is fallen to £12 a fodd'r so that I do not know wht can for money that is for the people's subsistence and your private occasions Mr Bells 1000 £ must be pd at Mart[in]a]s and Mr Simpson desires to have his 1000 £ pd as soon as convenient for he has bought an estate of Mr Spearman which occasions his wanting his money

As to Mr Fenwicks 2000 £ I do not know whether he will continue it another year or no, I presume that depends on Mr Wards life and that as far as he dies the money will be called in Mr Harrison has made an Affid[avi]t of the ages of the witnesses that it is wished may be examined on Mr Ords commission <de bene esse> but I am afraid the Court will think some of them too young being under 60 yrs of age who are the best witnesses you have and some of them in a bad state of health. We have had plenty of rain for a week past and a fine prospect of everything in plenty except money, for above 12000 has been very lately sent up to London by land carriage in portugal Coin. I sent Mr Mayor two very fine large pine apples on Monday last with what other early things your gardens produced. He had company to fill two long tables, but we had no firing of guns nor illuminations Wm says he does not expect any more pine apples will be ripe in less than 3 weeks or a month. P.S. Mr Robson has been very ill for some time but is now something better I am Honbl Sir Yr mo faithful humb svt JR

On fryday an Express came to Gen[era]l Whatmore for the regiment here to march forward on tuesday and wednesday first, so that this part of the coast will be left quite unguarded wch surely requires the care of the government in no small degree. Its said Mr Duncomb's battalion of the Yorkshire militia are to be sent here if they can be prevailed onto march wch would be a poor defence of our shipping coalmines and other property, wch might all be destroyed by a descent of 5 or 6000 men or less. You will have 40000 pieces of lead or more at Blaydon in a very little time wch I am under no small anxiety about My Lady and Mr Blackett came here this morning The Kirkheaton were served with evictments on friday last of wch I have I have given Mr Darwin notice I will acquaint Mr Hare with what you are pleased to mention further about his son

Sir

I have the favour of your letter of the 2nd inst by Mrs Rayner in wch you mention Mr Kings desiring the loan of 300£. I question not, but he proposes a security to your satisfaction. His brother James King has a house in pilgrim street lately built and let at 18 or 20£ a yr wch wo[ul]d be a security ag[ain]st any accident, and I do not know of any Estate that any of the family have besides.

I shall always be very ready to you any service in my power and shall therefore be content with £10 a yr for receiving and remitting you the rents for the growing year and afterwards, while you think proper to continue it, but I apprehend you mean I am to charge £10 for the 2 years rent due Mayd[ay] last.

I apprehend Sir Wr can have no objection to your granting Mr King a deputation as gamekeeper in the undivided manor of Kenton, but perhaps he may be desirous of having your deputation himself; wch wo[ul]d be securing the game and hedges in both Estates as well. But I will mention the thing to him in two or three days, when I expect him in town , and will let you know what he says p.s. I forwarded your letters to Mr. Bell and Mr King.

As you have Sir Wr often at Hexham I wonder the millers have not been with him complaining of those that grind from the mills The question is whether it is most eligible to file a bill or try the antient method of seizing there horses wch I fancy has been looked upon of a late as a thing that cannot be supported I send you inclosed an extract fm the Black Book for your consideration But I do not take upon me to say it is advisable to put it in practise but it may be referred to the proper judge of the case . I do not find the Dotland division is likely to go forward for Mr Mills says Coll Clavering will not execute the division deed I am &c JR

The Extract mentioned in the foregoing Lre is taken frm the first folio in the Black Book. And the following mem[oran]d[u]m was added at the botttom of the s[ai]d Extract vizt Sir Wr Blackett has the above mills and all the right wch the Archb[isho]p of York and the priory of hexham had .And the s[ai]d Black book has always been admitted as evidence by the court of chancery in other matters. Therefore Quere whether it may not be of service in supporting the right to seize the horses &c of such tenants within the town of hexham as grind from the mills Especially as the custom of seizing such horses &c has been kept up till within these few years. The only hazard seems to be in the variation of the moulter taken by the priory and what is taken at this day. How, or when this alteration was made, no way appears by any writings we have: most probably it commenced when the possessions of the Archbp and the priory were in the hands of the town.

Mr Foster and Mr Robson will acquaint you with what has passed at Berwick with regard to your tithe at West Ord and the ways to the Coll[er]y to whom I refer as to those particulars.

Messrs Burns declare they have lost £340 by the fisheries in the last six yrs and are therefore not willing to give more than £290 a year for them fr[m] Mich[aelmas] next, wch is an abatement of £80 a yr, too great to be submitted to if it can be helped; therefore I desire your directions whether they are to be advertised, for I hope they may be let at £350 a yr at least. The dispute about the Ring net stands I conclude is settled as Mr Kettleby is willing to make the exchange. As you have thoughts of selling the Berwick Estate I think Mr Forster of Lucker sho[ul]d be advanced; for he certainly has that farm far under value. Of £920 due for rent at last May and no more co[ul]d be got than £320 and of that sum £170 has been allowd the tenants for manure, hedges and buildings.

I cannot get any rent of Mr Swinburn or Mr Featherston for Kenton Hall stables and Stoneclose please to let me know whether I must give them warning at Mart[inma]s to quit at May day unless they will pay up the arrears, wch at Mart[inma]s will be £75

I am surprised that anybody should represent to Coll Clavering t[ha]t any stop put to that division of Dotland Comon by me or any other of your agents; for the division deed has been signed by you and all the other parties except Coll C a month before he came from Guadaloup and has been lodged with me ever since in expectation of Mr Mills the Colls agent here wo[oul]d call for it and send it up to his master to be executed; I have wrote to him and spoke to him several times abt it and his ansr always was that he thought the Coll[s] allotment sho[ul]d not be laid into one plot but divided among his several farms and that he would consult Sir Thos Clavering about it but the last time I saw him was about a month ago when on my pressing him for a direct answer he told me Mr Douglas was of the opinion that the Coll signed the division deed wo<uld> not be binding as he had only a life estate and therefore he concluded the deed would be lost, as it must be if the division cannot be finished before Candle[mas] next You are sensible there can have been no delay on my side for I never pretend to understand or meddle in the divisions But the loss of the divisions is entirely the Colls own fault or his agents. However I will send the deed by the coach next Monday and the Coll may sign it if he please and try whe[ther] the Comm[issione]rs can compleat the division in time I will direct the deed to you.

I desire you to let me have your thoughts whether there is any likelihood of Peace this Winter that I may regulate my Conduct accordingly with Regard to the sale of your lead for the price is paid is fallen to £10 15s 0d which is a loss to you of 20s a Fodder and therefore I would not sell any considerable quantity if there is any prospect of getting a better price which cannot be expected while the war continues. The people at Stockton and the quakers agent here sell at any price that offers, I have not yet heard whether Mr Fenwick will continue his money but expect to know his resolution in a few days having half a years interest now to remit him, I have desired Mr Dentons brother in law to send you half a dozen hams and a dozen of hogs heads from stockton as they are to be got better there than at this place, and direct them for you to be left at Mr Chis Blacketts in York Buildings lest you should not be in town and advise him by what ship they go. I have sold only about 6000 Ps Lead this year wch amounts to no more than about £4500 but this has cost you near £5000 so that it frets me to sell at so much loss and yet I must dispose of 3 or 4000 ps more to pay off Allanhed and Coalcleugh to Xmas next for the people there cannot want their money, but as to the workmen in Weardale they are in better circumstances and may be put off the next year with a little subsistence. If the war continue ano[the]r yr as it is likely it will nothing but loss can be expected from the lead trade and therefore the less you are obliged to sell the better Mr Fenwick writes me that he will continue his £2000 if you please to send a note order in 14 days that you will pay him 4 ¼ percent from 12th May otherwise he expects the money to be then paid in. And I wish that money was paid off if I could tell how to do it. As you are likely to get the money to pay off Mr Lescelles you will please to consider whether it will not be better, if you can raise £30,000 wch will enable you either to pay the lead mines and preserve your lead for a better market or pay off some of your bonds that are at a higher interest especially those that you think are most likely to call in their money. Inclosed is Airey &c bill on Messrs Vere Glyn and Hallifax for 225£ which I desire you will place to my acct and advise the receipt of and when Mr Vernon calls upon you pay Lady Mansels ½ yrs annty due 10th last month and when I receive the rest I will give you 6s for it and advise you thereof. I desire the reciept may be made recd of Sir Wr Blackett by my hand and you will witness it, that it may be a proper voucher to my acct with Sir Walter

As you have all the materials we have been able to collect here from the abstracts and other papers in my office and have also I presume the original Grants &c in yr custody relating to Anick grange you will best judge what searches are necessary to be made. I am afraid you will not find any particular grant of Anick grange manor between 1620 and 1632 for if there was any such grant it must certainly be among the writings in your hands and we sh[oul]d therefore have had most probably a copy of it here but however it will be right to search it must therefore be well coonsidered if no particular grant can be found whether grant of Hexham in 1632 does not include the manor of Anick grainge But then why Sr J.Fenwick should stile himself lord of that manor in 1622 is what I do not understand the reason of As to the grant of Kirkheaton 10th James 1st it will be prudent to search for it to know whether Mr Craister has set forth the contents there of right in his bill You must also examine whether Sir Jno Fenwick conveyed the manor to Cuthb Heron wch I much question he did tho' Heron conveyed it to Sir Bd Stote, these last deeds I imagine are in Mr Peals hands and may be got a sight of on Sir Wr desiring it of Lady Windsor and when you have examined into all of these particulars you will be able to lay a state of the case before council for their opinion I presume you have Sir Wrs directions to correspond for the future with Mr Coll.d Foster on this affair as Mr Scott must be concerned with Ld Northumberland I have had no Lre from Sir Wr since I received yours but to be sure the £500 you mention he will order to be returned to you in time If Mr

Beaumont should offer to pay me part of the £200 what right have I to take it without a particular order I have had a great deal of trouble in riding after Mr Beaumont for the last two years wch I shall expect to be paid for out of the money in my hands I am

The Ponteland turnpike peple having wro[ugh]t the quarry in Lowthians farm have opened ano[the]r place in Wm Kings farm adjoining the bounder hedge between Kenton and Newbegin. I am offered £5 a year for the Quarry by a mason who agrees to pay all damage that may be done the tenants and I have this day got a person of judgement to view the quarry who will try the nature of the stone and will let me know in a few days w[ha]t rent she deserves. But if no more than £5 a year can be got it will be better than to let them be ledd away to the turnpike for nothing I find the Newbegin ten[ant]s to have a way thro' Wm Kings farm for both horses and carriages which he says he allows in consideration of his having a liberty to lead his limestone thro' Newbegin estate As this may in time occasion some dispute between Ld Carlisle and you I desire your directions whether I am not to require some acknowledgement

If you incline now to take a bond of your ten[ant]s for the £300 rent due 1st Nov last the land tax and other articles mentioned in my last lre may stand over till the next 1/2 years rent becomes due PS when Sir Wr is done with getting any stones out of Jos Kings quarry I will let you know the quantity and what value can be put on them

Sir

You receive herewth copies of the agreement Mr Bulman made for the Coll'ry in the Threap Gro[un]d. The originals are in the hand of Mr Rd Lisle. You see there is no grant of any particular ways and if Mr Bulman promised any ways he had no right to himself. That, as I mentioned in my last can be no obligation upon Sir Wr. The inclosures I believe have all been made since the colliery was let, but Mr Robson says there never was any other than a bridle way in old Mr Armorers time who farmed both Ord Estate and Unthank coll'ry and allowd the same on account of the coll'ry his term expired at May 1746 when Mr Bullman took Unthank coll'ry of Sir W at 100£ a yr and worked them together with his own coll'ry at Murton till Mayday 1749. What liberties he might take or be indulged in during this time (thro' the gro'd since inclosed) on acct of Sir Wrs own coll'ry at Unthank I cannot say, But when the Threap coll'ry came to be let to Mr Jeffreys and p'tners there was no stipulation made for those ways, nor any claim made there of till 4 or 5 yrs after the gro[un]d was inclosed and the way altered. I am of your opinion that there is an understanding between Mr Jeffreys and Mr Lisle in litigating this affair in favour of Murton. I have communicated the whole to Sir Wr who is now here, who leave the management thereof intirely to you. He does not know what reparation Mr Jeffreys expects for his pretended damages nor does he think it reasonable to treat wth him abt any such thing until it appears that the alteration of the road can not be justified, which I hope it never will. I wish you had seen old Mr Armorer when you were at Berwick, who I believe could have given you satisfaction, if he has not lost his memory.

As to the deeds of exchange about the Ring nets I do not imagine there is any manners of occasion for a councils opinion. I am wth due respects to you and yours, yrs &c PS. If you think it necessary Sir Wr desires you will write to Mr Thompson his tenant at Middle Ord to take particular notice of any breaches that may be made into the inclosures, that those who venture to do it may be called to account. I am glad to find you are making so carefull an Enquiry into the Kirk Heaton affair, and doubt not but you'll persevere till you can clear it up for councils opinion, if it appears by the Deed poll that the manor of Anick Grainge was granted in 1568. I think what appears to be the contrary in the Court Rolls may not be so material as the Roll might have begun before 1583 and the title of it not altered so that the court may not have been held in Sir John Fenwicks own name till it was filled up but this I will enquire into.

I desire you will look out for among Sir Wrs writings the lease from the B[isho]p of Durham to Mr Major Allgood of the lead mines in the inclosures of Weardale and the parks of Stanhope and Woosingham granted in 1746 for 21 yrs wch I expect you will be called on to produce in a little time, for by Major Allgoods death or some other cause the counterparty having been omitted to be inrolled at Durham The Bishop has granted a new lease of those mines to Mr Henry Wilkinson of Gateshead without any of his agents letting him know that this lease has been in Sir Wrs family since 1678 and constantly renewed, But the last lease being transacted in London by Mr Denton with B[isho]p Chandler and the Enrollmt thereof neglected has occasioned this mistake, wch I hope cannot be atended with any bad consequence and this moment while I am writing my son is returned from Wallington with a Lre from Sir Wr to my Ld Bp, copy of wch I inclose you and Sir Wr desires you will carry the lease to Mr Halhead his Ldtps secretary and shew it him, that this matter may be set to rights and a new lease obtained if possible, for I hope the lease granted Mr Wilkinson will be void of course, if the lease granted in 1746 sho[ul]d not be in your hand it must be in Mr Lascelles's I am &c JR

We were much surprised to find by Mr Burns lre to you, that upon the best enquiry he co[ul]d make he cannot find that that Mr Kettleby has more than one ring net stand in Sir Wr Blacketts liberty of Ord and that even Mr Todd, who I understand is employed for Mr Kettleby knows of no more than one.

I was at Wallington on the 28th ulto when I talked this matter over with Mr William Robson before Sir Walter. Mr Robson then said he had made a strict enquiry into this matter and was satisfied Mr Kettleby had two ring net stands on the shore of Middle Ord grounds, tho' indeed he has not I found been able to learn the name of more than one called Hobbs Hole. But he affirmed that the difference in value between Sir Walter ring net stands and Mr Kettlebys (either one or two) was very trifling and therefore Sir Wr, in order to keep clear of any further dispute, desires that the Exchange may nevertheless be made. And he and Mr Robson think it may be done, if you approve of it, by Sir Wr giving up all rights to fish with ring nets in the waters adjoining Mr Kettleby's estate and Mr Kettleby giving up all right to fish with ring nets in the waters adjoining Sir Wrs estate of West Ord Middle Ord and East Ord. Therefore if you think this a proper method of concluding the affair my fa[the]r desires you will take the trouble of acquainting Mr Sam.l Burn of it and if he has no further objections to the exchange than he has already made, that the dra[f]t may be prepared accordingly. Hon[oure]d Sir

I wish you wo[ul]d be pleased to desire Sir Ed Blackett to meet you here some time before you go to London and bring his steward Mr Armstrong with him in order that you may come to some resolution about the cottages at Winlaton wch is a matter of consequence that ought now to be settled. The tenants look upon them as Customary Estate and convey and dispose of them at their pleasure tho' they were originally only lease hold from old Sir Wm Blackett for 20 yrs, wch leases are long since expired and have never been renewed. These leases have been in the family of Mr John Wilkinson till wednesday when I got them delivered up with the purchase deeds of the Nuns and other writings relating to your estate. Some of the Winlaton tenants are willing to take new leases and I hope they will all do so rather than try their petitions at law.

I am very sorry to have to acquaint you that this morning about four o'clock a fire broke out in your Maltings in hornsby chair, occasioned by some flax taken in to dry by some tenant, wch has burnt the maltings and a great part of the housing down to the ground, the whole is let at 18£ a year. These houses were got possessions of by old Mr Wilkinson for a lead debt of Sir Wm Blacketts, and I never saw writings relating to them till last wednesday that they were delivered me with the writings above mentioned. The Town is so ill supplyd with water that I think it wo[ul]d be right to insure you own house and stables.

Sir

I have acquainted Mr Gunn with the contents of the last letter relating to the Quarry rent commencing from Candlemass and he desires me to acquaint you that by the expression in the article of leasing the quarry at anytime before Mayday he understood a liberty also to break and work the stones till Mayday clear of rent. But not to lead any away till after that time; and says that in all the quarries he ever took he always had 3 or 4 and sometimes 6 months allowed to make preparations before the rent commenced and therefore he positively refuses to pay any further rent than is expressed in the article whether the bargain stand or not. I have said all I can to induce him to pay this quarters rent to no purpose I therefore defer exchanging the articles till I receive your answer wch I desire as soon as convenient. The boundary between Kenton and Newbigin is an old crooked fence and your tenant and Ld Carlisle's are both desirous to give and take and have it drawn straight, wch is to be done at Ld Carlisle's sole expense so that I presume you will have no objection, for the hedge all belongs to Newbigin and we will have to take care that you receive no Inquiry I hope Mr Wilson continues to recover wch I shall be very glad to find

Sir I have sent you by Mr Turner 4 leases and the articles belonging to them vizt. Thos Wanless Geo Browns Marg' Hunter's and Dodds and Dixon. The 3 last I have filled up pursuant to the articles, as you desired to have them sent you, tho' I would have chose rather that Geo Brown and you sho[ul]d have been together first because he puts a very different construction upon the article from what you do, as you will see by the letter I sent you by him and w[hi]ch if he has not yet brought you, he is a very trifling, if not an unfair man. As I remember he declared he took the farm for 21 years from Mayday 1759 at £245 a year neat and that he wo[ul]d never have it upon any other terms. But you say it is to be at £261 for the first year and at £245 for 20 years from Mayday 1760. There are some other differences between you but I hope you will settle them all with him when you get him to Wallington w[hi]ch I would advise you to do before you give Mr Hunter any others their leases; if they are to have any ground off his farm I hope you are peacefully well again

Sir

I have acquainted Sir Wr with what you say passed between Mr Craister and you; who says it is very well. But I was afraid it might be improper for anything of the £500 to be mentioned to him by us as he never said ought of it himself to either my father or me.

I have rec[eive]d the abstracts of deeds &c relating to the Escheat of Kirkheaton which I shall give my best consideration as soon as I have time. At present it appears to me that you have put Sir Wr 's title upon the best footing in the note you have added at the end of you observations. But as the deed poll in 1583 w[hi]ch the inquisition of 20 Janry 26 Eliz seems to be of great importance it will be necessary we sho[ul]d have a copy thereof before any judgement can be formed whether Sir John Forster got the Manor of Anick Grainge by that deed. If he did, I hope it will be found that the Crown's having Kirkheaton in their hands at the time of granting off the Manor of Anick Grainge and for some years afterwards and then granting it off also will not sever that estate from its dependance on the manor it was anciently parcel of. What inclines me to think thus is that when some Estates pcels of Hexham manor were forfeited to the Crown by the Attainder of Lord Derwentwater. The said estates while in the crown did not pay the fee farm rents due to the said Manor of Hexham. But the Crown having lately parted with them, by appropriating them to Greenwich hospital the Trustees of the hospital have been advised that the s[ai]d Estates w[oul]d now be liable to pay the said fee farm rents and have accordingly pd the same which I am satisfied they wo[ul]d not have done unless it had been a clear case. You are a better judge whether this is similar to the case of Kirkheaton. By your letter to Sir Wr and what you say to me I find that MR Rooks has not met with anything material about Anick Grainge or Kirkheaton in his search in the Rolls chapel. But pray is not the Augmentation office or the office of the Auditors of the land Revenue at Westminster the more likely place to afford us the Lights we want. Since in that office of patents fm 1 Hen 8 to the end of Cha. I are kept, as I am informed by Mr Collingwood who met there with things which he and L[or]d Noland sought for in vain at the Rolls Chapel. When you have considered this you may proceed as you judge best.

I expect Sir Wr has wrote you this post in reference to obtaining copies of the deeds in Lady Windsors possession; as I mentioned the same to him. Pray will it be necessary for me to return you the abstract you have sent as the referring any observations on additions, I can make, to the pages of the said abstract will be sufficient. I am &c HR

Sir

I desire to know in what forwardness you are for the Mils pay, wch I want to have made as soon as possible. To pray hasten the quart accts. Rental and paybill without loss of time. I return you John Lee's acct according to your desire, he has been here half drunk, but says he is determined to live a sober life for the future and to attend his business very punctually but I have no faith that he will keep that resolution. He told me the reason he put Jan[ua]ry's Smelting into the Dec quarter was occasioned by the order to keep that Qua[rter]'s acct open as long as he co[ul]d and he did not perceive anything amiss in doing it as it was only getting the smelters their money the sooner. But this practice is deceiving us in settling the stock at Xmas 563 p[ie]ce[s] of lead and would make his management in the produce just so much the better. In the last year near 6 bings of oar has produced only a fother of lead wch can be occasioned only by his mismanagement, considering the quality of oar from last y[ea]r to Allanheads Mil. In my Lre to you 13 April 1757 I complained of his conduct and desire you to inspect him narrowly, but in all your Lres you rather wrote in his favour tho I am informed that he has been idling and drinking in Hexham and that neighbourhood for ten days together wch I wonder you should take no notice of. Sir Wr will be going to London in ten days time and I am ordered to desire you answer within that time whether you think it is his intrst to continue and try John Lee any longer and if not who you think the properest person to succeed him. There has been application made for a son of Ant Watson a smelter at Acton Mil who I know nothing of and John Bowman spoke to me to recommend him if Lee be discharged. I do not at all question his intelligence but what is your opinion for you must be a much better judge than I can be who is the fittest person for that station. I dare say Sir Wr would be unwilling to discharge John Lee if there were any hope of his reformation. I am etc JR

Sir

I have sent you this post such a state of the case as I am able to make out for the Escheat of Kikheaton to the Manor of Anick Grainge, But desire you will put It with such other facts observations and queries as occur to you to be necessary in a proper form for council; this being the Business of Folks of your profession; and when you have completed It I desire you will send me a copy and then if Sir Walter chooses to consult council in the country I can lay it before them.

The Inquisition in 1627 and the grant of livery in 1630 wch you sent an abstract of are very satisfactory, with regards to the manor of Anick grainge being granted to Sir Jno Forster. But it may, as you observe be necessary to shew that Kirkheaton was dependant on that Manor in the time of the prior and convent. The Black Book would be sufficient evidence for this, but for the word ibidem. And yet from the tenor of that book I hope it will be construed that Kirkheaton, wch the prior &c had in liberam Elimosinam, was dependant on the said Manor. For you see there are 3 persons that held lands at Kirkheaton of the prior &c by Homage and Fealty and 3 others who held lands at Caldstrother of Them by Homage and Fealty also, but no mention is made of a court at wch this Hom and Fealty was to be done either in Kirkheaton or Caldstrother. Only after the tenure of the said lands is declared to be by H & F it follows "Et omnes prdict debent Secta cus prioris ibm Now the court at Aynwyk was the prior and convents court for Hexhamshire within wch jurisdiction the scite of their monastery was. And all homage must have been done in that court before the lord himself by each freeholder on coming to his estate for no steward co[ul]d take homage. & Seizin of homage includes Seizin of Fealty & other inferior services 4 Rep 8. - If I am in right in this would not Kirkheaton be dependant on Anick Grainge notwithstanding Suit might be done at courts held at Kirkheaton or Caldstrother for the ease of the tenants there. If therefore Kirkheaton was dependant on Anick Gr Manor in the time of the prior etc it may be proper to mention that Sir Wr B not only is seized of the said manor of AG but also of the scite of the Monastery, of all the Advowsons Tithes and other spiritualties and pays the same stipends to curates as appear (by Hutchinsons rental) to have been paid at the time of the dissolution.

As to further search in the offices you can judge better than I what will be wanted, and Sir Wr in desiring you to employ Mr Rooks, who he was told was well versed in old writings, left it to you to direct what was to be searched for. I can only say, that if any further light is wanted with regard to the Manor of Kirkheaton, & whether any court was held there, the Augmentation office and office of the Land revenue are the likely places. For at the dissolution minute surveys were taken of the possessions of all Abbeys monestries etc, describing the several estates whe[the]r they were manors and what courts were held for them etc. therefore Anick gr as well as Kirkheaton must be registred in the Augmentation office probably under the head monastery or priory of Hexham. Also while the manors of Anick gr and Kirkheaton were in the Crown the receivers or auditors must have accounted to the crown for the perquisites of these Courts, and this will appear in Office of Land Revenue. You may at your leisure look into Sir Jno Forsters purchase deeds of the scite of the monastery of Hexham of Sir Reginald Carnabys heirs in 1574 Bundle 8. Because some mention is made in them of services to the chief Lord. As you have here, or in the inclosed, all I can add to your abstract I suppose I need not at present return it to you, I wo[ul]d chose to keep it because Sir Wr will want to see it. I should be glad to hear what you think of the Extracts from the Black Book whether it will be any evidence of the dependance of Kirkheaton on A Grainge Manor. I am etc HR

PS The Stiles of the Courts at Anick gr wch I have sent you in the inclosed are and answer to the Qu you put at the end of your Abstracts about the Rolls of that Manor.

Inclosed herewith is the Rental of Wallington Estate, vouched I hope to Mr Savages satisfaction, but I am sorry you should have any occasion to deal with so tedious a person. there is a small alteration upon the rental you had before wch I wish he may not stumble at, tho the amount is the same There is £379.15.0 due to Mr Lascelles for the yrs interest on the 26th Febry last wch I cannot get a bill for here at present therefore if you cannot settle with him otherwise I must send up the money by the carrier.

Herewith is also inclosed a memorial to be laid before the B[isho]p if you approve of it, wch is a true state of the case to the best of my knowledge but if you think there is any thing in it too particular or had better be left out, you will please to let Mr Darwin new model it. That part of the 4th clause wch mentions what your lead costs you and the latter part of the last clause relating to Bp Chandler are the only articles that in my opinion require your consideration tho they are both strictly true. I hope the B[isho]p at the worst will accept of 200 guineas fine.

Lead is now rather upon the advance, I presume on the expectation some people have of a peace and I have sold as much as I hope will enable me to make all the pays, Weardale included before Midsummer next and I have given all the stewards notice to get ready, for the workmen grow very impatient for their money, as their wages have been much lowered. Weardale Groves have raised a great quantity of ore in the last year, wch has cost you very dear, and you will get little by it, unless we have a peace soon and lead advance considerably.

Mr Scott being dead you will please to consider whether Mr Forster or Mr Widdrington is to be employed as sollicitor in the country, when you think it may be proper to proceed in the cause with Mr Ord, they are equally acquainted with the case, having both been comissioners. I have delivered your directions to Mr Hay and Robin the gardiner.

PS Aldmn Eden shut up shop yesterday and I believe a comission of bankruptcy is sent for by this post. His debts already known are between £5 and 6000 and if they are no more its believed he may divide 10s in the pound at least. The Bp of Chester drew a bill on you payable to Mr Eden for the last half year composition for the tithe oar in Weardale wch I paid him the second installment and I question whether his Ldsp may not be a sufferer. At that time nobody had any suspicion of Mr Eden's failing But you are in no way concerned in that matter. Honble Sir

I think it very unreasonable in the B[isho]p to require particular acct of your working the Groves and the profits arising from them, and what you should not submit to in case it can any way be avoided. I dare say it is a thing never before requested on the renewal of any colliery or lead mine lease. But as you think it must be submitted to I have drawn out an acct of the profits made by the ore raised in the enclosures held under Sandersons lease for the last 30 yrs to the best of my judgement and belief, both with and without Great Slitt, wch can never be proved to have been wro[ugh]t within the inclosures held under Sandersons lease, unless for the last 3 yrs it may have been so in Messrs Shields pasture, and who can now tell that that field was inclosed 100 yrs ago but Mr Wilkinson and his p[art]ner are so provoked at losing so fine a bargain wch they made themselves sure of that they will endeavour to make the Bp as hard upon you as they can. But let Mr Wilkinsons representations be what he pleases the inclosed is a true state of the case as far as I am able to give it for 30 yrs. And surely it cant be expected to single out some of the best yrs in that time, wch you can never agree to For admitting the Slitt Grove to be now in an ancient inclosure she is <just> going out of it into the waste, as set forth in the Memorial Yesterday I recd of Lady Loraine £750 wch I have placed to acct.

I will take care to send up the money you order ag[ain]st the 1st June, wch I doubt must be by the carrier. Please to let me know wher I am to send the carriers note to you or to Mr Darwin and also when I am to remit to him the £1000 to pay off Mr Hasland. As for Mrs Lyons money I think it is not to be pd till 1st Nov? and as I remember you said you had paid £100 of it wch I presume you have a discharge for.

The cottagers at Winlaton have intred into an Article to try the Lords with regard to their houses, and I am told about 80 of them have signed it. Sir Edward's steward has taken Mr Fawcetts opinion upon the case and he makes it clear in favour of the Lords and advises to serve ejectments. The cottagers on the other hand say they are advised they can hold under the ancient rent and refuse to come into any agreement for a lease or any advance. I presume you will hear soon from Sir Edward on this subject. We have scarce had any rain since you left Newcastle yet the corn it is agreed looks very well, tho there is little grass

PS as this is time for entring the carriages, I desire to know how many you chose to have entred this year and whether you intend to continue the 20 guineas a year to Dr Lambert. I have just now recd your letr of the 1st inst and hope w[ha]t is set forth in the inclosed estimate will induce the Bp to set a reasonable Fine. I do assure you it is a fair and just acct to the best of my knowledge.

There has been a mutiny among the militia at Berwick raised by 9 or 10 men on acct of their wages, wch they wanted to be pd from the date of the Kings order to embody them, wch money the officers have not received yet but the ring leader who has also struck his Sergeant having been tryed and rcd 100 lashes Mr Moseley tells me all is quiet again and it is not doubted but this example will have a good effect and prevent any further disturbance. As to the colliers I do not hear but at present are very quiet. All Mr Edens creditors except one whose debt is under £100 have agreed to supercede the Commiss[ioner]s and the settling his affairs is left to Messrs Surtees and Burdon Mr J Atkinson and Mr Doubleday but I apprehend he can never act any more as a magistrate. Honrd Sir

As to Collieries, the rent is always reserved by the Ten[ant] and the Lessor either sets a check, or serves a power of inspecting the lesees books and accts for the quantities wro[ugh]t but never requires an acct of the lesees profits. The B[isho]ps leases of the mines is of a different nature, his rent is 1/9th part of the ore raised wch is compounded for in money, and therefore the ninth and the Rector's tenth, which makes 1/5th are deducted from the whole qty raised as the composition of £650 a year is not made of any part of the charge on the ore raised in the 30 years, so that the annual profits are as set forth in the acct. I have seen Mr T Maughan and I do not find any reason for making the least alteration. If the B[isho]p will not believe the accounts I have sent you but has inclination to examine the books and you think it proper to agree to it, let him set whom he will to do it, they must be clearer sighted than I and my son are, if they can make out any more than we have done.

You will receive this by post under another cover the King of Denmark assignation on his agent in Holland, with the translation thereof into English. It has been called a bond but improperly but it shows your demand for the original debt to have been settled, and I presume is of the same validity as a bond; I wish you c[oul]d obtain the payment thereof wch is about £1600 for as to the charges in solliciting this affair and the intrest calculated to this time. I doubt they will never be p[aid]. On all the sollicitations that have been made by the English Envoy of the Court Of Denmark, the answer has always been that they either wanted money, or that the debts would be considered when accts were adjusted between the two crowns, which I imagine will never be, therefore I fear any private applications will be fruitless. However you will be pleased to take care of the original Bond.

I will pay Mr Stoddart the 5 Guineas and furnish the lead for the West End of Chollerton Church agreeable to your directions, and will write to Jno <Horn> about administering to his brother's will. He was not diswaded from doing it by anybody here. The letter from John Pollard (about this) it here returned. Dr Rotheram intends to come and settle in Newcastle in a little time, and as he is looked upon to be very skillful in the profession and especially in midwifry, there is no doubt of his success.

Young Mrs Bates, Captn Milfords daughter died here on Tuesday last in childbed, she was well delivered but took a fever four days after.

We have had fine growing weather all this week and both Town and country are in both perfect peace and tranquility. PS if you should require an acct of the profits made in the last 12 or 13 years it will be very considerably more because the greatest q[uan]ti]ty of ore has been got my last 4 or 5 yrs, therefore you will please to avoid agreeing therto if possible. The reason I have drawn out the account for 30 yrs is my thinking that it is a fair way of stating it, as lead mines are of so uncertain a nature I am Etc JR

I received the enclosed letter from Sir Edward Blacketts steward, if you approve of retaining Mr Norton, you will please to order Mr Darwin to do it immediately lest the tenants get him engaged on their side. They say they have taken Mr Rudds and Mr Gills opinion, which is clearly in their favour, tho Mr Fawcetts opinion is the contrary. The cause will be tryed in the County of Durham and the <Retainer> I apprehend should be <Doe> on the joint and several demises of Sir Walter Blackett Bt and Sir

Edward Blackett Bt ag[ain]st <Roe> In a post or two we hope to get the case distinctly stated for Mr Nortons opinion. Mr Fawcett as advised Sir Edward to serve notices on three of the tenants to quit their houses on the 12th inst which has been served accordingly, so that no time should be lost in bringing Ejectments, if the cause is to be tryed at the next assizes, and if you think it proper to employ Mr Witherington as your agent in this business you will be pleased to order Mr Darwin to correspond with him about it.

As Lord Chief Baron Ord is in town you will be pleased to consider whether it is not right to ask him if Lord Carlisle will join you in defending ag[ain]st Mr Craister and if he will give Mr <Robt> Lisle Directions to join Mr Forster in making the proper Enquiries for that defence. I am very sorry to find you are the least out of order, I hope this will find you better and that you will not let any business interfere with your peace and tranquility. We have fine seasonable weather, and the change has come in good time for the County of North[umber]land PS I hope the Bishop will not be very unreasonable in the fine, as matters stand I think it will be the best way to make matters up with him on the best terms you can. I cannot think of any thing more to be said to the Bishop as he defers giving you an answer till he comes into the county and advises with Mr Wilkinson and who I hope will not be able to controvert that acct you have d[elivere]d to his Lordship. If you were to offer a fine of 200 guineas, I do not believe he would accept of it, having no doubt had the matter set forth to him in a quite different light For it cannot be supported he knows the truth of the case himself, and you are sensible that on every occasion of this nature, here have always been persons, to ingratiate themselves, very ready to represent things with their own sanguine imaginations, widely different from the truth.

I do not know that I have presumed anything in the acct but what is fact and will appear to be so on the most <nice> examination; And as to my doubting the premises i.e. whe[ther] Great Slitt Grove has been wro[ugh]t all the time, or any part of it in an ancient inclosure comprehended under Sandersons lease, is what I cannot help, as there is reason to question it, But however that may be, all the ore raised out of that grove in the last 30 yrs as appears to me by the Grove accts is included in the accts d[elivere]d his Lordship, and yet the profits appear to have been no more than £218 a year and surely his Lordship will never ask any more for a fine than a years profit of a Lead mine. The Lot and tithe being deducted from the ore raised cannot reasonably be an objection, because they have been always, except for 3 yrs under composition, wch is not made any part of the charge of raising the ore.

The pay of your own mines in Weardale is fixed to be the 2nd of next month, and Allenheads and Coalcleugh pay the day following, wich together amount to near £14000 but I am not in cash to make the p[ar]tnership pay wch will be near £2000 more, nor do I hear that Mr Bacon is ready for it. Mrs Cocking was with one about her proposal to pull down the nun's house and lay out 4 or £500 on building on a lease for 21 yrs, paying you the rent of £5 a year to keep the school Master now pays, I told her you had appropriated the manor house for the benefit of the Charity school of St Andrews, and I did not think you would make any alteration. I presume you know you have £1000 of her money upon bond, and pay her a life annuity of £36 a year for <£400> which you took of her 14 years ago to serve her. She has now got so much money by her by her trade of selling spirits &c as she thinks sufficient and has therefore left of the Business and retired to a private life. What her religion is I do not know but I am told she associates altogether among the Roman Catholics. I do not think the schoolmaster ought to be turned out without reasonable warning that he may have time to look out for another school. If you should incline to grant Mrs Cocking a lease, it cannot well be done this year and you will have time to consider of it against the next. I have delivered your letter to Beck and Shortridge who is very well satisfied with it, he is a free house carpenter about 40 years of age, an active man, and can very well provide for his family, if he did not like company too well which leads him into some extravagancies, I have received from Mr Darwin the opinions about Kirkheaton which I shall not communicate to any body as that cause is to be defended at the next assizes. The Lord Chief Baron should be desired to write to Mr Clever Lord Carlisle's chief Agent to join on the councils fees to Mr Stanhope and Mr Morton and other charges, as Lord Carlisle is much more concerned in the Issue of the cause than you are. Mr Robt Lisle says he has not yet received any directions to join

Mr Forster in preparing any defence. Sir Edw Blacketts steward has ordered Mr Widdrington to retain Mr Stanhope on the Case with the Winlaton Cottagers. You will have about 60 or 70 pine apples to cut this year, all very small, and it will be a month before any of them are ripe as William keeps them back to prevent the other plants which look very well from fruiting. To Sir Wr Blackett MP at his house in Pall Mall London 24th June 1760

I return inclosed the Denmark papers sent down in your letter of the 19th inst. Jno Cooper was a Newcastle merchant and Sir William Blackett's Factor at Copenhagen therefore the bond or bill on <Marcellius> was made payable to him and he gave a Lre of Attorney to Henry Lad of Amsterdam to receive the money, and then Ladd afterwards renounced that authority to Sir Wm Blackett from whom you deduce your Title to the Debt. I wish you could procure the payment of the 9571 Rix dollars for the principal debt, detainer of the ship and charges; as for instrst tho' it is as due as the principal, I imagine it is in vain ever to expect it. I believe by the alteration of the Exch[ange] a Rix dollar is not now worth above 4s. But if you obtain payment of the debt it will be in Rix dollars, and if you must get it returned by Amsterdam acording to the course of exchange wch you will now reduce it to about 4s sterling pr Rix dollar, but in 1656 the Rix dollar was valued at 4s 6d. I can never think the payment of this money can ever be obtained but by a letter from the King to the King of Denmark, thro' the mediation of the English ministers. Therefore the gentleman that undertakes the thing may put you to a deal of expence to no purpose, and I doubt not but you will be cautious in giving any authority or letter of Attorney to any person you have not an intire confidence in for it may not be easy to get it revoked, and until that is done you cannot apply thro' any other channel. Besides the Danish Ministers will most likely say they can do nothing without seeing the original bill which I assume you will not part with it.

There is nothing said yet about Mr Eden's giving up his gown, and it is likely nothing will resolve on, as to that matter till it is seen how this affairs turn out. But I apprehend he can never more appear as a magistrate without being liable to insults, as was the case with Ald[er]man Rudston. To chuse Mr Surtees would be throwing too much weight into one scale. Therefore I see no proper choice you have, when there is a vacancy but Mr Blackett who is a senior <peer> to Mr Scurfield. Ald[er]man Ra Sowerbie has been ill for some months in an ague and I hear is still but in an indifferent way. There will be £50 of Mr Davison's money to be given to a young merchant the 29th July who is to be nominated by you and Mr Davison and I hope you will be here before that time to consider of a proper person. It must be to one that is free of the merchants Co.

I am informed Hannah Potts is a Freemans daughter, and a very proper person to be admitted into the hospital.

My son attended Lord and Lady Northumberland as they alighted on Sunday even with your compliments and offer of any accomodations your house afforded. His Lordship returned you thanks, but said they had engaged their old lodgings. Here are none lodge in your house but Mr Shuttleworth and Mr Carr

As it was agreed between us that my giving an answer in writing to the paper you delivered one would only be attended with replications and prolong the matters being br[ough]t to a conclusion, I have according to your desire sent you inclosed the particulars of the estimate delivered by Sir Wr Blackett to my Lord Bishop as taken from the quarterly acct or pay bills that any person may examine that his Ldshp shall please to appoint.

Since I had the pleasure of seeing you at Newcastle I have accidentally met with a copy of an old lease granted the Moormaster in 1641 in which it is mencond that he had a power to sink work and in any place within or thro' the 2 parishes of Stanhope and Wolsingham, so it be not in any man's several or inclosed Ground, which seems to infer that common pastures are held under the moor master lease. And on further inspection the quarterly accots or paybills I find that 12d a bing estimated for the charge of wood and contingencies is far short of what has been the real expense. As to the fifth part of the ore being deducted, it is hoped that his Lrdsp will think it right, as Sir Wr Blackett holds it of his Ldsp and the Rector of Stanhope by composition and if the composn had not been accepted when his Ldsp came to the See of Durham I can with truth say no more co[oul]d have been given by Sir Wr Blackett and the winning of the Slitt Grove wo[oul]d not have been attempted, for it is the having the dues under composition that it is the encouragemt to make expensive Tryal, of which few are attended with success. It must be granted that Sir Wr has gained by the composition but if his Ldsp was sensible of the small profits he makes by Weardale mines with all the advantage of the composn he would think him well intitled to it, for laying out 8 or £9000 a year as it appears in some years he has not made 5 p.cent of his money. As for the computation of the profits being made for 30 years it was believed hid Ldsp wo[ul]d be desirous to have the annual value brought to as great a certainty as could be in order to <settle> the fine on equal terms as lead mines are of so uncertain a Nture. And as to the future success it must be owned to be very precarious. You now know, or may know, all that is in my power today before his Ldsp for his consideration. I am etc JR

Sir

Sir Wr Blackett desires you will enquire of Mr Crowhall [sic; Crawhall] who was lately Grove steward at Fallowfield, whether he is engaged with any body at present for if he is intirely at liberty Sir Wr has so good an opinion of him that he inclines to offer him a post in his service. If therefore he is disengaged I desire you will tell him that when he comes to Newcastle I should be glad to see him, but there is no necessity for his coming on purpose, as Sir Wr is gone to London and may not return these three weeks, only I should know whe[the]r he has entered into any engagements.

I am HR

5 Nov 1760 Joseph Richmond to Nicholas Halhead

To Mr Nich Halhead at Durham Castle

5th Nov 1760

I have recd your letter of the 27th ulto and have communicated the contents to Sir Wr who thinks that the fifth pt of the ore ought in reason to be deducted, and hopes his Ldsp should be of the same opinion when he considers that the composition now paid for the Lot & tithe the same that was paid to the 3 preceding Bishops and to the rector of Stanhope, for the ore got under both leases for lives and years. As to the calculation being made for 30 years I told you the reason of it was, that I was able to make it for the time with regards to the quantity of ore raised, but not ascertain the charge for wood and contingencies till enabled to do it by the assistance of Sir Wr's agent in Weardale, who is ready to verify the truth of the acct these as sent you in my former letter, but as you think 30 years too long I should have been glad to know your opinion as to that point. You have before you every particular I know of the matter, and therefore nobody can judge better what fine is reasonable for his Ldsp to ask Sir Wr for a renewal. I do not imagine any stress will be laid on a lucky hit that has happened in Miss Shield's field in the last 3 years, as it is very unlikely ever any such thing will happen again.

The copy of the Moormasters lease in 1641 I understand to be an explanation of what is granted under the lease for lives, as Sir Wr holds the office of Moormaster with all the privileges in as simple a manner as ever any former Moormaster held or enjoyed the same but If I am mistaken in this or any other particulars, it is an error in my judgement only, for I never had any view to presume or represent any thing relating to this affair but what appeared to me agreeable to justice and Truth, pursuant to the order I rcd from Sir Wr so that if this matter is not brought to a fair and speedy conclusion I hope it will not be attributed to Sir yours etc. JR

Ps My son being ordered to attend the meeting at Durham, I send you this letter by him who will talk with you further on this subject if you are at leisure

Ld Darlington Mr Verne Mr Shafto and Mr Halhead are of the same sentiments as yourself abt the Weardale Customary tenants, so that matter rests in Secrecy, and Mr Maughan promised to observe your directions minutely therein.

Mr Forster was not at Durham, but all matters preparatory to the poll were talked over and Mr Raper and Mr <Swainston> directed to put the same in execution. I think nothing material escaped their consideration.

Ld Darlington and MR Shafto both said they would write you last post about the writ of election.

I had a conversation with Mr Halhead about the renewal of the lease for years; but it was very unsatisfactory. For his determination was that no renewal should ever take place <wth> his approbation, while in our computations we deduct the dues, & insist upon the Comon pastures belonging to the moor masters lease. As to the former we understood his Ldshp desired to know your profit by the lease for years only and therefore gave Mr Halhead the q[uan]tity of ore got in that liberty for 30 years past with the charge thereof. But from that ore we thought it right to deduct 1/5 for the dues because you hold them under the composition you made with his Ldshp and the Rector and not under the lease for years so that any profit made by those dues is a profit arising from the composition and not from the lease. But Mr Halhead says you got the better of his Ldshp in the composition (tho it is the same that the 3 preceding Bshps had) and therefore he will agree to no other method than dividing that composition among all the ore got under both leases, (for years and lives) and the deducting only such part of the said composition from the profits by the lease for years as will be in proportion to the q[uan]tity of ore got under the same. But this would certainly be charging you a second time for what you have already purchased by the composition and is a point wch I cannot think his Ldshp would not suffer to be insisted upon if he was acquainted with the nature of it.

As to the common pastures, he insists that all inclosures, whether held in severalty or in comon are within the lease for years i.e. Sandersons lease, unless you can prove them to have been made since the date of that lease. Another objection was that the computation was made for 30 years, I propose making it for 20 years only, but he said neither that nor 14 years w[oul]d be admitted. I then asked what term he chose should be made for, to wch he gave no answer, to the purpose, in short he kept from such a distance from any conclusion, that I cannot help apprehending, he chuses the lease should run out. I was surprised to find fm him, that he told his Ldshp, my father had acquiesced in not deducting the 1/5th but the proportional part of the composition above mentioned, in lieu thereof. But I told him as soon as he mentioned it that I remembered very well his saying (when here) that That was the only way the computation ought to have been made, but that my father and I both objected to it and indeed treated it as a thing we could not think him serious in proposing. I was sorry he had told his Ldshp so, because he said his Ldshp took it much amiss that my father had departed from this agreement, in the letter he has wrote since.

John Nixon a freeholder who farms £103 a year of you and Sir Edward & gets a great deal of money by the lead carriage, had promised your agent to vote for Mr Shafto, and at the Genl Elecon for Mr Vane and Mr Shafto. he happens to have a farm also of Ld Widrington of only £22 a year yet Mr Marley his Ldshp's steward has given him notice to quit at Mayday next in case he does not vote for Sir Thos. Nixon has told him he cannot depart from his promise to you but I find he is very uneasy abt losing this little farm. Probably this is Marleys own doing, whose <fa[the]r> is tenant to Sir Thos and his Ldshp may not approve of such violent measures. Sir Tho Haggerston was here to wait upon you, this week, and said it was the second time he had called.

PS It would be proper if you please to write Mr Forster to know if he chuses to assist the council at one of the booths or the council in the committee room I am Etc H Richmond

My father recd your letters of the 4th and 8th inst inclosing copies of the bill and Decree <ag[ain]st> the Hexham millers, and of the Exemp[lificatio]n of the judgement about tolls at Bradley Bank. I wish you would examine for the depositions in the cause between the Bp of Durham Wm Blackett esq and Hump Wharton Esq concerning the leases for lives and years of mines in Weardale; for if you find, as I apprehend you will, that that was a dispute similar to what we have at present with the Bp about the extent of Sandersons lease; it will be very proper to have a copy or at least an abstract of them, as Sir Walter pleases. The cause was tryed in the Exchequer at Westminster as appears by an endorsement made by the <Com[missioner]s> 10 July 1684, on a copy of the moor masters lease of 1641 produced before them. I have also found two papers of notice which are as follows, vizt Trin Term 19 June 36 Cha 2nd a motion was made and agreed to that a publication be made the 1st day of Mich[aelmas] term of the depositions taken and to be taken in this cause between Hump Wharton Esq pl[ain]t[iff] and Wm Blackett Esq and others defts. And Mich. Term 24 Nov 36 Cha 2nd a motion was made in the cause between Hump Wharton Esq plt and Nath Bp of Durham & Wm Blackett Esq and others defts; and it was ordered there upon that the said cause do <stand> in the paper of causes to be heard at the setting down of causes after the end of this term and that the former Order for several depositions of witnesses to be made use of in this cause (unless the debt shew,d cause to the contrary this day) be continued till this day senight

Mr Shafto's intrest among the freeholders in this town and Gateshead, I think stands full as well as when you left Newcastle. Mr Dodd gave a treat last week to those in Gateshead. And intends one tonight for those in this place. he will continue to do this as often as shall be thought necessary, tho Sir Tho has given none, that I have heard of since that at Parkers.

I have been at Wallington this week receiving your rents; but many of the tenants fell short in their payments among whom Mr Pickering, Geo Tweddle and Edwd Shotton were the worst; the first paid nothing at all, tho there is almost 2 yrs rent due from him at May day last.

As to the Kirkheaton tenants, 4 of them paid ½ a yrs rent but Jno Moraley notwithstanding the promise he made in his letr to you brought no money but an excuse that he had not got his cattle sold. His son did not appear at all. The payments at Wallington were near £700 for this <1/2> year.

Hon[ou]rd Sir

I made enquiry the beginning of Nov by your direction, whe[ethe]r Mr Crowhall [sic; Crawhall] was disengaged f[ro]m the Co at Fallowfield; Mr Cookson one of the p[ar]tners, told me some time ago that they had done with him, but I did not receive any ans[we]r f[ro]m himself till yesterday, when he called to desire I wo[ul]d acquaint you that he is ready to enter into your service as mil[l] clerk at Allenheads whenever you please, at the same salary John Lee has, wch is 20 [pounds] a y[ea]r. If you think proper to appoint him, Lee sho[ul]d have notice as soon as possible, that he may quit at Mayday the little farm & house which belong to that office. The inclosed Letter was bro[ugh]t by some freeholders at Sunderland; but I told them you were at Bath; & I beleived wo[ul]d not be in London time enough to be of service to Jona[tho]n Baker, in whose behalf it is wrote: so that it need not occasion any further trouble than you please yourself to take in the matter when you come to London. I have enquired of Capt. Bouver about it, & notwithstanding his state of the case, I think according to the custom, wch I am told their Lords[hi]ps have allowed to take place in regard to protections, that the man & the ship owners have some reason for complaint.
Agreeable to that Custom, the ma[ste]r of the ship having lost one of his men, struck his name out of the protection & endorsed Bakers in his room, who made a voyage with him, but on the ships coming to Stockton, Baker was press'd, upon wch the Master bailed him, but while his friends were making intrest for his discharge the master took Baker to sea with him, who upon the ships arriving at Sunderland was there pressed a 2nd time, but soon allowed his liberty upon the s[ai]d bail. But now Captain Bouver insists on his being delivered up.

My father will by post remit to Mr Darwin a bill for £225, wch will be due the 16th inst, he will wait upon you with it or the money as soon as you return to London, & my father desires you will please to sign a receipt, to be a voucher to his account. As to the Election, I cannot find Sir Thos gains any ground tho' his friends talk of very great matters. They were to have had a meeting on Tuesday next at Mr Wind's in this Town, but it is postponed upon some acco[un]t or other. I was very glad to hear by < Coll> Delaval that you were so well again & hope for a long continuance of your health. P.S. Mr Robson has I suppose wrote you that he has let Wm Pickering's & the

I was in hopes to have made a pay in Weardale this Spring for your own mines there being a year due at Chr[ist]mas, but I find I cannot accomplish it. As for the <ye> p[ar]tners[hi]p mines, there are 2 years due, wch looks badly, but if I had the money I could not pay them, without Mr Bacon; who I do not find makes any preparation tow[ar]d it. The int[e]r[es]t & other payments with the deficiency in the paym[en]t of the rents seem so high, & the price of Lead still so low, <the> I am obliged to sell, that matters are hardly kept a going. You have 10000 p[ie]ce[s] of Lead at Blaydon, & I should be glad to know, whether there are any hopes of a peace this spring; for the price at present is only £12.5s.0d for the common sort & 12.10.0 a foth[e]r for the refined; little more than it costs you when all the expensive tryals are bro[ugh]t to accot. When two pipes of wine arrive I sall send one of them with your Lre to Mr Collingwood, & will order in a pipe f[ro]m Mr Stephenson agreeable to your directions. Sir Thos friends now give out that he has got promises of 856 single & 550 split votes, that he will certainly stand the poll & offer wages that he will be returned one of the members; but I hope it is all puff & that he will be mistaken as much as he was before; however he continues taking a deal of pains; for with half a score of his friends he went again yesterday abt. this town; but I am satisfied they have not got a man by it.

Hon. Sir

I am not able yet to make out an Accot. of the gross & neat Rental of your Estate for last year, because the Lead mines & mil[l]s accost. & the Land Stewards rentals for Hexham Dukesfield Winlaton etc are not yet come in. What I can say upon the subject at present is that, of 7200 <£> the amount of my Rental I have reced 4700 <£> of the last y[ea]rs rents to May d[a]y 1760; but I have p[ai]d the last y[ea]r upwards of 10700 <£> exclusive of all payments made on accot. of the mines & mil[l]s. The difference is p[ai]d out of the Lead that has been sold & protracts the paym[en]t of Weardale mines till I can sell the Lead at Blaydon.

Inclosed is an Accot. of all the debts annuities gratuities & Charities I know of. Yesterday L[or]d Darlington gave his Entertainm[en]t to the club, he called the morning, sends you his complim[en]ts, says Sr Thos. & his friends were at the club & that nothing passed but what was agreeable I am etc JR

The obstacles in the way of renewing the Lease for years with the B[isho]p arise from Mr Halheads objections to three articles in the accot. of the profit you have made by that Lease to wit. to the deducting the ore got in the common pastures, to the deducting a fifth part for the Lot & tithe & to making the computation for 30 years. The reason for deducting the ore got in the common pastures is that the antient moor masters patents (wch were for one life only) granted all the lead mines in the two parishes of Stanhope & Wolsingham “ so they be not in any mans several “ or inclosed ground” wch reservation related only to Halls Lease afterwards Barb[ar]a Sanderson’s, & was altered, on obtaining the Act for granting the office of moor master for 3 Lives, into an express Exception only of “ certain Lead mines wch were formerly granted to Wm. Hall Esq & afterwards to B[abar]a Sanderson” & this as the only Exception in the present moor ma[ste]rs Lease. Now as the moor ma[ste]r is by his Grant to enjoy his office in as ample a manner as any former moor ma[ste]r ever held the same you have a right to limit Sandersons Lease by that old Exception; & as common pastures cannot be deemed “ any mans several or “ inclosed ground” any more than the wastes themselves can be, many of which are appropriated to Towns[hi]ps as well as these large out pastures, they undoubtedly, I think, belong to the moor ma[ster]s Lease. And the more so as it can be shewn that Mr Wharton wro[ugh]t in & let Leases of sev[era]l of these common pastures only as moor ma[ste]r.

saw him it at Durham he told me that wo[ul]d not do neither. So that I imagine he wants to have the computation made just for the 4 best years after the Slitt Grove was won! A thing very unreasonable in my opinion. While his Lords[hi]p insists on your giving up the two first articles, & no medium can be found for the third I do not see what you can do. To offer any sum till his L[or]ds[hi]p sets a Fine, wo[ul]d answer no good purpose I apprehend; & to give up the common pastures, or suffer the least alteration to be made in the Lease for years might render the Lease for Lives scarce worth renewing.

Inclosed I have returned Mr Westgarths Letter; what he proposes abo[u]t your joining the Gentlemen of Newlandside in order to reduce to reason the person who is engrossing so large a part of Bollyhope Fell, may deserve your concurrence in proportion to your Estate at Woodcroft. But as to his complaint abo[u]t the mil[l] smoke or his Expedients of selling you his Estate, or your letting Harrison have the taking Mr Hutchinsos farm in his own name, it will be better, if you please, to write him you will consider of them, when you come into the country. The direction to him is To John Westgarth Esq at Unthank near Stanhope in Weardale by Durham. I have given directions as you ordered about Mr Crowhall & John Lee.

I sent on Saturday last by Mrs Lee's waggon, the box of linen etc; there is in it a shagrene case containing a pair silver buckles, a diamond ring, & a pair of Gold sleeve buttons; but the box of jewels etc, wch you mentioned sending at the same time, I think you lock'd up in the dressing room. I shall send the key of this box in the waistcoat pocket of Jo's Livery, wch I expect here for Wallington on Fryday & shall forward by the coach. I have given Mr Gibson the 20 guineas you ordered for Mr Eden.

I hear nothing but that the business of the Corporation proceeds in a direct & even channel. Sir Thos. Clavering's friends are much displeased at Mr Vanes & Mr Shaftos new advertisement; because it seems to question the very great Encouragement he says he has met with. There is no abatement in the health of any of your friends, that I have discovered, since you left this place, the Improvement in your own is a satisfaction to them all. Sir

Upon making Enquiry after the names of some of the Groves mentioned in the copy of the first of the 3 depositions you sent me in the cause B[isho]p of Durham ag[ain]st Humphrey Wharton Esq. , I have some reason to hope there is a misnomer, or an Error in the Copy. For one of the Groves is first called in that deposition Lodge Slitt, but afterwards Lodgefield Slitt. Now as I can find no such Grove as Lodge Slitt nor even Lodgefield Slitt I am inclined to think that the deponent spoke of Slitt as a distinct Grove from Lodgefield, & desire you will examine & let me know how it appears to you. Slitt is the present & was the ancient name of a Grove in the common pastures & it will be much to Sir Wr's purpose if we can apply to this grove what is said in that deposition.

I am sorry you cannot obtain such copies or abstracts (tho' without the names of the witnesses), of the other depositions in this cause; for there may be things of consequence in them, tho till they are examined by persons who know the Groves & the nature of the present dispute it is impossible to say whether it may be worth while to be at the expence of office copies of them all. Tho' you were not so lucky as to meet with it, yet there certainly has been a cause in the Excheq[ue]r at Westm[inste]r wherein Hump[thre]y Wharton Esq. was p[lain]t[iff] & Wm. Blackett Esq & other def[endan]ts. For I see Endorsement[s] made by the Comiss[ione]rs in such a cause on several deeds at their sitting 10 July 1684. And it appears to me that Mr Wharton filed his bill again[st] that Wm. afterwards Sir Wm. Blackett, in consequence of a debate between them before a committee of the ho[use] of Comons, relative entirely to these inclosures, on 23 May 1679.

It appears also f[ro]m the minutes of the Chairman of that committee that Mr. Wharton alledged he had digged in the inclosures in Weardale for 40 y[ea]rs & hath a verdict at Law in the Exchequer for his right to them. If the record of this verdict, or any judgem[en]t obtained in consequence thereof could be found it wo[ul]d be of great use towards convincing the Bishop that he is for extending the inclosures beyond the ancient construction of the Lease thereof, to the prejudice of the moor masters Lease I am etc HR

L[or]d Darlington called last week, & told me he had heard that an application had been made to the Customary tenants in Weardale to vote for Sir Thomas Clavering at the General Election. I mentioned that it was scarce possible for any overtures of that kind to be made without Mr Maughans hearing of them directly, & that he had your directions to send me word as soon as he got any intelligence of such a proceeding. But his L[or]ds[hi]p being desirous of knowing before the meeting at Durham, wch was yesterday whe[the]r there was any foundation for the report, I sent to Mr Maughan, & on the otherside is a copy of his answer of wch I also sent his Lords[hi]p a copy.

Thos. Rippon of Stanhope is a single vote for Sir Thos. & Cuthbert Bainbridge of the same place I doubt will be so too. The first is an agent & the other a tenant of L[or]d Carlisle's. Bainbridge is employed you as a Carrier, & inclined to give you the disposal of his 2d vote at least; but the fear of losing his farm, wch Rippon threatens shall be taken f[ro]m him, will probably confine him to Sir Thos. I cannot learn whe[the]r Lady Carlisle, or the Trustees, (of whom L[or]d Chief Baron Ord is one) are properest to be apply'd to for his L[or]ds[hi]ps int[er]est.

Mr Davison of Beamish desired I wo[ul]d acquaint you that Miss Conyers's tenant, who by her direction voted for Mr Shafto, has now got a Bias in favour of Sir Thos. Inclosed is Peareth & Sorsbies bill on Freeman & Stainbanks for £1100 wch I desire you will please to advise receipt of. I am sorry to find you are not quite well, & hope you will not suffer the hurry of business, or anything whatever to affect your spirits or give you uneasiness; for what is all the business in the world to your health.

I have considered as to raising £2000 in six weeks time, & find it cannot be done without manifest prejudice to your private affairs; wch stand as follows. I have money by me wch I expect will just about pay the mils & Allanheads & Coalcleugh Mines; & notice is given in the country that those pays will be made as soon as the Stewards get their acco[un]ts ready, wch will be in about a month. So that this money cannot be applied any other way.

As to Weardale pays, I was in hopes of making them sometime this spring & have sold part of the Lead at Blaydon for that purpose, & will sell the rest as fast as there is any demand. Mr Bacon talks of paying the p[ar]tners[hi]p mines about Mayday; your ½ thereof will come I believe, to about £2600. & it wo[ul]d be a pity your own mines sho[ul]d not be p[ai]d at the same time, wch will come to about £6000 more, & will be expected in the country. All the Lead at Blaydon ready for the market when sold will not do so much more than pay those mines, & the articles due for int[e]r[es]t, the B[isho]p & Rectors rents & other contingencies. & as to the stock of Lead wch you have at the mills, little of it can be got down before June, & cannot, even if there sho[ul]d be a demand, be turned into money till about Lamas. This is the situation of your affairs at present. But if you think proper to order £2000 to be ready to be p[ai]d in 6 weeks I must write to Mr Maughan to desist making preparation about Weardale pays till after Mids[umme]r, when they will come to 4 or £5000 more, & a pay cannot then be made till after Mich[aelma]s. As to raising £2000 any other way, I cannot think of any means, except perhaps it may be got of the Bank. But I do not imagine you wo[ul]d chuse to apply for it there for sev[er]e reasons. I have your Lres of the 17th & 19th inst; & have sent you by this post under this and four other covers one of the Briefs at the last Assizes in the Kirkheaton Cause, & also Lawyer Wilson's Lre to Sr Wr Blackett abo[u]t the pretended agre[e]ment at the Assizes in 1759, wch you will please to take care of.

I am glad to find by your Lre of the 19th that you have met with the bill & answ[e]r in the Cause Wharton ag[ain]st Blackett & others; because they come fully up to the point now in dispute about the common pastures; & the Sir Wm. Blacketts allegation, are ag[ain]st us in the ans[we]r he then put in, yet I find by a Letter he wrote in 1704 that he had tired of the contest, & owns that he had found so much difficulty in it that he gave up the cudgels. & I see that in 1687 he had an acco[un]t of these difficulties sold Sandersons Lease to Mr Wharton for £150 tho' he had given £350 for it. This makes it clear to me that the depositions were upon the whole in Mr Wharton's favour. I make no doubt but they were published & that upon further search you will find them; for there was a motion made by Mr Wharton for publication of the depositions in this very Cause, as you will see in the copy of the notice of this motion wch I sent you in my Letter 13 Nov last, & of wch I send you another copy on the other side. If you meet with these depositions I desire you will take Sir Wr Blacketts directions whether you are to get office copies of them. Westgate hight, wch Sir William alledges he wrought in for Lead Ore under Sandersons Lease, is the very common pasture wch the B[isho]p is now claiming as an inclosure, & wch Sir Walter insists belongs to the Moor masters Lease.

I wish you would examine for the verdict wch Mr Wharton alledges he obtained & wch I mentioned to you in my last; & if you meet with it send me a copy of it, if it is a short thing; at least let me have the names of the places or Groves therein adjudged to belong to Mr Wharton; for it is possible they may be of great use in the present dispute with the Bishop. Hon[ou]rd Sir

I cannot think of any argum[en]ts about the renewal of Sandersons Lease, but what have in a great measure been made use of before, in the calculations & Lettrs you have upon the subject, wch I believe will bear the test of an impartial examination notwithstanding the Bp seems to be perswaded of the contrary.

Why will not Mr Halhead give himself the trouble of examining the quarterly acco[un]ts & pay bills, to be convinced whether I have made a fair calculation or not? In them surely there can be no art or deceit! The first estimate of the profits was called for in haste, before I co[ul]d have an opportunity of advising with Mr Maughan as to the wood & contingent charge & how much of the ore was got in the common pasture, wch I co[ul]d not myself distinguish. But those articles were set to rights in the 2nd acco[un]t made out for 14 years; & as the annual profits happen to be nearly the same in both calculations, this may possibly have occasioned the B[isho]ps beleiving there has been some contrivance. If his L[or]ds[hi]p will not first set you a fine, I am humbly of opinion it will signify nothing if you were to offer him £500. And if ever a renewal is obtained the common pastures sho[ul]d not be included in it, nor any variation allowed f[ro]m the present Lease; for that wo[ul]d be rending the Moor ma[ste]rs Lease of little value. Mr Darwin in his search into the dispute between Mr Wharton & old Sr Wm. Blackett about this very affair, finds that Sr Wm. in his ans[we]r to Mr Wharton's bill claimed the common pastures to be held und[er] Sandersons Lease, But he was forced, as he says in his Lre to his Attorney, to give up the cudgeals, & was glad to sell that Lease to Mr Wharton for £200 less than he gave for it. My son writes Mr Darwin this post to endeavour, if you please, to gain what further light he can into this matter. If this obstacle about the common pastures was removed there wo[ul]d then remain to be settled whe[the]r the 1/5 p[ar]t of the ore sho[ul]d not be deducted for the dues you hold by composition & for what no. of y[ea]rs the computation of the profits ought to be made. As to the first, it seems strange there sho[ul]d be any objection to your having the advantage, you have by an accident gain'd by the composition; for if you had lost by it, what satisfaction were you to have expected? & to make you pay now for the advantage in setting the fine is surely what the B[isho]p wo[ul]d never think of, if he considered the thing himself without Mr Halheads prepossession that the composition was artfully obtained; wch is so far f[ro]m having any truth in it, that you know you wo[ul]d never have given either the B[isho]p or the Rector a shilling more. The Rector of Stanhope may in my opinion with as much reason expect you sho[ul]d make him a compensation for the lucky hit you have had in Miss Shields field within the last 3 or 4 y[ea]rs. But you are in his L[or]ds[hi]p's power & he must do wch he thinks just & reasonable. As to the time that the profits ought to be computed for, I think every impartial man will say, it ought not to be for less than the 14 years expres[s]ed on the subsisting Lease.

The price of Lead continues here about the same it has been for some months that is £12.10s.0d for the refined & the common Lead in proportion. The best Lead at Stockton sold for £13.7s.6d has always been 5s a fo[the]r above the 2nd sort wch is all refined, wch ref[ine]d sort L[or]d Darlington sells at £13.2s.6d, & that price at Stockton is nearly equal to £12.10s.0d at Newcastle. I have for some time stood at £12.15s.0d, but nobody will yet give it. I have heard nothing f[ro]m the Gent[lema]n that applied to you for 250 tons of Lead. You have always chose to sell your Lead to the merchants, whom you know & with whom you are safe & to go into any other method now wo[ul]d disoblige them, without any advantage to yourself or even the Gent[lema]n who wants to buy the Lead. For if he will send his order to Messrs Peareth & Sorsbie they will observe his directions, if they approve of him, & charge him I believe no more than 1 per c[en]t; & that they are able to save him in the freight etc as they are better acquainted with the masters of ships. And besides if you were to ship your own Lead, the custom ho[use] officers wo[ul]d be an incumbrance upon you, & exact of you more than they get of the merch[ant]s for weighing at Blaydon.

Mr Gropty I look upon to be a very good marketter; he knows the Town & will be of more service to you this year than any stranger can; but I do not find that a woman cook, fit to serve under him, can be met with here.

I desire you know whe[the]r Mr Darwin will consult with Mr Ellis about drawing the bill to be filed ag[ain]st the absenters f[ro]m hexham mils, or with Mr Witherington, or who else?

Mrs Turner, widow of our late vicar, & who lodges at Mrs Hacketts next door to the Sunfire office in Bedford Street Covent Garden, has a tenant named Wm. Atkinson who is at present inclined for Sr. Thos.; But Mr Geo. Ord says if he had her directions he co[ul]d influence him to vote for Mr Vane & Mr Shafto. A no. of Colliers waggon men & others assembled in sev[era]l places in the County of Durham last week & took the militia lists f[ro]m the Constables & committed other outrages, & yesterday a large body of them armed with sticks came to Gateshead where there was a meeting of the deputy Lieuten[an]ts. The Yorkshire militia were under arms in the Exch[an]ge & Guildhall to be ready in case of the mischief; But that was prevented by Mr Ridleys going into Gateshead & giving the mob assurances that the present meeting was only to draw ten men out of their ward that in case any of them who were concerned in the coal works sho[ul]d be drawn their owners wo[ul]d find substitutes for them & that after this he was satisfied there wo[ul]d be no more balloting till the law wo[ul]d be altered, wch wo[ul]d have been done this session according to the Land tax or poor rate, if it had not been upon the Eve of a new parliam[en]t. The success that apparently attended the Durham mob on Saturday senight has encouraged the same sort of people in No[rthumber]land to obstruct the Constable & Deputy Lieutenants in the Execution of their duty. Mr Ogle of Cawsey parks funeral wch was on Monday served as an Excuse for many of the deputy Lieuten[an]ts not meeting at Morpeth that day; tho' the real one was, I believe, the likelihood of mischief. Mr Fenwick of Bywel going to that funeral was stop'd in Chaise near Morpeth He got out & seized the man that held his horses, but was struck at by some of the mob, & hurt a little in the head & arm; after wch he with difficulty got to Mr Naylor's where the mob broke the windows & did other damage before they co[ul]d be pacified. Mr Fenwick has got the names of 4 or 5 of the offenders & intends to punish them.

At Whittingham & Belford the deputy Lieuten[an]ts went thro' the appeals, but could not do the other business of the meeting, for want of the lists wch had been taken from the Constables by the mob. The meeting at Hexham is tomorrow, where tho' it is expected there will be a great & very unruly mob, yet the deputy Lieuten[an]ts, I am told, are determined to do their duty: & to support them therein six companies of the Yorkshire Militia marched thither this morning.

At the meeting of the deputy Lieutenants & justices yesterday at Hexham S[i]r Lance[lo]t Allgood, S[i]r Robt. Bewicke, <Coll[one]> Delaval Mr Fenwick Mr Reed & Mr Soulsby were present. The six Co[mpanie]s of the Yorkshire Militia, being about 240 men, commanded by Major Crow were drawn up in the market place before the Gaol Gate a little after 9 o'clock. About 12, the mob armed with clubs became very numerous & riotous in the streets & market place & so bold as to venture almost within reach of the Bayonets. Several of the heads of them declared to the Militia that they meant them no harm, & that if they wo[ul]d lay down their arms they sho[ul]d not be hurt but rather rewarded, but if they obstructed them, they wo[ul]d kill every man of them. By degrees they grew still bolder & more tumultuous & several times tried to put the Bayonets aside. The justices, who were in the senter of the square formed by the militia, now grew apprehensive that the mob wo[ul]d break in upon them, & therefore ordered the proclamation to be read; wch was accordingly done three times, But the mob treated it with contempt, & in about a qua[rte]r of an hour began to attack the militia in several parts of their square & actually broke thro[ugh] the line on the left by their weight notwithstanding several were wounded by the bayonets. In this scuffle Lieutenant Hart was shot thro[ugh] the body by a pistol fired f[ro]m the mob, & it is thought cannot recover, one private man was killed & two wounded. Upon this the order was given to fire wch was at first done by three files & then by a platoon, but this not at all intimidating the mob, tho' several of them dropt, the fire became general, & then the mob fled & dispersed imediately and I am sorry to acquaint you that 20 of them are killed & numbers wounded. This was a violent, but I realy beleive a necessary remedy for the disorder, wch was growing very great & contagious. Several bodies of men having catched It, & ignorant of what passed yesterday assembled this morning on Killingworth moor & other places, but I cannot learn what scheme they are upon. No doubt they will now soon disperse. The 6 Companies at hexham lay upon their arms all last night in the Abbey where they are still; but all, as I hear to day, is quiet in that quarter. I cannot learn that any of your miners were at hexham, I hope the expectation of their pay kept them at home. They will not be disappointed therein, for after this severe example it was thought there wo[ul]d be no disturbance or Interruption to be met with on the road & therefore my Father & the Stewards set off this morning with the money. The behaviour of the Militia seems universally applauded for they were about 6 hours under arms, & bore the insults & attacks of the mob with great composure, till the order was given to Fire. I am etc HR

Sir Sr Wr has ordered Mr Widdrington to examine into & make out a state of the case about the two Leases of Weardale mines to be laid before council. Mr Widdrington says, to enable him to do it completely he must have copies of the Bill & answer in the cause in wch the depositions you sent me were taken, to wit Wharton ag[ain]st the Bishop & others, & also copy of the Cross bill & answer & the sev[era]l depositions taken in the cause B[isho]p of Durham ag[ain]st Wharton & others in 1684. Sir

Sr Wr desires you will order search to be made carefully for the Bill & ans[we]r in the Exchequer, Wharton ag[ain]st Wm. Hall Esq., wch must have been in or about the year 1664. for the verdict wch you sent me a copy of was obtained in 1666. If you find it & the B[isho]p is a party thereto, Sir Wr wo[ul]d have a copy thereof sent down as soon as possible; as also of any thing else you can meet with that will throw any light upon the verdict ag[ain]st Hall, because Mr Wharton's success in this cause seems to be very much in Sir Wrs favour. As the B[isho]p wants to bring every thing that can be deemed an Inclosure under Hall's Lease, Sir Walter must procure every proof he can of the Insignificancy of the Lease during all the time it was in other hands than the moor masters.

I desire you will examine among the writings you have of the Trust Estate, for the antient moor master's book ment[i]on'd in the depositions you sent me; for it is a thing we never heard of before; & if it is not there Mr Wharton surely has not delivered it up to Sir Wm. Blackett on his purchasing the mines; It would be of the greatest use to us at this day & corroborate the depositions very much. I have examined every abstract & place here for It, but in vain. Sir

I am glad you have discovered that there was a suit in 1633 relative to the dispute about the Inclosures, & desire you will send down the pleadings both in that & in the cause in 1664 or thereabouts, if you are so fortunate as to meet with them in your search in the Tower; Those in the cause in 1663 will certainly throw a strong light upon this dark affair, as that cause was prior to the first Lease of the inclosures to Alphonsus Bulmer, of whom Wm. <Kell/Hall> purchased.

As to the pleadings & depositions in the suit B[isho]p of Durham ag[ain]st Wharton, unless you have taken full minutes of the bill & answers & it will be very proper that you take another carefull look at them; & if you find that the B[isho]p does not charge anything further than the non payment of the 1/9 th & the <undue> mixtures of ores, without mentioning what mines the s[ai]d 1/9 th has arose out of, or what ore Mr Wharton had mixed wch he ought not, then I agree with you that it will be unnecessary to put Sr Walter to the expence of the copies of them. But if any names of Groves, or fields, fells, wastes etc are mentioned you will be able to judge f[ro]m the depositions & schedule annexed, wch you sent me a copy of, whether it will be worth while to go any further. To Robt Shafto Esq. M.P. at Whitworth by Durham Newcastle 8 May 1761

Sir

Mr Hen Wilkinson & I attended at Durham on Tuesday last as you appointed & went thro' all the Agents bills, wch Mr Swainston had then got in. After considering the great number of days charged by most of them for canvassing, & the vicinity of many of the places, wch they charge distinct days for canvassing at, we co[ul]d not help thinking that 10s.6d a day, over & above their horse hire & all expenses, which Mr Swainston assured us they had charged separately, was an ample satisfaction, for such journies; for the best attornies do not charge their constant clients above 13s.4d a day

besides expenses. As to the days on wch any of the agents have canvassed the places of their own residence, we in general supposed 6s.8d a day might be sufficient & have allowed no more; tho' indeed the agents for some towns may deserve double what others do. Mr Swainston & Mr Hugal were desired to examine, lest any of the agents may have omitted charging their horse hire; for 10s.6d a day will be too little where that is the case; & indeed in some other cases it may not be adequate to the trouble wch some agents may have had. But as to particular merit we referred the consideration of that to L[or]d Darlington & yourself having stuck pretty closely to the above rule. Only we tho[ugh]t it reasonable to allow Mr Ralph Robson a Guinea a day when upon his Norham Canvass over & above his Expences, as those Expeditions were attended with great Fatigue to him. We also have allowed a Guinea a day to the agents who were employ[e]d in Durham during the Election in taking the poll etc. Whatever his Lords[hip] & you may think proper to pay the agents, whether the sums we have made their Bills amount to, or more, as the case may require; it is our opinion that it ought to be expressed in an Even sum without descending to any particular valuation of their time, or letting them know what that has been reckoned worth by the day. besides this method will give them no opportunity of comparing one with another, what is given by way of Gratuity above what their bills were made to amount to I am etc HR

Sr Wr Blackett has sent me f[ro]m Walling[ton] a list of the sums you have to pay in London in each qua[rte]r on his acco[un]t. The last time we talked of this matter Sr Wr ordered my fa[the]r to make remittances to you half yearly to enable you to make these payments, & he will endeavour to make the first of them the latter end of next month; But if that won't do, pray let me know, & I shall take Sr Wrs further directions herein.

I have looked over the copies you have sent of the records relating to the moor mas[te]rs & Sandersons Leases; & I think the moorm[aste]rs right to all the mines in the two parishes is very fully proved; & only am afraid that as the Lease for years has been kept on foot ever since Bulmer's time & renewed & enjoyed by Sr Wr & his ancestors along with the moorma[ster]s Lease, it will be some impeach[en]t of the present Moorma[ste]rs right to the whole, & a sort of acknowledgement that something had been granted to Bulmer. But I have given them all to Mr Widdrington to state the case for Councils opinion. Pray who wo[ul]d be the properest to lay this long affair before, if Sr Wr sho[ul]d not be satisfied with Mr Widdringtons judgement on it? He sho[ul]d be a man of ability, Integrity, patience & Leisure. I wish you could find that Mr Wharton obtained a decree consonant to his Bill ag[ain]st the B[isho]p & Mr Hall in 1664, even tho' it sho[ul]d only be a general one to quiet him in the profession of his property as therein claimed; if so,, & you can obtain It, pray send some Extract thereof. As Sir Walter has been at this great Expence in supporting the moormasters office, it will be very proper, as you propose, to put up the original copies of these records along with the title deeds in your profession; that those who come after may see how careful he has been to transmit the Trust Estate to them as entire as possible.

I suppose the decree obtained by Mr Wharton against Nicholson in 1633, & wch you say is enrolled, contains nothing more than the dismissal of Nicholsons bill, with costs; as you do not take notice of any further particulars I am etc HR

My Father has rece[ieve]d Mr Vernons rec[eip]t: for Lady Mansels ann[ui]ty of £225, & Mr Savage's for £495 being ½ y[ea]rs intr[es]t due 6 May last; wch two sums he has placed to your credit in that acco[un]t between you & him. Tho' Mr <Coll[ingwoo]d> Forster is now concerned for L[or]d No[rthumber]land, yet Sr Wr employs him in the Kirkheaton cause as he thinks there is nothing in the dra[ugh]t of the answers improper for him to see. I met him at Walling[ton] on Tuesday about them & he proposed some amendments wch Sr Wr agreed to, & other some he was to write to you about. One material amendm[en]t wch he proposed was that Sir Wr sho[ul]d demur to that part of the Bill wch requires his proving himself Lord of the manor of Anick grainge on wch Kirkhaton is dependant, & only answer that as the tenants have attorned to him as L[or]d of the s[ai]d Manor he hopes that by being in possession he has a right to hold the Estate until an heir or one that has a better right than himself appears. Sr Wr desired Mr Forster to send this amendm[en]t to you to consult council upon, whether the demur will be allow[e]d of, & whether if Sr Wr pleads only his possession, the Court will not probably appoint a receiver as prayd in the Bill to collect the Rents of Kirkheaton as well as the rest of Mrs Windsors Estates; & then whether by that Sir Wr will not be outed of possession so that if no heir appear, & if the right comes to be contested between the Crown L[or]d Nort[umber]land & Sir Wr, Sir Wr will not be on the same footing only with them, & obliged to prove himself Lord of the Manor etc & consequently lose all the advantage wch <we> expected he had obtained by the attornment. Edwd Reay became tenant to Sr Wr Blackett, not by executing the old attornm[en]t dated May 1758, but a new & separate one dated as I remember the 8th inst; But as Mr Robson has not yet sent it back f[ro]m Walling[to]n I cannot be certain of that nor tell you in whose presence he executed the same. I have wrote to Mr Robson & shall let you have an answer to these particulars as soon as I can. An Ejectm[en]t was served on Edw[ar]d Reay by me on the 1st May 1758; being the same time the other tenants were served. As Sir Wr & Mr Ord have now agreed upon < suing > out a Com[issione]r to examine in chief this summer, Mr Widdrington is at a stop for want of the copies of the bill & answer & other papers wch Sr Wr wrote to Mr Scott for, & wch you told me at Walling[to]n he had given you, & therefore you will please to send them by the first opportunity to Dear Sir yours &c HR

Dear Sir The inclosed agreement signed by Mr Ord & my self explains it self so fully that there is not occasion to trouble you with many words upon it. The intention of the commission to examine in chief is to corroborate the claim wch you or whoever of the remainder in S[i]r Wm. Blacketts will may come into possession of hexham may make to about 500 acres of moor ground wch is in dispute betwixt myself as the present possessor of hexham & Mr Ord the present possessor of Whitfield, & I have been principally the occasion of this Com[issio]n in order to leave to my successors the best evidence I can of their claim or right to that parcel of ground so that you may depend upon my word & honour for the propriety of your signing it. And when you have signed it I desire you will inclose it in the cover, as it now is directed to Mr Rastall, for he & his wife are to sign it as Trustees, & send it to the posthouse. I hope this will find you in perfect health being <Dear Sir> Your Obed[ien]t Wr Blackett.

Sir My Father received a Lre yesterday f[ro]m Mr John Johnson of Whitehall, in wch he says he is very ready to pay his petty tithes, as has been usual, & therefore desires no bill may be filed ag[ain]st him. I have acquainted Sr Wr Blackett of this who desires you will draw up a paper of the manner of tithing in hexham manor such as you think custom will support, for nobody can judge of that so well as yourself & then send for Mr Johnson & the other defaulters, whose names are below & tell them that by publishing their advertisement last year, by the meetings wch they held in consequence of them & by refusing to pay their tithe, they had made it necessary for him to order a bill to be filed ag[ain]st them in the Excheq[ue]r. But as he desires nothing but the preservation of the ancient & acknowledged rights of the manor he is ready to stay the proceedings at Law, provided they will sign such a paper as above ment[i]ond, admitting the customary method of tithing, & pay up all arrears. You will please to get something done, if possible, in this amicable way, as soon as is convenient to you & let my father have the paper signed by them or the names of those who refuse, that Mr Widdrington may proceed ag[ain]st them agreeable to the orders already given him. Sir

In answer to your Letter to Sir Wr Blackett, I am to write to you that the name of the person <.....> therein enquired after was Stephen Fryer (& not Pryer. I cannot find that he or any of the family ever were in America. On the contrary I am informed that the great fortune he has left, to be contended for, was acquired by his bro[the]r James & him as merchants & dealers in corn in this Town. Yet tis true he & his ancestors have for some generations been free cordwain[e]rs (i.e, shoemakers) of this Town. However for your further satisfaction I have procured you f[ro]m the parish registers here the following pedigree of the family. viz.

9 Novr. 1600 Steph[e]n Fryer son of Roger Fryer Cordwainer baptized

6 June 1644 Thos son of Stephen Fryer & Doro Fryer baptized

31 May 1683 Stephen son of Thos Fryer, Cordw[aine]r, & Marg. his wife baptized

This Stephen Fryer, the person you enquired after, had 3 brothers, vizt. James (who was elder than himself) & John & Thos (younger than himself). James left all his fortune to the s[ai]d Stephen. As to John & Thos., no account has yet been receiv[ed] of them or their issue that can be depended upon, for they left Newcastle many years ago. Therefore look into the Landlords Law & see whether you can sell the crop before you cut it. I think you cannot. But you can reap it, carry it off the premises to any Barn hired for the purpose, not too far off, & then you can get the same appraised & after that can dispose thereof. But you are within a week after you remove the crop to give him notice where you carry it to. In all other respects you are to proceed as in distraining any other goods. Hon[ou]rd Sir

Your friends here are sorry you have travelled so far to be laid up by so painful a disorder; but as it seems a regular Fit of the Gout, they are easier than if it had been a return of your late complaint, wch they had heard was partly the case; because they think the Gout, while in the Extreame parts is symptomatic of a good Constitution & Long life. I hope so.

I have not yet received the pedigree of the Liddell family from Mr Ellison. I have been with Isable Pattison, whose Testimony, I think will not afford any proof of relations[hi]p between the Fenwicks & Mrs Windsor. She says. she never knew any Sir Francis Liddells but one, & that he lived at Ogle & was about 60 years of age when he left that place to go & live at Stannerton with Parson Fenwick, who had married his Daughter Mary. She says she has heard that the s[ai]d S[i]r Francis's Lady came f[ro]m Bambroughshire. So that probably she was Relict of Nich[ola]s Forster, as men[t]ioned in the Eng[lish] Baronetage. I shall see Mr Coll[ingwoo]d Forster in a day or two, & will communicate to him what I have gathered f[ro]m this old woman.

Hon[ou]rd Sir

It is with much concern that I find your disorder still continues attended with such violent pain: but I hope the sweating & other Evacuations, tho they reduce your strength for the present will soon procure you Ease & health. I have acquainted Dr Lambert the acco[un]t you give of your illness & he will write you in a post or two.

I saw Mr C Forster last week & he thinks nothing satisfactory is yet obtained as to the relationship of the Fenwicks to the <Stotes>. It appears probable in deed that parson Fenwick did marry Mrs Mary Liddell & also that they were married at some place not far f[ro]m Ogle; because Sir Francis Liddell & his family never stirred much f[ro]m home, on acco[un]t of the badness of his circumstances. But if that marriage could be certified, it wo[ul]d amo[un]t to little unless that of S[i]r Francis with a Sister of S[i]r Richd. Stote co[ul]d also be proved; wch at present rests only upon tradition & the credibility of this Tradition is weakened by S[i]r R[ichard] Stote's making no mention of this marriage in the pedigree of his family, wch he gave into the Heralds office tho' he therein mentions to whom two of his Sisters were married. & further by the proof of S[i]r Fran[ci]s having married the daughter of S[i]r Geo. Tonge & also the Relict of Nich[ola]s Forster of Bambrough. I desired Mr Mosley to enquire of Johnson the militia man, but have had no Letter f[ro]m him yet. I have enquired of some old people at Redheugh but with no success, & I have heard nothing yet f[ro]m Mr Ellison ab[ou]t the pedigree of the Liddell family.

On the other side is a copy of Mr Wm. Newtons opinion abo[u]t Kenton Colliery for wch no further offers have yet been made. I am etc HR

Kenton Colliery I think is worth 15s. a ten accounting 22 wag[on]s to a ten, 19 bolls to a wag[o]n & 36 Gallons Winchester measure to the boll. Certain rent 400<g>. vizt. 200<g>. for a moiety- Such covenants as are usual in colliery Leases. Two years without any certain rent only paying for what coals are wro[ugh]t yearly in that time - it being supposed to take two years in Winning effectually.

Hon[ou]rd Sir

I am very glad to hear you are you are better & hope you will soon be able to walk without support. Since my last I met with Mr Ellison, but he co[ul]d tell me nothing further than Isable Pattison had done before, he says by the pedigree he has it appears, Sir Fra[nci]s Liddell had 2 sons & 2 daughters & that one of the daughters was mar[rie]d to Parson Fenwick & the other to R[ichar]d Heron. but as to his wife there is no mention of her name, nor does it appear that he was marr[rie]d more than once. R[ichar]d Johnsons acco[un]t, which I have just rec[iev]ed, is to the same effect, only he adds that the 2 sons dec[ease]d without issue & that Fra[nci]s Liddel the Eldest was a Lunatic. So that there is no evidence yet of S[i]r Franci]s Liddells marrying a Stote, wch is the Sine quo no. Parson Thompson, who is one of the Lecturers of Sandgate Chapel at £40 a year, is a dying & probably you will soon have applica[ti]on about it. I do not yet hear of any that stirr for it except Mr Aldersen. The magistrates I am told intend to consult you & Mr Ridley before they dispose of the place. The step taken at Durham by the Mr Gowland & his friends of making abo[u]t 300 honorary freemen in order to secure his Election against Gen[era]l Lambton is by many look'd upon as unconstitutional. My Father & I rejoice that you are so much better, & I am sure it will be a great satisfaction to everybody here to see you well again in Newcastle.

Inclosed is Jos Airey & Cos bill on Vere Glyn & Hallifax for £300 which you will please to advise the receipt of. My father rec[eiv]ed of Mr Robson Lady Loraines Money on the 28th of last month, out of wch £67.10s.0d was allowed for intrest. He did not emit you this money before because he understood you intended that this & Ogles money (wch is not yet paid) sho[ul]d replace in part the bills you took with you, in order that the miners at Allenheads & Coalcleugh might be p[ai]d ag[ain]st Xmas. The Stewards are now reckoning with them; but I fear there pays must be postponed, unless I bring more money on Saturday next f[ro]m Wallington than I at present expect.

As soon as there is any demand for Lead it will be necessary to sell. For the mills pay, wch can't be less than £3000, must if possible be made in March & we have no other means of making provision for that pay than by selling Lead. & yet to offer It before commissions arrive will precipitate the price, wch is already upon the decline, as Low as ever.

Mr. Harrison gives good hopes of high Coalcleugh vein f[ro]m her present appearance in the plate; but he says he must rise a sump into the sill before he can judge fully of her.

I do not doubt but Mr Pitt has been able to give such Reasons to the house for his conduct, as must satisfy all candid judges I am etc HR

Sir Wee have heard nothing further from Mr Brown about Kenton Colliery I am apt to believe that his proposal was on the behalf of a Gentleman in this Neighbourhood, who if Sir Walter & you were to engage with would give you trouble enough. Mr Brown hinted to me as if Mr Ald[er]man Bell was to be concerned, who would have been a very good tenant but when I mentioned it to him he declared he knew nothing of the matter. Sir Walter Before he went to London ordered me to take the opinion of some able viewer & on the other side you have copee of Mr Wm. Newtons opinion who I look upon to be the most experienced viewer here a very honest & disinterested man. & is well acquainted with the nature of the coal, & all circumstances relating to Kenton Colliery Sir Walter is very desirous of letting her, if any person of ability & character would offer any reasonable terms, She has been advertised some years ago, & it may be done again now if thought proper but is so well known, that when any of the Collieries that lay nearer the River are wro[ugh]t will Let to much better advantage, I saw Mr <King> this morning, & he desires me to let you know that he can't conveniently pay his Rent till the beginning of next month I am etc JR

I am glad to hear you are better & have been able to get on horseback.

The Wallington tenants paid last week as well as could be expected f[ro]m the Badness of the harvest & Fairs. & yet there remains above £2000 due f[ro]m them for arrears & last mayday rents. Most of them declared they have little prospect of paying you. & many of them want to be released f[ro]m their farms. The bills I paid at Wallington for mason work, carpenters work, turnpike roads, & on the house & stables acco[un]t etc amount to near £700, wch is so great a deduction f[ro]m the money I rec[iev]ed as makes the payment of Allanh[ea]ds & Coalcleugh miners ag[ain]st Xmas still depend upon Contingencies.

Mr Robson has this day paid my fa[the]r John Ogle's £300, wch he has charged in his cash account. And inclosed is Messrs Surtees & Burdons bill on Messrs Henton Brown & son for £300 wch please to advise the receipt of. This & Lady Loraines money, wch was remitted in my last Letter; is, I presume, what you expected "remained to be returned". I cannot tell when Miss Harbottle's money will be got, for she is obliged to send for a writ against the person that owes it her.

Mr Groptys box was at Wallington; but it is now sent by the London Carrier directed to Mrs Gropty in Mount Street. Inclosed is a copy of the receipt wch he gave for his wages.

Mr Robson will enquire at Ogle & Whalton about Sir Fran[ci]s Liddells wife.

Mr Collingwood told me this morning that all the Longbenton tenants, except him that had attorned to Lord Carlisle, have now attorned to S[i]r Robt. Bewicke & Mr Craister. but I cannot learn with certainty whether Jno. Brown of Kirkheaton has attorned to them.

My father has wrote Mr Wilson & sent him Mr Newtons opinion about the offers for Kenton Coll[ie]ry. Mr Newton is esteemed a man of ability & Integrity. his

I deferred writing anything more about Allanheads & Coalcleugh pays till I co[ul]d speak with certainty about them. I now find they can be made without your returning any money f[ro]m London; for Mr Harrison's paybill. wch we have just got, does not come to so much as we Expected. He gives no further acco[un]t of high Coalcleugh than I mentioned, Except that he hopes to rise to the sill about Candlem[a]s & to be able then to judge fully of her.

Your subscribing £4000 to the present Loan to the Government will undoubtedly be advantageous, provided you can get the payments made without suffering in your stock of Lead as much as you will gain by the stocks. You know that the Interest & Annuities go so deep into your income that the Residue is not sufficient for your other occasions, & that there are no other means here of providing for the calls upon your Subscription than by Selling Lead. But the Likelyhood of a Spanish war has given so great a check to the demand for It, that there is little prospect of selling enough to make the Mills pay in March, & less of selling so much as to do both that & fulfil your Subscription. But we will neglect no opportunity of Transmuting as much Lead as will answer these purposes, if it can be done without reducing the price.

Inclosed is a copy of a Tack note, in 1748, wch is the latest we have here.

I shall try to get further Information about Sir Fran[ci]s Liddells wife.

A Dispute has arisen between your agents in Weardale & Mr Bacons, wch like most others has some things clear & some involved in obscurity.

The Groves in Welhope Fell are all your own, & in Kilhope Fell adjoining there is a partners[hi]p mine called Cowhaust wch is what is called a Float, & wch as it has no Che<e>ks Mr Bacons agents claim an unlimited width for, while it continues in Kilhope Fell, but further, the boundary of these two Fells is not well ascertained. So that the points in dispute are the Boundary of the Fells & the width of Cowhaust mine. Again in Welhope Fell your Agents are working a Grove called Lingyhow, wch also is not a regular vein, but some what of the Float likewise: & as you are working it up tow[ar]ds this disputed boundary, Mr Bacons agents directed a shaft to be sunk to intercept these workings as soon as they sho[ul]d come into Kilhope fell & this shaft was sunk so far wide of all Cowhaust former workings as your agents think Mr Bacon cannot justify. & therefore it was ordered to be thrown in, to the end that Cowhaust mine might not hereafter be deemed to extend to so great a width, & because, upon a view of all your mine stewards, Lingyhow Grove is adjudged to be distinct f[ro]m Cowhaust & consequently Mr Bacon could have no right to sink the s[ai]d shaft upon the random of it, even in Kilhope Fell. Mr Bacons agents by way of reprizel, in the night, took away about Ten bings of ore f[ro]m Lingyhow Grove, at a place wch your agents say they can prove is in Welhope Fell. Upon this Mr Maughan was sent to Mr Bacon to learn whether he ordered the s[ai]d ore to be taken away, who said he knew nothing of the matter. but Mr Geo Davison, his chief agent, has since owned that it was so done by his (Davison's) order. However he has so far admitted the illegality of this proceeding as to agree that the s[ai]d ore shall be bro[ugh]t back to the Grove. And upon their doing this it is this day proposed among us, that, if it meets with your approbation, the other points shall be refered to Mr James Elliott Grove Steward to L[or]d Darlington on your behalf & to Mr Thos. Tweddle Grove Steward to the Quaker's Comp[an]y on Mr Bacons. If this is agreeable to you, you will please as soon as convenient to get his Lords[hi]p to write a Line to Mr Elliott allowing him to attend this reference. I imagine you will hear from Mr Bacon about this.

I shall enquire if any clergyman hereabouts wants a curate. I don't know of anything that requires your coming into the North at present. I have given Wm. Ireland directions abo[u]t the pineplants for Mr Ridley & am etc Hen Richmond

The poll for the city of Durham ended last night when the number for Major Gowland was 775 & for Gen[era]l Lambton 752 so that the former will be returned. As Major Gowland has polled 214 of his honorary Freemen it will certainly occasion a petition to parliament on behalf of the General. But whatever may be the fate of this return, those here, who wish well to our Constitution, wo[ul]d be glad to have the door shut, by an Act of Parliament, ag[ain]st any further practices of this sort, as they will apparently make the representation even of great Cities & Towns corporate depend on the sentiments of a Few.

Hon[ou]rd Sir

Edw[ar]d Fenwicks pedigree, as given to you at first, was <....[ripped]> his g[ran]f father married Mary, Daughter of Sir Fra[nci]s Liddell whose wife was <....[ripped]> to Sir Richd. Stote. But it is now removed a degree further back. For Mr Robson writes That he & Mr Scott who mar[rie]d Ed Fenwicks Sister, have learned that Sir Fra[nci]s Liddell mar[rie]d Eliz the Daug[the]r of Sir George Tong & that it was Sir Geo Tong who mar[rie]d Sir R[ichar]d Stotes Sister. This descent will still be preferable to Sir Robt Bewicks & Mr Craister's, if any proof co[ul]d be given of it. But I have enquired here & searched the parish registers, & have also employed an Attorney at Durham to enquire abo[u]t Sr. Geo Tong (who lived at Denton in that County) & to examine the registers of the parish in wch Denton lyes & also to search for his will or any Lres [Letters] of adminis[tratio]n in the office at Durham. And all I have obtained in favour of this new pedigree is only Hearsay, collected by Mr Scott & Mr Robson.

Against wch the following Facts appear 1st. Sir R[ichar]d Stote on the 25 Aug[u]st 1666 certifies to the Colledge of Arms a pedigree of his family, & sets forth that his Sister Barbara was married to Rich[ar]d Hodgshon of Whickham & his Sister Ann to Wm. Comandale merch[an]t but makes no mention of St. Geo Tongs having married any relation of his.

2dly In the parish register of St. Nicholas in this town I find that on the 7th December 1635 Mr. George Tong married Barbara Carre (who appears to be the Daug[ht]er of Ralph Carre merch[ant]). Now if this was the Sr. Geo. Tong (For he might afterwards be Knighted) It must be shewn that he had another wife before or after this Barbara & that she was a Sister of Sr R[ichar]d Stotes, notwithstanding the silence of the above certificate. And if it be alledged, as from the Enquiry at Durham appears more probable, That it was this Mr Geo Tongs father who was the Sir George; then I think a greater difficulty, if not an Impossibility <.....> occur ag[ain]st Edwd Fenwicks claim under Him. For from Sr Nichs <regi[ster]> it appears that Sr Richd Stote's father married Jane Bewick on the 14 Ap[ril] 1618 & that his Eldest Daug[the]r Eleanor was baptized the 24 October 1619, but di[ed] before she was 15 y[ea]rs old. That his 2nd daug[the]r Mary was not baptized till 7 December 1628 & died within the year & That his 3rd Daug[the]r Marg[are]t was baptized the 27 December 1629 & consequently co[ul]d not be mar[rie]d to the s[ai]d Sr. Geo Tong, so as to have a Daug[hte]r marriageable before or in the y[ea]r 1656. & yet, by Mr. Ellison of Parkhouse's Minute, Sir Fra[nci]s Liddell had mar[rie]d Elizth Daug[the]r of Sr Geo Tong before or in that y[ea]r. Besides, if better Evidence than Hearsay should be procured about this marriage of Sr Geo Tongs with Sir R[ichar]d Stotes Sister, & all the difficulties wch occur, as above, were removed: yet there wo[ul]d still remain so many others abo[u]t the marriage of Sr Fra[nci]s Liddell with Eliz Daug[the]r of Sr. Geo Tong; & about the marriage of Edw[ar]d Fenwicks Grandfather with Mary Daug[the]r of Sr. Fra[nci]s Liddell; as wo[ul]d make a legal proof of the s[ai]d Edw[ar]d Fenwicks descent from Sr. R[ichar]d Stote almost to be despaired ag[ains]t.

I was told the other day that Mr Geo Surtees of Mensforth has purchased a part of Sr Geo. Tongs Estate; & therefore have desired a Gent[leman] who has some Acquaintance with him to enquire whe[ther] he has any deeds that mention the name of Sr Geo Tongs wife? If any thing material is met with I shall im[m]ediately let you know it. I am etc HR

24 Dec 1761 Henry Richmond to Nicholas Halhead

To Nich[olas] Halhead Esqr. in Durham Newcastle 24th December 1761

Sir

On Fryday last I rec[iev]ed your Favour of the 14th inst in answer to my Letter of the 13th Octo[be]r inclosing the Depositions.

I observe you say the present moor masters Lease is dated the 29th Aug[ust] 1732 but it is dated the 6th April 1750, having been renewed with Bishop Charles in London, & the Lives are all in being.

With regard to what you say about the two Leases of Weardale mines, I agree, That in the moor master's Lease there is an Exception of "certain Leadmines which were formerly granted to William Hall Esqr. & afterwards to Barbara Sanderson Widow". But what those Leadmines were may at this day be difficult to prove, since Hall himself; tho' possessed of a Lease of the Inclosures in the same Terms as the present did never obtain Enjoyment of any mines. And neither He, nor Sanderson, nor her assignee did ever make good against the moor ma[ster] any right to any mines in Weardale.

But whatever Disputes upon this point may hereafter happen between the possessors of these two Leases in case they should ever fall into different hands; most certainly such Disputes cannot be prejudicial to the Rights of the See of Durham, tho' they may to Its Revenue. Because 1st. If the Bounds of the moormasters Lease should be straitned by taking from it the inclosures, He will in many cases find it not worth his while engaging in expensive Levels & workings for the winning of veins, part whereof will belong perhaps to the Lessee of these Inclosures. 2dly. The boundary of the moor ma[ster]s Lease, & the method & Liberty of working would Then in many cases become uncertain & disputeable & upon every occasion almost, proof would be necessary of what were antient & what modern Inclosures; & during these contentions such workings wo[ul]d stand still. 3dly. As a Lease for three Lives, often times more from Fancy & an opinion of the Goodness of the Lives inserted than from the greater Length of the Term, is found to give better Encouragement to mine adventurers than a Lease of 21 y[ea]rs so the moor ma[ster]s while he is allowed to consider these inclosures as held under his Lease will undoubtedly, as Sr Wr Blacketts Ancestors & himself have done Expend larger sums & carry forwards the workings in these inclosures in a more Extensive manner than if the mines therein were held only under a Lease for 21 years: great part of which is often spent before the vein is effectually won. 4thly. Tho' Sr Wr Blacketts Ancestors, since the cessation of former Disputes, have advanced the Lot Ore from £100 to £350 a year; yet of the above mentioned Limitation, Contentions & Discouragements were to recur, it is most probable that the annual value of that Lot would decrease considerably, as the workings wo[ul]d thereby be Lessened both in the Fells & in the inclosures. And Lastly Because the Fine on renewing the moor ma[ste]rs Lease must be Lessened in proportion to the mines taken from It, & to the difficulties laid upon the enjoyment of such as shall be left under it.

I hope you will excuse these conjectures; & if you think I judge partially, at least believe that I mean well. For as I see by former transactions, That this Lease of the inclosures has been kept on foot by the moor ma[ste]rs since 1684 for peace sake, as they obtained the renewals for sometime without any Fine & afterwards for but a small one: So I am inclined to believe that the same measure will still be most advantageous both to His L[or]ds[hi]p & to Sr Walter Blackett. You know that Sir Wr is willing to pay as great a Fine as has ever been paid for renewing this Lease. Nay that he is not inclined to stand with His Lords[hi]p about a Trifle. And yet notwithstanding this Disposition has been expressed more than once, a conclusion seems as remote as Ever I am your etc Hen Richmond.

Sir I rec[iev]ed the favour of your Lre last post advising your receipt of mine of the 11th inst. I am sorry I sho[ul]d have given you so much trouble, wch I hope you will excuse as the bill was at so short a date. Mr James King has built nothing at Kenton but a Cottage for a tenant that has taken his share of the West farm & he seems to have laid aside the thoughts of building any thing more. What they build is meanly done & badly designed, just to serve their present purpose & will be of little or no advantage to the Estate when the Lease expires. If any of them sho[ul]d apply to you for a Building Lease & desire you to contribute tow[ar]ds the Expence they sho[ul]d mention the place & send you a plan of what they design & the work sho[ul]d be done under your direction. If you please to send your Letters to me under a cover, directed for Sr Wr Blackett to be left with me I shall get them free of postage. I wish you many happy years & am etc Jos Richmond

P.S. I am sorry you sho[ul]d have given yourself so much trouble abo[u]t Andrew Richardsons money. I expected it was to have been bro[ugh]t to you. If you receive it, place it to my acco[un]t & let me know what it is when the charges are deducted that I may pay his mother. I should be glad to find that Sr. Wm. Blackett was by order of Court in 1684 to have been pl[ain]t[iff] in the issue then directed to be tried abo[u]t the Leadmines. Because I see by his Lres that he was ab[ou]t that time anxious to get the matter settled with Mr Wharton by selling him his Lease of the Inclosures for £200 less than it cost him I am etc JR

Mr Wm Featherston died on Wednesday night of a Dropsy. People speak variously of the circumstances in wch he has left his family: & therefore as he owed you £135 for 4 & ½ years rent for Kenton Hall, Stone Close, etc due at Martin[ma]s last I desire to know whether you will allow the Hay & Horses which are now there to be removed before this sum is paid, or sufficient security given for it. I am informed Mrs Featherston will take administra[tio]n, as there is no will; & that Mr Ab[raha]m Dixon intends to assist her in settling her affairs.

Allanheads & Coalcleugh pays, wch came to £4179.14s.2d were made on the 17th inst. And my father has remitted Mr Darwin £335.8s.0d on acco[un]t of the Quarterly payments to be made in London.

It seems now to be the General opinion that Mr Featherston's Effects will not be sufficient to pay his Debts. Therefore, as there is at present Enough upon the farm at Kenton to pay you & as in case an Execution sho[ul]d come ag[ain]st the Goods there you would only get one y[ea]rs rent out of the 4 & ½ y[ea]rs rent due at Martin[ma]s you will please to consider whether or no a Distress sho[ul]d be made?

Mr John Cookson tells me that it is not Mr Dixon but himself that is to assist Mrs Featherston, & that Mr Stewart is to collect the acco[un]t of the debts.

I find by him, ie Mr Cookson, that the debts already known amount to above £10000 & that he does not think there will be enough to pay the cred[ito]rs. Please therefore to consider whe[the]r it is proper to secure to yourself that preference wch you are intitled to as Landland [Landlord], by seizing the hay & horses upon your farm at Kenton, or you will rather take an uncertain divid[en]d with the rest of the creditors. If the horses were to be seized I imagine the other cred[ito]rs wo[ul]d join in paying or securing your rent, rather than suffer you to proceed to sale- for tho they value the horses there at above £1000 probably in such a sale they wo[ul]d not fetch above a quar[te]r of that valuation Mr Dixon's & Mr Shafto of Dunston's debts amount to about 7000 all upon no better security than Bonds & notes, as Mr Cookson says he beleives I am etc HR

Hon[ou]rd Sir

I am sorry we cannot at present remit any more money nor pay the the dra[ugh]ts you propose to Mr Bell without putting off the mills pay, wch I suppose you wo[ul]d not chuse. I wrote you sometime ago that this pay wch sho[ul]d be made in March, wo[ul]d come to £3000 but f[ro]m the acco[un]ts wch are now sent in I judge it will amo[un]t to £4000. Mr Maughan computes that there is above £7000 due to the Weardale miners at Xmas last. When we shall be able to pay this sum is impossible to say; since the demand for Lead appears to be quite over, f[ro]m the likelihood of a Spanish war. I am afraid this additional war will lay you under many difficulties: But of These you can judge as well as we.

I acquainted Mr H Wilkinson some time ago of what you wrote about Mrs Vasey.

As to Mr. Featherston's debt, I sho[ul]d have made the distress yesterday morn[in]g but was informed (by Mr Widdrington) that there were some niceties about the manner of doing it, on acco[un]t of the assign[en]t f[ro]m Mr Swinburn to him; & some other points. & therefore have taken Mr Fawcets opinion, wch tomorrow will be pursued.

Mr. Halhead has at last returned the copy of the depositions; But seems steady in his opinion that the stinted pastures must be deemed to be held under the Lease for Y[ea]rs unless you can prove the inclosure of them to have been made since the granting of Halls Lease. I find he knew nothing of the renewal of the Moor masters Lease in 1750, for he speaks of the present Lease as dated in 1732 tho' it was renewed with B[isho]p Chandler in London upon an Exchange of Mrs Bruces Life in 1750 of wch I have informed him. If they have no acco[un]t of this renewal in their office, it must have been the Fault of B[isho]p Chandlers Secretary. I do not know of any thing that requires your coming into the North at this season, unless you think that your health will be benefited by the journey.

It was agreed upon as a preliminary, that the ore taken away f[ro]m your Grove called Lingybrow in the night time by Mr Davison's order should be bro[ugh]t back. I am told this is not yet done; & therefore desire to know whether we are to insist upon its being done before the Referees meet I am etc HR

Hon[ou]rd Sir Pursuant to your directions, of securing the rent due from the late Mr Featherston in the civilest manner, I put off distraining till Mr John Cookson came to Town on Monday: when I acquainted him of what was intended, & desired that, if proper security co[ul]d not be given, such horses might be pointed out to be seized as would be sufficient for your rent & least prejudicial to the assets. He desired I might not do anything till he consulted with some other persons concerned. & yesterday he gave me His promisory note for £135 payable to you at Mayday next, being in full for the 4 and ½ y[ea]rs rent due at Martin[ma]s last; a copy of wch note is on the other side. I accepted this security, as I was of opinion is [it] wo[ul]d be sufficient & more agreeable to you than a seizure & sale of the Race horses probably much under their Reputed worth among the Gentlemen of the Bridle; by some of whom they are valued at £1600. Sir

In our last conversation about the Tack wch you wanted Sir Walter Blackett to grant you of a Lead mine that you were not willing to name or point out, I told you that provided it was not in Kilhope Fell & provided it was not any mine wrought hitherto, nor cuts off, nor interferes with any present workings, Sir Walter was willing to grant It. And that one thing more, necessary to be known, was whether the mine you have in view is in Weardale or hexhamshire. Because if it is in Weardale, that is, either in the parish of Stanhope or Wolsingham, then Mr Thomas Maughan of Newhouse has orders to treat about the said tack. But if it is in Hexhamshire then either Mr Caleb Hunter of Allanheads or Mr Rich[ar]d Harrison of Coalcleugh must be applied to. For we here cannot judge completely of the matter.

I am glad to find by your letter, that the said mine is not in Kilhope Fell but wish you had mentioned in what Fell it does lye because then I could have told wch of Sir Wrs mine stewards sho[ul]d be applied to & co[ul]d have wrote to him directly. I can only say, at present, that f[ro]m what you told me I understood the said mine was in Weardale, & therefore gave directions to Mr Maughan, by Sir Wrs order, to conclude & grant a Tack when the above & such other Terms as are usual I am etc HR

At Mayday next you will have had Mr Fenwicks £2000 four years the int[e]r[es]t paid him at first was 4 p[er] c[en]t; but f[ro]m Mayday 1760 it was advanced to 4 ¼ & f[ro]m Mayday last to 4 ½. The pres[en]t situation of affairs < & ray> make it prudent to comply with the further advance to 4 ¾ p[er] c[en]t provided he will let it remain quietly for the term of 5 years. but his requiring you to be bound for so long a time & himself at Liberty to call for his money or a further advance of int[e]r[es]t is very unreasonable. And yet there is no way to pay him off that I know of, except you were to defer paying Weardale mines.

Inclosed herewith is a copy of Mr Halheads Lre when he returned me the depositions; by wch it appears that nothing less will satisfy him than your admitting that all the Mines in the Inclosures in Weardale are held under the Lease for years. If you were to admit what Mr Halhead here requires, then I am very sure you co[ul]d not afford to pay the £150 a y[ea]r certain rent for the mines that would remain to you as Moorma[ste]r and if his L[or]ds[hi]p was only to require you to admit that all antient inclosures, i.e. such as were inclosures at the time of granting Halls Lease were held under this Lease for Years, then so many difficulties & disputes would arise about what were antient & what modern inclosures, as would render both Leases of less value than they are at present both to his Lords[hi]p & you. I thought it right to set the matter in this light before Mr Halhead, & inclosed is a copy of the Lre I wrote him. While the pretensions on acco[un]t of this Lease for y[ea]rs are so Exorbitant I doubt it will signify little to propose giving up any particular inclosures, & fear that whatever might be so proposed to his L[or]ds[hi]p would only serve as certain ground for Mr Halhead to stand on while he disputed for the Rest. besides I cannot discover from the depositions what Inclosures ought to be admitted to belong to the Lease for years. Indeed if his Lords[hi]p would agree to the sinking of this Lease into the Moor ma[ster]s Lease by virtue of an Act of Parliament, upon reasonable terms, it would put an End to these difficulties & might be an advantage to both you & him. But I apprehend the affair will not admit of such a Conclusion while his L[or]ds[hi]p seems to consider this Lease for Years as the principal Lease by wch you hold Weardale mines. It would become so in Effect if Mr Halhead was to obtain what he is claiming for It. I am etc HR

Sir

Sir Walter has got L[or]d Darlington's Leave for Mr Elliot to attend the Reference about the dispute with Mr Bacon.

I expected before this to have heard something f[ro]m you about this affair. I mean 1st whe[the]r the ore was brought back; for without that, you know, you are not to agree to the Referees meeting 2dly. what points you & Mr Harrison think ought to be refered. This, you remember, I wanted to have had ascertained when he & you were here for the money for the pays, but he chose to have another view first. If this is not yet done pray write to Mr Harrison & get your opinions upon it put into writing, for Sir Wr wants it. He says he will have nothing refered that is Evidently his Right, or that can probably be maintained to be so. There are two points wch f[ro]m the first I have been of opinion Mr Bacon co[ul]d have no Right to. 1st. to take away the ore from Lingy brow Grove wch had been wrought by Sir Wr; & to take it in the night time too! 2dly. to sink the shaft 7 or 8 fathoms wide of any of the former workings of Cowhaust vein, or any drift driven to demonstrate that That vein or Float extended to such a Breadth. If this was to be submitted to, he would of course have a right to sink where he pleases. These two points therefore are not to be at all refered. There are two others wch were talked of as proper to be submitted to the Referees. 1st whether the Boundary of Kilhope & Welhope Fells is up the Ridge or up the Greensike from the Bounder Shaft. 2dly. Whether Lingy brow Grove, after she comes into Kilhope Fell, is distinct f[ro]m Cowhaust, or any part of her falls down into that Float and if so, then whe[the]r Sir Wr ought not to have a greater proportion of the ore after such junction, than one half. But this last point, you know, was what Mr Harrison wanted to have a further consideration of before he could give his opinion whether it ought to be refered. that is, he wanted to see whether it is clear that Lingy brow is distinct f[ro]m Cowhaust in Kilhope Fell. For if it is, then this point must not be referred neither if otherwise it may be referred.

I desire your ans[we]r hereto as soon as possible. PS Candlemas was the time limited for the Referees to make an End of this affair. I am etc HR

Hon[ou]rd Sir

Mr Davison, whom I saw last week, said he thought the ore had been brought back, & promised. if it was not done already, it sho[ul]d be done directly. On the 15th of last month I desired Mr Harrison to join Mr Maughan in considering what points were proper to be laid before the Referees, & that they wo[ul]d both take care that nothing wch was clearly your Right, was submitted to Their decision.

If Weardale pays can be made any time before mids[umme]r it will satisfy the people. We got 4000 p[iece]s of Lead sold towards It just before the declaration of war ag[ain]st Spain; & hope, if the arrears & last Mart[ims]s Rents are tolerably well paid up at the next collection, & your own Occasions do not require any large sums, that we may be able to make these pays before that time. But the prospect beyond That is not agreeable; especially as the Int[e]r[es]t & annual payments stand so thick & require so much punctuality.

As to the Terms upon wch the Lease for Y[ea]rs may be sunk into the Lease for Lives: I believe, if you were to offer his L[or]ds[hi]p £30 a year additional Rent to the £150 wch you pay as Moor Ma[ste]r, He wo[ul]d slight the proposal: And yet, It would be equal to offering him a Fine of £420. That being the pres[en]t worth of £30 a y[ea]r for 21 years. If you were to offer his L[or]ds[hi]p £50 a year, That would, by the same computation, be equal to a Fine of £700. & besides you would have the charge of the Act of Parliament to pay. But it is principally to be considered, that the increasing the certain Rent of £150 a year will be found very Inconvenient in case the Groves sho[ul]d fail, or you be obliged to lay in many of them on acco[un]t of the Lot & Tithe being taken in kind after the Expiration of the pres[en]t composition.

Sir

Those who are placed in different Stations see objects in different lights; and so you think Sir Wr Blacketts Agents are blameable for what they think they are justifiable in.

For my part, I acknowledge, I cannot see that any opportunity of renewing the Lease for years upon reasonable Terms has yet been let slip. Nor do I think such an opportunity could ever present itself while your declaration remains "That the Fine is to be computed upon a supposition that Sir Wr Blackett may hereafter gain £4500 a y[ea]r" by mines wch my Father shewed Sir Wr had only gained £218.10s.0d a y[ea]r by, at a medium for 30 y[ea]rs past. Neither do I think such an opportunity co[ul]d offer while you insisted that Sir Wr sho[ul]d allow all the stinted pastures to belong to this Lease for y[ea]rs by wch nothing wo[ul]d be left under the moor masters Lease, except three Fells; Or at least insisted that Sir Wr sho[ul]d shew what Inclosures did belong & what did not belong to the said Lease. A Description not at all in his power to make. But as you now say, in your Letter of the 15th inst, that you are able from indubitable authority to remove all doubt what Those mines are, one great step seems to be made towards an Agreement. And as I dare say it will be a satisfaction to Sir Walter Blackett to find that you can show This, & you are so good as to say you will do it when I come to Durham: I shall make it my Business to wait upon you there very soon. & in the mean time assure you I shall be very glad to find that the apprehensions wch I had, that the uncertainty of the Boundary between the two Leases might' upon the supposition I put, occasion continual disputes, were groundless: & consequently that any conjectures about any prejudice which might arise there from to the Revenue of the B[isho]ps of Durham were so too I am etc HR

I have just now rec[eiv]ed your Lre of the 18th inst & think you are right as to the points wch are proper to be refered. However it will be better to have Mr Harrisons opinion joined with yours & reduced into writing for Sir Walters Satisfaction. I am sorry they have not yet got the ore bro[ugh]t back; however as the weather will not, you say permit them to do it now, it must be left to you to give them such further time as you think reasonable & will not prejudice the working of Lingybrow Grove; for Sir Wr ought not to be restrained much longer f[ro]m sending away the ore f[ro]m that Grove. But you are a very good judge of this point. Therefore as soon as the ore is sent back proceed to the reference upon such points as you & Mr Harrison settle; excepting only the two wch I mentioned in my last.

I must desire you will, as soon as you can conveniently, let me have an acco[un]t of what Fells & stinted pastures are inclosed, & what are not; And in order to Enable you to do this accurately I have put down the names of the Fells & Hopes, on the other side: I mean the antient names of them, such as I find them expressed by in the Depositions; & wch I hope they are known by at this day. Any of these Fells & stinted pastures that you think are antient inclosures I wo[ul]d have you mention to be supposed to be so: & such of them as are modern I desire you will express to be so: & put down, so far as you think you can proving by living Evidence the time when you believe they were inclosed; or in other words, how many years ago it is believed, or remembered such inclosures were made. Also where any part of these Fells have been taken in, proceed in the same manner. Newca 23rd January 1762

Inclosed is a copy of a Lre I rec[eiv]ed f[ro]m Mr. Halhead & of what I wrote him in return. I waited on him at Durham on Wednesday last to see the Indubitable authority wch he mentioned & found it was no more than the Enrolment of the Lease of the inclosures to Wm. Hall in 1661, exactly in the same words as the pres[en]t Lease of the inclosures to you, & that his reasoning upon this Enrolm[en]t was, That Halls Lease being expected out of the Moor Ma[ste]rs Lease, his L[or]ds[hi]ps producing the said enroled Lease was a suff[icien]t proof of what belonged to It, namely; "All the mines within the parks of Stanhope & Wolsingh[a]m & within the Lands Closes & inclosed Grounds of all & singular the copyholders Leasors ten[an]ts for y[ea]rs & customary tenants of the B[isho]p of Durham in Weardale".

In answer to this I told him, that his L[or]ds[hi]ps producing this enroled Lease to Hall co[ul]d at most only show that it was such inclosures as were actually made before or on the year 1661 that were Then granted to Hall. But that this enrolled Lease no way contributed towards ascertaining what inclosures are so antient as 1661. I added that this was the point in question & wch I supposed wo[ul]d occasion continual disputes in case of a separation of the two Leases. He replyed that, if such a case sho[ul]d happen, the disputes between the two Lessees wo[ul]d no way concern his L[or]ds[hi]p & they might adjust them as well as they could. After talking with him near two hours his final determination was, That all the inclosed Grounds in Weardale, wch his L[or]ds[hi]p had the Royalty of, belonged to the Lease for y[ea]rs Except such as you could prove were made since 1661. I told him you co[ul]d not prove this for no Living Evidence co[ul]d go far enough back to do justice in this point, and besides this was requiring you to take a difficulty upon you, wch I was satisfied wo[ul]d, whenever such proof was requisite, lye upon another. He said, However, till this point is settled it will be to no purpose adjusting any other matters relative to the Fine. For his L[or]ds[hi]p must know the premes before he can tell the value of Them. During our Conversation he mentioned one piece of information, wch he said he had rec[eiv]ed, that made great impression upon me; which was, that too much was granted to you, & that more ore wo[ul]d be raised in Weardale if the mines There were in more hands than one. He said he had this from persons who co[ul]d have no interest to serve in telling him so; & that he only mentioned it to let me see what some people thought of this affair. I have acquainted Mr Widdrington of Mr Halheads demand; & his opinion is, that the Exception in the Moor Masters Lease extends no further than to what was actually granted to Hall, which could at most be only the Inclosures Then made. But Hall himself did not claim so much, For in his deposition in 1684 he says that what he held by vertue of the said Lease way such inclosures as were made before the Time of memory. And further owns that a verdict was obtained against him in 1666 by Mr Wharton for working in an inclosure; but alledges that the said verdict went against him only because such inclosure had been made within the time of memory. Mr Widdrington therefore thinks that it is not possible for you or anybody, at this say to say what are the particular inclosures that belong to the Lease for years, & that the only reasonable Explanation that can be obtained of the Exception in the Moor Masters Lease is this Testimony of Mr Halls and consequently that there is no way to avoid disputes but to keep the two Leases united I am etc H Richmond

Mr Fenwick of Bywel, or some person properly authorized by him will, I expect call upon you soon about taking the Tack of a Leadmine; but they don't chuse to mention the place where it lyes, tho' I think they ought at least to mention the Fell. This is so Loose a way of letting a Tack that I think it will be necessary for you to insert such limitations as the following, to wit In any place in Weardale belonging to Sir Wr B]lacke]tt as Moor Master, except Killhope Fell; provided the said Leadmine or vein has not been wro[ugh]t hitherto nor cuts off nor interferes with any Leadmine or vein hitherto wrought; & if you also limit them to so many yards in length f[ro]m the first shaft they sink & so many yards on each side of the vein, & restrain them from hushing except with the Licence of Sir Wr Blackett or his chief agent for the Leadmines in Weardale. I think they cannot any way prejudice Sir Wr. These are such provisions as occur to me; but you can judge better what is necessary in this case than I can. Hon[ou]rd Sir

I have just now heard that the mail wch was dispatched last night from the post office here with the Newcastle Letters for London was lost in Birtley Lane: of which Accident I think it necessary to acq[uain]t you as I was told Jack Smith bro[ugh]t some Letters f[ro]m Wallington for London I am etc HR

1 Mar 1762 Henry Richmond to William Darwin

To Mr Wm. Alvey Darwin at his Chamber in Grays Inn London
Newcastle the 1st March 1762

Sir

On Saturday last I sent you by Fryer Todd the London Carrier a large Box of plate, the contents of which you have on the other side; you will also receive from the said Carrier a small Box wch contains the key of the large one. Sir Walter bid me send this plate to you & said he would write you himself what he would have done with it. You will please to advise either him or me of its coming safe; & pray the Carriage of the same agreeable to the inclosed promisory Note signed by the said Carrier. I have weigh'd this plate as near as our Scales will go but probably a Goldsmith who can weigh the whole at once will make it an ounce or two more than I have done. As to the value of the Silver it will be worth by the ounce as much as Spanish pieces of Eight, the market price of which you can always see by Lloyds Lists: & this without reckoning anything for workmanship.

As there is still no Likelyhood of getting a renewal of the Lease for years of Weardale mines, I should be glad to know whether Sir Walter when he entered upon the Receipt of the rents & profits of the Trust Estate about the year 1731 & 1732 did lay himself or his representatives under any obligations to renew & keep on Foot all the Leaves of the mines. if any such Agreement or decree was made you will certainly find some traces of it among Mr. Denton's paper's. My father say's he cannot remember certainly whether anything of this sort was done or not.

I have great reason to conclude that a decree was made between the 13 May 1693 & 28 December 1694 in favour of Mr Wharton in the Cause B[isho]p of Durham against Wharton for detaining the L[ea]d Ore & non pay[men]t of the Moor Masters rent. upon account of the injury done the said Moore Master by the B[isho]p's granting the Lease for years to B[arbar]a Sanderson. I desire you will search for this Decree & send me some little abstract or minute of it if you can procure the same ; for it may be a usefull precedent if a renewall cannot be obtained upon reasonable Terms. I am

Sir Your most hble Serv[an]t Hen Richmond

NB it appears by Mr Darwins Lre of the 23rd March 1762 that the Goldsmiths weighed this Silver plate to 4060 $\frac{3}{4}$ oz & that the value of it, at the different prices allowed for the same, amounted to £1137.2s.0d.

Sir I am sorry to find by you[r] Letter of the 7th inst that you charge Mr Maughan with using undue influence over Mr Elliott in the Reference occasioned by the dispute between Sir Walter Blackett & Mr Bacon about Cowhaust and Lingybrow Groves and the Boundary of Kilhope & Welhope Fells. As all Sir Walter Blacketts Agents know very well that every unfair proceeding wou[l]d be disagreeable to him, I can hardly think Mr. Maughan wou[l]d in this affair go further than giving the necessary Information to Sir Walter's Referee. And yet on the other hand I can scarce think you wou[l]d without some reason complain so much of ill usage. I am therefore at a loss what answer to give at present to your Letter further than I will enquire particularly into this matter as soon as I see Mr Maughan. Indeed I have a Letter from Mr Elliott wherein he gives his opinion upon the point, you say you differ[e]d about, with so much clearness, & supports the same with such reasoning as does not at all look like his having acted under Influence, but from Judgement. This morning I waited upon chief Baron Ord at Fenham with the Deeds wch were in your Secretere, relating to Ord Estate and his Lor[d]s[hi]ps Opinion upon the 2nd observation mentioned in Mr Darwins Letter (wch is herewith inclosed) is that, as Circumstances now stand, Mr. Darwin is in the right in proposing to have the deeds of 1716 & the Fine & recovery then suffered, appear in the abstract. But the manner <page torn> appear therein cannot be settled till the deeds of 1716 wch < page torn > Darwin has, are seen, & the Effects thereof considered. His Lordship says he will be in London in ten Days & will give any assistance in his power. As Mr Darwin mentions in his Lre that he has a copy of the deeds of 1733 I imagine it will not be necessary to send the deeds themselves to London. If it shou[l]d I shall send them by the first Carrier on Mr Darwin's writing for them.

I received by Jack Smith a Box containing part of the dressing plate so much I suppose as Sr Wr ordered to be packed up to be sent to London; whither I sent it by yesterday's Carrier

Monday, that is, tomorrow fortnight I expect there will be a meeting at Wallington of Sr Robt Bewicke Mr Colld Forster &c to do something about the Kirkheaton affair. This is the day talked of at present, & wch I think it proper to apprize that you may not be from home that Week if you can help it. Mr Forster is wrote to, to know if that day will suit him, or what other day he would rather choose & as soon as the dayes fixed you will have an accot of it. To Sir Wr. Blackett Bt. M.P. at the Cocoa tree in Pall Mall London
Newcastle 28th March 1762

Hon[ou]rd Sir

I have been told today that Sir Robt. Bewicke has determined upon accepting Kirkheaton Estate upon the Terms wch Mr. Collingwood, Mr Coll[ingwoo]d Forster & Mr Widdrington talked over one day last week; & left with Sir Robt for his consideration. The substance of wch, I understand, is that Sir <Ro..> & Mr Craster are to give bonds of indemnity, are to allow all your costs <.....> are to dismiss the bill filed against you, & to please the tenants, if the giving them Their discharge for all rent & arr[ea]rs to May day last & returning them all the money wch they have paid, excepting the costs, will please them so that Sir Robt. is to enter upon the Estate as from

May day last, & the ten[an]ts are, on receiving his bonds of indemnity to give you up yours & the receipts given them for rent paid to you. But by this adjustment the money wch you will have to pay Sir Robt. or else to repay the tenants immediately will amount to above £600 which is so large a sum as will retard the payment of Weardale Miners a little, because we did not expect this draught upon us on such a sudden. However, if you are inclined to be now clear of this affair in the manner which Mr Forster proposes, it will be proper, if you please, by the return of the post to signify your approbation of our paying to Sir Robt, or refunding to the tenants, all or such part of the rents, which they have paid to you, as Mr Coll[ingwoo]d Forster shall settle. P.S. The affair is proposed to be transacted at Wallington if it is agreeable to you, on Monday the 12th of next month I am etc HR

Sir

I sent you last Saturday by Fryer Todd the London Carrier a Box of dressing plate; a List of which you have on the other side; and in the same Box you will find wrapt up in oil cloth the Lease and Release of 2nd and 3rd April 1733 and the Fine and Recoveries which were levied in consequence thereof, all which Sir Walter Blackett wrote me to send to you and I shall beg lad to hear you receive them safe. if so please to pay for the carriage of the Box agreeably to Mr Todds promisory note which is herewith inclosed. I am glad the Silver plate which I sent you before has turn[e]d out more, both in weight and value, than I computed it at. I suppose I had made too great an allowance for the handles and the turn of the scale on the severall weighings which I was obliged to make. Sir Walter will I think soon get clear of the Kirkheaton affair, upon the Terms settled by Mr Forster Mr Widdrington and Mr Collingwood: the substance of which, as I understand, is that Sir Robert Bewicke and Mr Chaster are to give Bonds of indemnity. to allow all Sir Walters costs. to dismiss the Bills filed ag[ain]st Sir Wr and the tenants. and are to do, or allow Sir Wr. to do, something handsome for the tenants out of the Rents they have paid Sir Wr. The 12th of <next> month tis intended to adjust all these Articles if nothing intervenes.

To Sir Walter Blackett Barot. M.P. at the Cocoa tree in Pall Mall London
Newca 30th March 1762

Hon[our]d Sir :

On Saturday last I sent by Fryer Todd the London Carrier, the box of Dr<missing, torn> directed to Mr Darwin within which I have put the Lease and Release 2nd of April 1733 and the Fines and Recoveries which were levied in consequence thereof and have advised Mr Darwin accordingly.

Inclosed is the paper about Chollerton Chancel which you left with me <torn> bid me send and write something about. I have therefore informed myself <as> well as I can, without going to Council, and find it ought not to be expected to contribute towards to the repair of the Chollerton Chancel in proportion to the present improved value of the Tithes of Chipchase and Birtley. But in proportion only to the modus of £4.6s.8d which you receive in lieu of the great Tithes of those Estates. As to the Owner of these Estates; it does not appear that his paying you this modus will exempt him from contributing, towards the repair of the chancel, in proportion to the present improved value of his Ti<thes> Because, tho' modus's may be deemed to have been originally the full <.....> of the Tithes, and tho' the payment of them may have been established by custom or composition; yet these being only private transactions for the benefit of the parson or Impropiator and the Owner of the Estate, they cannot, if <.....> Andrews' Opinion in Law, dissolve the connection between the Right of Tithe and the charge of repairing the chancel. And the very Payment of a modus implies that there is such a Right of Tithes in somebody purchased as it were by this annual payment called a modus and it seems not material whether this Right is in the Owner of the Estate, or in another. As to his claiming an Exemption from these repairs on account of his repairing Birtley Chapel, it seems not reasonable. For chapels being built for the convenience of the proprietors of particular villages or Townships they ought in reason to put up with the Inconvenience of repairing them, And not be < missing, torn> with draw themselves from the mother Church expect <...> in Tithes have no further connection with it. Neither does it appear that the Great <Tithes> are applicable to the repairs of such chapels. For the parishioners of <.....> in this town lately commenced a suit against Sir Matthew White in the E<cclesia>stical Court to compel him to repair their chancel because he has the great T<ithes> of Gosford Parish, within which St. Nicholas stands. But they soon dropt the <Suit> and have paid the costs and repaired the chancel themselves.

I gave Mr. N. Fenwick your Letter: he has not paid me any Money yet but promises he will very soon.

I am glad the Silver proved more, both in weight and value than I computed it to be.

I do not know how the £2000, which you want against Christmas can be raised; for here is no demand yet for Lead, and if we cannot get a quantity sold soon, the want of money will be very great, even for necessary occasions.

Blackett to him, but I had not then Time to write any thing. And all I have to say now is, that you are best judge whether it may not be proper for us to see you here before the meeting at Wallington. perhaps somethings may want adjusting; and I find Mr. Widdrington will not be able to go with us. Pray will there not be some difficulty about the Indemnification of the Tenants against the money, which they paid Lord Windsor; especially as part of that money was due to Mrs Windsor; I hear Sir Robt. does not intend to secure either Sir Wr or the Tennants against this Dem. Sir,

I am sorry we can't have the pleasure of seeing you here before the meeting at Wallington which agreeable to your Letter is fixed to be on Tuesday the 13th inst. for the Tenants, but Sir Robt. Bewicke will be there about noon on Monday the 12th in order to adjust with you any thing that may be wanting and therefore I hope you will be there as soon that Day as you can conveniently. My brother and I will be there I expect before you.

I have been this morning with Mr Widdrington; and that terms which he is willing that Sir Robt. shall offer the Tenants are as follows. That they shall be discharged from all Rents and arr[ea]rs of Rent due at <mart[inmas]>. And that Sir Walter Blackett shall repay them all the Rent <.....> received of them. But that S[i]r Robt shall not indemnify them ag[ains]t the money <they paid> to Lord Windsor but only pay Sr. Wr. his costs in money and give him <.....> of indemnity in such form as Mr Widdrington will send you by Sunday <.....> and as to the Tenants Sr. Robt. is only to give them a Bond of indemnity ag[ainst] money they shall pay hereafter to him. And this Mr Widdrington hopes will <procure> the delivering up of Sr. Wrs. Bonds. I have desir'd him to return your <draft> of the Bond with any observation etc that he thinks necessary to make upon for fear lest this proposal made today, may not be feazable and to the End <ma.....> we may be provided ag[ains]t the perverseness of the Tenants. Sir

I met with Mr Collingwood to Day upon Change, when I told him the Form which Mr Widdrington proposed to offer to the Kirkheaton Tenants agreeably to what I wrote you last post. Mr Collingwood thinks all is very proper <except> the Refusal to indemnify them against the money they paid Lord Windsor for this he thinks ought to be done, or else they will solicit and teaze <Sir Walter> as soon as they are called upon to pay the same over again: notwithstanding they may have delivered up Sir Walters Bonds. but possibly they will not <part> with them without being secured against this money which is only £201.11s.6d.

This opinion of Mr Collingwood's is only inter Nos. But he thinks the matter of so much consequence and that your coming here before the meeting at Wallington, is so absolutely necessary, that he desires me to tell you he will meet you at Mr Places on Monday at 12 o'clock, that He, you and Mr Widdrington may adjust this and every other point that Afternoon. And next Mo<... ..>ing early we will have a good easy postchaise ready to convey you to Wallington where we shall arrive I dare say before the Tenants.

Mr Widdrington says he will send you the draft of the Bonds, but ne<...> to see you here on Monday as soon as you can. Mr Collingwood told me he would be in Newcastle by 11 o'clock that morning. So that I humbly wish you cou[l]d slip away from Alnwick on Sunday Afternoon.

The price given for Standard Silver by Refiners, & other large dealers, is variable like that of the stocks; but like that may be known at the Exchange or by Lloyds Lists every day. And I should think Messrs Plumb & Browne, for their own characters sake would give you the market price. But probably after they had bought the Silver at that price they would not retail it out to Silversmiths without a profit of 1 ½ or 2d an ounce which is only about 3 p[er] cent for their trouble. This may Acco[un]t in some measure; for a Silversmith's paying a Refiner 5s.10d p[er] oz. sometime ago for Silver; and I remember Standard Silver Sold last year as high a price as 5s.8½d an oz. at the Exchange to which the refiners profit of 1½ or 2d an oz. being added, makes 5s.10d or 5.10½d p[er] ounce, for the retail price. I shall endeavour to get Lodging for Mr Leake against the 24th inst. Inclosed is a List of such of the trees, you bid me buy, as I could meet with at Calendar's Garden & I have sent directions about them to Jos. Thompson, pursuant to your Letter.
